WILL LAY CORNER STONE OF TEMPLE

Chisuk Emmuna Congregation
Ready to Seal Foundation of New Synagogue

With solemnly impressive services the cornerstone of the new Chisuk Emmuna synagogue at Sixth and Forster streets will be laid Sunday afternoon. Preliminary services incident to the formal departure of the congregation from the old synagogue at Filbert street and North alley will be held at 1:30 o'clock and at the close of this program the congregation of one of the oldest orthodox Jewish churches in the city will march to the site of the new home at Sixth and Forster streets. Hundreds of members and their friends will attend the services and the time has been impressed particularly on the guests from out of town. Joseph C. Claster, chairman of the building committee, will preside at the exercises, just as he officiated some eight or nine years ago when the Filbert street synagogue was erected. The speaker of the afternoon at the old synagogue will be Rabbi W. Margolies who will come from New York City especially for the purpose; at the actual laying of the corner stone on the new site, Rabbi Louis J. Haas, the Ohev Shalom will speak. Into the cornerstone will be placed the roster of the whole congregation inscribed on parchment. Copies of the by-laws and constitution will be among the other articles that will be sealed away in the stone by the rabbi. The new synagogue is being erected on the site of the old Central high school annex, the building that at one time was the St. Paul's Episcopal church. The building committee have been pushing the work as rapidly as possible with a view to getting the edifice under roof before the winter sets in. Every member of the committee has been equally busy in preparing for Sunday's celebration.

The other half dozen were refused because of technical errors. The commissioners put into effect today the new ruling which allows electors to register who have been unavoidably absent or ill on the final registration day only.

Commissioners Admit 23 More Applicants on the Registration Records

Twenty-three of the twenty-nine applications for registration by electors who had not been able to formally appear before the registrars, were approved today by the County Commissioners, and the names will be placed on the books. ## Wilson Denies Democrats Have Sectional Party

Indianapolis, Oct. 13.—President Wilson yesterday replied to the Republican charge that the Democratic party is a sectional party with a statement that "any man who reviews the issue of sectionalism in this country is unworthy of the confidence of the nation."

The President came to Indianapolis to address meetings of good roads advocates and farmers' review an automobile parade celebrating "Good Roads Day" of the Indiana centennial and attend a nonpartisan luncheon of leading Indiana. He was seen by crowds which packed the streets for blocks. In his first set speech he spoke of the good done by highways in preventing sectionalism.

The Coliseum at the fair grounds, where he delivered his first address, had many vacant seats in the rear, but the hall in which he spoke later was filled. He also spoke briefly at a luncheon given him by Governor and Mrs. S. M. Ralston, of Indiana. The second set speech was devoted to a discussion of the works of the Democratic administration for the farmers of the nation.

He said the catastrophe which has thrown Europe into chaos has brought North and South America together in a way not hitherto deemed possible. For this reason, he asserted, the convention should adopt a recommendation of the board of missions that a bishop be consecrated for Panama.

Young men's clothes as Hart Schaffner & Marx make them

JUST because a man's young, he wants particularly lively style in his clothes; and all of us, makers and retailers, are trying to see that he gets it.

But just because he's young is no reason why he should not get good quality with his smart style; on the contrary, it's all the more reason for being very careful about quality.

That's the real substance of the argument of the new models in Varsity Fifty Five suits.

These new models are in the snappiest style; with the sort of quality that is real economy. You'll find these the sort of clothes that pay you a profit.

YOU'LL find here lots of other things men wear besides clothes; sometimes these other things—the right color or pattern of a cravat; the height or shape of a hat; the correct idea in a shirt;—all these may be of much importance to the well-dressed man.

Better let us be your purveyors in these things.
