

This Week Is Edison Week

Do you know that over 600,000 people are now employed in industries founded by Thomas A. Edison?

This week is being observed by many of these industries in recognition of Mr. Edison's scientific achievements.

We observe the week by giving an Edison recital every day at our store and also by making it possible for a certain number of people in this community to compete in the

$1,000 Prize Contest

for the best descriptions of the enjoyment and musical education derived in the home from Mr. Edison's favorite and probably greatest invention

The NEW EDISON

We have set aside a limited number of these wonderful new instruments. They have been specially tested and will be placed in homes in this city on an absolutely free three days' trial during Edison Week.

Those who secure the benefit of these Edison Week free trials will be eligible to the big $1,000 contest for the best opinions of the value of the New Edison in the home.

These opinions must not be over 200 words in length. Their literary quality does not count. Professional writers and all members of the phonograph trade are barred.

What the Edison company wants are the real heartfelt opinions of the people after they have heard this wonderful new instrument in their own homes.

The first prize is $500. Second, $200. Third, $100.

Then there are consolation prizes aggregating $200. In addition, the Edison Company will pay ten cents per word for opinion which although not winning prizes, are considered suitable for publication.

Wednesday, matinee and night, October 18—"The House of Glass."
Coming for two days, October 20 and 21—Lyman H. Howe's Travel Festival.
MAJESTIC—Vaudeville.
COLONIAL—"Diane of the Follies."
FAMILY—"Grip of Evil."
GRAND—"The Two-Edged Sword."
REGENT—"Public Opinion."
VICTORIA—"The Light of Happiness."
Cohan & Harris' production of "The House of Glass," comes to the Victoria on Wednesday, Wednesday, Wednesday, and Wednesday.
Much of the success that has come to this play is unquestionably due to the finished acting of the well-balanced cast engaged in visualizing the great story.
That "The House of Glass" is one of the biggest plays seen on the New York stage in years is due to the opinion of everyone who sees it. The story is so genuine, so human, so perfectly natural that it might be a page torn from real life.

Travel certainly makes the world seem bigger. Every trip opens a new window through which to view life.
H. Howe's Travel Festival, which comes to the Orpheum, Friday and Saturday, is the only attraction before the public which serves as a superb substitution for actual travel. Its great scenic pictures impart ever new and wider angles from which to view the world.
Without these changing scenes of beauty, life might become like a violin hung upon the wall. We lose the music that is in us. We need to be re-strung—to be put in tune with new environments.

"The Simp," a new American comedy by Zillah Covington, will be the offering at the Orpheum, Friday and Saturday evening, October 23.
The play will be presented by Clarence W. Willets, and is the first of several New York productions scheduled by this newcomer in the producing field.
The company that will appear in the comedy is one of the most artistically selected cast for New York, and the entire New York production will be used. See "The Simp" and have an evening of wholesome merriment. Mr. Covington, who wrote this piece, also wrote "The Simp" and has a complete guarantee needed for the cleverest of his latest comedy.

These days vaudeville devotees are in favor of a show that contains lots of comedy. Such a bill can be found at the Orpheum, Friday and Saturday evening, October 23, which is headed by Ely's Revue, a singing comedy minstrel act.
An interesting feature of the act is the clever toe dancing of "La Cheta," who is claimed to be an artist along this line of work. Grouped around this attraction are: Dunlay and Merrill, man and woman comedy singing and talking act; Albert White and company, presenting a clever sketch entitled "The Scarlet Runner;" Patton and Payne, nifty couple in a flirtation skit, and Redington and Grant, trampolaine artists.

To-day the Victoria presents Viola Dana, in "The Light of Happiness." The play is a domestic story in five acts, and especially popular in this popular star. To-day also Earle Williams in that great series of pictures called "The Scarlet Runner." Pictures of Mr. Williams will be given free to the ladies who attend Charles H. Egan's show, "The Light of Happiness" at the Victoria on October 23 and 24, when we will present the international sensation Pavlowa in "The Dumb Girl of Portici."

Whether you are a man or a woman you'll be interested in the latest angle release that is booked for the Orpheum, Friday and Saturday evening, October 23 and 24, to-day and to-morrow.

"Diane of the Follies" is a domestic story in five acts, and especially popular in this popular star. To-day also Earle Williams in that great series of pictures called "The Scarlet Runner." Pictures of Mr. Williams will be given free to the ladies who attend Charles H. Egan's show, "The Light of Happiness" at the Victoria on October 23 and 24, when we will present the international sensation Pavlowa in "The Dumb Girl of Portici."

Every community has known something or other of domestic trouble and the manner in which people are often justly condemned, or to learn later in life that they were innocent.

Woman Weak, Run-Down

People of Harrisburg will begin to believe us when we say that our delicious Vinol is a wonderful tonic and strength creator.
Here is another case where it has proved its wonderful power to overcome weakness, run-down, nervous, anaemic conditions.
"I was run-down, nervous, and could not do my work without being entirely exhausted, and would often faint without any apparent cause. The doctor said I was anaemic but failed to help me. My husband brought home a bottle of Vinol and I began to improve after taking a bottle, and after taking four bottles it has built me up so I can do all my housework without help. I recommended Vinol to a neighbor, who says her doctor approves of it, and said 'Vinol is a wonderfully good tonic.'" Mrs. Bessie Hering, West Philadelphia, Pa.

Many Witness Wedding of Ex-Amateur Golf Champion

Newburg, N. Y., Oct. 16. — A romance of the golf links had its climax here last evening when Jerome Dunstan Travers, formerly the amateur golf champion, was married to Miss Doris Tiffany, formerly of this city, now of New York. Miss Tiffany and Mr. Travers met on the Powelton Club course here and after a short courtship their engagement was announced. The ceremony was performed in the First Presbyterian Church of this city by the pastor, the Rev. Frederick E. Stockwell, assisted by the Very Rev. Walter S. Danker, of Worcester, Mass., cousin of the bride.
About eight hundred guests were present at the ceremony. Following it a dinner was served and reception held at the Powelton Club, about two hundred guests being present.

AUTO OVER EMBANKMENT

Marietta, Pa., Oct. 16. — A large touring car owned by Jacob Frey, of Lancaster, went down an embankment along the Pennsylvania railroad near Mechanicsburg, Lancaster county, on Friday night, pinning the occupants beneath the wreckage. All were badly injured, the driver being unconscious for a time. Mr. Frey was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Decker, of Rossmore.

FARMERS WORK AT NIGHT

Marietta, Oct. 16. — Men are wanted for work in every section of Lancaster county, and farmers especially have trouble in getting their corn husked. Some are taking advantage of the moonlight and working well into the night, in order to get the corn in the cribs.

Thousands of cases are on record of people who have been sent to jail for life and hundreds who have been hanged, guillotined and even burned at the stake, they having been convicted on circumstantial evidence. "Public Opinion," the latest Lasky production on the Paramount Program, gives an excellent story and portrays in a thrilling manner the fact that circumstantial evidence and public opinion oftentimes condemn wrongly. This production, which features the brilliant star, Blanche Sweet, will be shown at the Regent to-day and to-morrow.
On Wednesday and Thursday — Daniel Frohman presents the popular screen stars, Owen Moore and Marguerite Courtot, in the thrilling, amusing picture of Edgar Selwyn's great stage triumph, "Rolling Stones."

Mr. Amato was himself a poor and ragged newsboy. One day a friend gave him a ticket to a concert, and then and there was born his great desire to be a singer—a desire that has made him the premier baritone of the world, a soloist of the great Metropolitan Opera Company, entertained by royalty and the possessor of a great fortune earned through the medium of his golden voice. So it happens that wherever Amato goes the newsboys of the town are invited to hear him. It is said that Amato hopes that from among them may come another such as he. At all events when Mr. Hand extended the invitation at the meeting Friday night, the newsboys were so well pleased they elected him a member of the association.
Amato is one of the highest-priced talking machine singers and his records are known and loved by thousands who never heard him in the flesh. This will do much to swell the audience to-night. Single tickets, as well as course tickets will be sold up to the opening of the concert at 8:15.

Reading Veteran Firemen Bring Handsome Present to Their Harrisburg Hosts
During the great firemen's celebration at the time of the convention of the Pennsylvania State Firemen's Association in this city in October 1914, the Citizen Fire Company, No. 3, had fifteen companies in its division of the parade, and among the organizations hospitably entertained by them was the Veteran Firemen's Association of Reading, which is made up of men who have served many years in the different companies of that city. The veterans had with them at that time an old hand pumping engine built in 1790, and which won a prize as the oldest apparatus in line. After returning home the Reading firemen started preparations for a testimonial to give to their hosts in Harrisburg, and on Saturday evening about fifty members of the association brought to this city a framed group of photographs, which was presented to the Citizen company. The meeting was called for 8 o'clock, but on account of the Citizen men being in service at the Central Iron Works fire it was 9 o'clock when the affair was started.

Chief Marshal Jacob Ducer in the opening address stated the object of their visit and introduced Sibert L. Witman, a member of the Veterans, who subsequently tendered the present to the Citizen company as a tribute of appreciation. President Charles P. Meek received the gift and thanked the Reading firemen on behalf of his company. Addresses were also made by Charles H. Egan, assistant chief of the Reading fire department, and an old-time friend of the Citizen members, and William W. Snyder, who had charge of the preparation of the group picture.
The group consists of more than fifty cabinet-size photographs and in the center is a picture of the old hand engine. The frame is gilt, ten inches deep and five by seven feet in size. It is a beautiful work of art and will be placed on exhibition.
Yesterday the visitors were taken about the city and surrounding country, through the parks and along the river drive in automobiles. They were quartered at the Eagle Hotel during their stay and returned home last evening. Those in the party were: Jacob Ducer, Jr., William W. Snyder, Charles H. Egan, Sibert L. Witman, John H. Wix, Charles Link, James Anstett, John Livenshew, Clarence Beam, Russell Beam, Andrew Rhoads, Samuel Rodgers, A. Harvey, Walter Coleman, Michael Lehman, William Marshall, Albert Cunius, Horace Greif, William Greiss, John Miller, William Talbert, Charles Neider, Samuel Stahl, Francis Noll, George Rapp, Harry Green, Charles Longacre, Chauncey Humphreys, David Brunner, Benjamin Genter, John Fisher, Charles Diefenderfer, John Rudy, James Bauscher, E. Keller, Abraham Witman, Peter Meek, John Hoover, Augustus Bruder, Joseph Moyer, Walter Moyer and Howard Stoltz.
