CENTRAL STUDENTS GET MILITARY TIPS

along in the proper way and with the proper spirit in a big procession.

Regular Military Staff
Furthermore the student body got its instruction straight from Uncle Sam's right hand; a dozen or more drillmasters under Captain Harry M. Stine, the army recruiting officer having been placed in charge. Daily for the next two weeks the girls and boys will be drilled, a forty-minute period having been set aside for each of the classes. Furthermore the classes have been divided and designated as "companies"—regular military staff, see?—and each company has a certain place on the daily schedule.

Direct From Plattsburg
Not all of the instructors have been assigned as yet but by this evening Captain Stine's staff will be complete. Here's the "order of the day" insofar as the drills are concerned:

Morning: 8:00—Company, E. B. Mitchell; 8:55, B—E. J. Stackpole, Jr.; 9:35, C—Frank H. Hoy, Jr.; 10:25, D—T. J. Gould; 11:05, E—S. W. Fleming, Jr.; 11:45, F—R. Miller.
Afternoon: 12:45, G—Frank G. Roth; 1:25, H—Will I. Laubenstein; 2:05, I—John C. Herman; 2:55, K—Joseph I. Wall; 3:35, L—Mark T. Milnor; 4:15, M—Instructor unassigned.

With Drum and Megaphone
Every one of the instructors is a real military man. Each has seen service regularly in the army, in military schools, in the State guard or at Plattsburg. Hence the straight-from-the-shoulder lesson from Uncle Sam's school.
All that the instructors lack are the services of a drum—and a megaphone. It's hard to interrupt an earnest discussion of the relative merits of tulle and chiffon, say the drillmasters, with a "hep-hep" shouted the length of half a block.

All There and Then Some
The football team was well represented at the first muster of the boys; so was the track team and the basketball squad; the young man in horn-rimmed spectacles was equally in attendance. And then in brother's borrowed varsity sweater, in flaming silken jacket of orange and blue and scarlet; in hair ribbons, blue-eyed, brown-eyed and gray-eyed, feminine contingent was very, very satisfactorily there. Take it from the drillmasters, the "girls really did much better than the boys."

Be all this as it may, if you weren't within earshot of the latest style "rookie" and the drillmaster to-day, you missed this.

The "School of the Soldier"
From the straight-backed instructor with recent memories of Plattsburg in mind: "The first thing you're to be taught this morning is how to 'dress'!"

Started voices from the ranks: "Mercy! how does HE know?"

Later, from the Plattsburgers: "Attention! Only about forty or five of you are 'dressing' properly."

Voice from the ranks: "Goodness, me! I KNOW he's looking at my hair. It's a fright."

Instructor: "Now, when I give the command 'March,' everybody step off with the left foot!"

Mental Algebra
From the ranks: "Oh dear, why doesn't he give us a little time? I never DO know immediately which is my 'left'!"

And there were other eventual things happening all the time—things that hadn't been worked out or even thought of by the general staff of the army. There was, for instance, a slight panic following the first order to "right, dress!" the command that means you're to straighten the line by gently rubbing your elbow in the ribs of your neighbor. One pretty marcher just couldn't quit giggling.

When It Tickles
"S matter" growled the military person. "Silence in the ranks!"

"Deed, I—I—JUST can't," gasped the officer. "I'm SO ticklish!"

And all the time the girls were getting their first lesson in the school of the soldier: the boys squarified four were gravely tramping over the streets of town and hoping that the watch that ticked off the minutes of the forty-minute period would stop or run down.

NEWS OF STEELTON

MERCHANTS WANT SHORTER HOURS

Businessmen's Association Is Heading a Move to Close Stores Three Evenings

Steelton's Businessmen's Association has made tentative plans to close all stores Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday nights of each week.

David P. Baker, Walter Keister and Jacob Levin were appointed on a committee to prepare a circular letter which is to be mailed to all local merchants. Committeemen will follow the letter with a personal call.

Many of the borough stores are closing Tuesday and Friday evenings of each week at 6 o'clock. The new move will add another evening holiday each week. The association has decided to change the place of meeting from the G. A. R. hall, North Front street to the Y. M. H. A. hall in the Electric Light building. The regular meetings will be held on the third Tuesday instead of the third Monday of each month. This change will take effect next month.

SUPERINTENDENT APPOINTED

Mrs. John Polm spent Sunday with friends in Pittsburgh.
Mrs. Jacob Kriner left to-day to spend several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. George Miller, of Hoerners-town.
Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 20.—Curtailment of profits because of the increase in the cost of wheat and flour was instrumental in causing 185 bakers of the United States to fail in business during June, July and August, according to figures compiled by the National Association of Master Bakers through trade channels and made public here to-day.

Members of Central High Faculty Give Opinions on Crowded Conditions

Just how bad conditions are at Central high school, is shown by opinions of various members of the faculty. It is a well-known fact that the students themselves are working to secure a new high school building. The fact that great interest is being taken in daily drills for the high school pageant to be held November 4. The conditions at Central are given by members of the faculty to-day:

Prof. Frank G. Roth—"I cannot give my proper services to the students of this school, because of existing conditions. The classes are too large; each individual student cannot receive the proper attention. The teachers are too pressed with work to prepare the lessons as they should be prepared. I believe the building to be inadequate."

Prof. Clarence Zorger—"The cartoon in last night's Telegraph expresses my opinion better than words. It was a true illustration of the facts."

Prof. Karl E. Richards—"I never worked so hard in my life, as I have this year. The classes are too large, most of them having thirty-five. The teachers have no time for work in the school, when not teaching classes. There is neither space nor time for the teachers or students to prepare lessons."

Politician Is Arrested on Charge of Stealing Bonds

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 20.—While trying to dispose of several thousand dollars worth of bonds to the Amelia State Bank, at Amelia, Ohio, late yesterday, a man who was identified to-day as Alonzo J. Whiteman, was apprehended and held by government officers who claimed that the bonds that Whiteman was trying to dispose of had been stolen from the bank several months ago.

Whiteman refused to talk until he was identified to-day by a representative of a detective agency. He then said that he had been graduated from Columbia and other law schools.

"I was a State senator in Minnesota," said Whiteman, "having been elected from Duluth and in 1892 I was one of those who seconded the nomination of Grover Cleveland."

Whiteman insisted that he had purchased the bonds and that he did not know they had been stolen until his broker in New York notified him. He insisted that he only wanted to get back what he paid for the bonds and for that reason went to the bank that they had been stolen from.

Police records and newspaper clippings found in possession of the prisoner say that Alonzo Whiteman once was mayor of Duluth. They also indicate that A. Whiteman became the leader of the Whiteman-Bothman band of forgers who succeeded in obtaining $100,000 by raising drafts.

SNOWING IN ILLINOIS

Crude Oil Goes Up to Its Record Price Again

Pittsburgh, Oct. 20.—Crude oil went back to its record price here to-day when the principal purchasing agencies, at the opening of the market, announced an advance of 10 cents a barrel on all grades but Raglands, which was advanced 5 cents. The new prices are:

Pennsylvania crude, $2.60; Cabell, $2.12; Mercer black, Corning and New Castle, $2.10; Somerset, $1.95; Ragland, 90 cents.

FIVE MINUTES! NO INDIGESTION, NO GAS OR ANY STOMACH MISERY

Don't Suffer! Here's the quickest, surest relief known for Dyspepsia, Sourness, Heartburn or an Upset Stomach—Try it!

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; your head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested foods; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Diapepsin and in five minutes you will wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.
Millions of men and women to-day know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps the stomach regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.
If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is astonishing. Please don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.

Columbia Medallion Portraits

Copy from any size photograph, postal card picture, kodak picture, tintype or Daguerreotype, and return them absolutely uninjured.
Columbia medallions are imperishable and can be washed even as an ivory miniature can. How many thousands have wished that they had enduring remembrances of father or mother or grandparents? How often have you felt a desire to possess a picture of yourself at an early age—a picture that would not change, or fade away in any way, and that no lapse of time could deface?
A Special Offer For 47c

Perhaps you have in your home the picture of some relative—a child, brother, sister or parent who is away—perhaps a friend you want to remember. From any photograph we will make you an absolutely faithful likeness. Bring in your photographs as soon as possible so we can give prompt delivery.
