LITERARY HEN LAYS AN EGG WITH PIECE OF NEWSPAPER

Quincy, Mass., Oct. 20. — Rivaling at least, if not transcending in importance the famous question asked by a former king of England as to how the apple got inside the dumpling is the question that Mrs. Sarah C. Williams, of Cross street, would like to have scientists, ornithologists or anybody else answer.

Mrs. Williams broke open an egg today, after the egg had been boiled. Inside she found a piece of newspaper about half an inch long and an eighth of an inch wide. There were a few lines of print on the paper, and Mrs. Williams could make out these words,

"To be known," and, underneath, "go to." The egg was in good condition.

GIRL WHO BOUGHT ELECTRIC COMPANY WILL RUN IT

Los Angeles, Oct. 20. — Miss Mary an unsuccessful Verdun defense against a horde of marauding ants.

The evidence shows that the ants attacked in solid mass formation, carrying the bees' first, second and third line of trenches, and then attacking the entrances to the hives.

The little Thermopylae was defended by a few valiant bees, but they never had a chance. When the entrances were choked the ants sat down and let the rest of the garrison starve.

RICH BLIND MAN A SUICIDE

Montreal, Oct. 20. — Raphael Ver-rachia, president of the Italian Society of Chicago, said to be wealthy, was found dead in bed here today, strangled by a bathrobe string. He was blind and deaf. He left a message that infirmities had caused him to tire of life.
