

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS

MISS LEMER GETS NEW RECOGNITION

Joins Bureau With Artists Like Hans Kindler and Jacobinoff

Miss Sara Lemer, the talented young violinist of this city, has completed arrangements to be under the management of the Philadelphia Musical Bureau for the season of 1916-17 and will be heard in concert in various parts of this State and elsewhere.

PHILADELPHIA MUSICAL BUREAU ARTIST NOW

MISS SARA LEMER

Tell Plantation Stories at Next League Meeting

A most interesting program of "Plantation Stories" will be presented at a meeting of the local Story Telling League on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the hall of the Public Library.

Brilliant Entry Opens Great Patriotic Festival

A brilliant and impressive sight will greet the vast audience attending the Children's Musical Patriotic Festival Tuesday evening in the Orpheum for the benefit of the Women's Division for Preparedness.

Promptly at 8 o'clock will the curtain go up and the march will begin with the Goddess of Liberty, Red Cross nurses and flag bearers, followed by the grand entry of the children's chorus all dressed in white and bearing United States flags.

No one with the love of music and patriotism can afford to miss this entertainment. Tickets at a nominal price may be secured at the box office of the Orpheum, Rose's, and from any member of the chorus. There are no reserved seats.

ON AUTOMOBILE TRIP

Mrs. Wilson Kistler of Lock Haven, Mrs. B. W. Fredericks and daughters the Misses Henrietta and Edith Fredericks of Newton, Mass., were guests of the Sedan on their night while on an automobile trip to Gettysburg and Bedford. The ladies spent a pleasant evening with friends on Boas street.

GUESTS OF THE COOPERS

Mrs. Henry Ward Carill of Swarthmore, Pa., Dr. and Mrs. John A. Hill of Asbury Park are guests of Frank Cooper and his daughter, Miss Sara Cooper of Camp Hill. To-morrow Mrs. Cooper and Miss Hill will leave with their guests for an extended trip to Washington, D. C., and Virginia. Later Miss Cooper will visit Miss Alice Simpson of New York City and Miss Grace Post of Hartford, Conn., school friend of hers at the Castle School.

MRS. HERMAN BUCHER HOSTESS FOR THE I GO I GO CLUB

The ladies of the I Go I Go Club were pleasantly entertained by Mrs. Herman Bucher at her home, 1925 Green street, the other afternoon. This is the first of their winter meetings. Mrs. Richard Bucher who has just returned from New York surprised the guests by unexpectedly coming in upon them. Sewing and chatting were enjoyed. Refreshments were served to Mrs. Edgar L. Spengler, Mrs. Julius Bucher, Mrs. Jack Beck of Summerdale, Mrs. E. L. Tittle, Mrs. E. K. Espenshade, Mrs. John L. Wohlfarth, Mrs. Richard Bucher, and Mrs. Herman Bucher.

Mrs. James Poffenberger of Huntington was a recent visitor in the city. Judge George C. Kunkel of 692 North Front street, is spending the week-end in Philadelphia.

Miss Fannie Eby of 609 North Front street, will leave Tuesday to spend several days in the Quaker City.

Frank C. Callen of West Nyack, New York, was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic W. Greene, of 623 North Seventeenth street.

Other Personals on Page 14.

BOGAR-SHAFFER MARRIAGE TODAY

Young Couple Wed in Shamokin Will Make Their Home in This City

The evening will be in charge of Miss Carrie Reineohl who will tell "Ephraim's Career"; Miss Clara B. Shore has chosen the tale, "The Winning of Miso in a Woods," by Andrew Wilkinson, as her contribution to the program; Miss Elizabeth Goldsmith will tell Joel Chandler Harris' story of "Mr. Rags and His Wonderful Fiddle," and Miss LaVene Grove will conclude the tales with "Monsieur George" by Cabie.

The treasurer, Miss Ella Yost will be there to receive club dues and year books will be distributed.

Seventeenth Birthday of Miss King Celebrated

In celebration of their daughter Anna's seventeenth birthday, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. King entertained a number of young folks at their home, 1539 North Fourth street. The guests spent a delightful evening with games and contests.

Refreshments were served to Miss Abbie Smith, Miss Elizabeth Gensler, Miss Ruth Johnson, Miss Elizabeth Kimmel, Miss Ruth Daller, Miss Mildred Martin, Miss Sarah Martin, Miss Ruth Armet, Miss Elizabeth King, Miss Anna King, John Ebersole, Paul Magill, James Kulp, Floyd Keener, John Grass, Fred Korby, Artyanas Keener, Harry Bankes, Earl King, John Goodyear, Elverson Keener, Russell Ritchie, Stephen Stroup, Hester Dull, Charles Clements, Lloyd Cocklin and Calvin Holzman, Mr. and Mrs. T. King, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. King and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bankes.

There will be a special meeting of the Derry Street C. E. Society tomorrow evening at 6:30 o'clock with Miss Helen Bright, the vice-president in charge. Miss Sylvia Drawbaugh will play a piano solo and plans will be completed for a Halloween social. All members are urged to be in attendance.

Miss Miriam K. Sourbeer Bride of Albert Craver

Mrs. M. K. Sourbeer, of the Donaldson, announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Miriam K. Sourbeer, to Albert B. Craver, of this city, Thursday evening, October 26, in Hickory, North Carolina.

The ceremony was performed at 6 o'clock at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. LeRoy F. Abernethy, by the Rev. Dr. J. S. Murphy, of the Reformed Church, who used the ring service. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, LeRoy F. Abernethy, wore a gray panne velvet suit, a silver lace picture hat and corsage bouquet of orchids and valley lilies. She was attended by her twin sister, Miss Lenore Sourbeer, as maid of honor and little Dorothy Abernethy, a niece of the bride, bore the wedding ring in a lily.

After the wedding supper the newlyweds left for Florida, stopping at many points of interest en route. Mr. and Mrs. Craver will be "at home" after December 1 at 17 South Front street, this city.

Miss Edith Denney of Evergreen street, a student at Irving College, Mechanicsburg, is spending the week-end at her home.

Miss Louise Plank of 1421 North Front street, is home after a visit in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cooper of Chester, Pa., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nelson Cooper of Camp Hill.

Astrich's Another Great Special Monday Bargain Sale Eighty Dozen Black Velvet Hats

HAVE COME TO US AT A GREAT CONCESSION IN PRICE They are the kind of hats which every woman is looking for and will be glad to buy on Monday at these SPECIAL PRICES.

THESE HATS WILL BE ARRANGED ON FIFTEEN OF OUR LARGE MILLINERY TABLES

For convenient buying and selling we have these tables numbered from No. 1 to No. 15. Each table's price number corresponds with these advertised prices here. We need not tell you the actual selling values of these hats—but want you to use your own judgment. OUR ALL-WEEK PRICES ARE USUALLY LOWER THAN ACTUAL VALUES. These Monday prices being still lower—our Millinery Department should be crowded to overflowing all day. SALE STARTS AT 9 O'CLOCK. No C. O. D.—None laid aside—no phone orders—no returns—and no credit checks—CASH SALES ONLY.

TABLE NO. 1—LARGE SILK VELVET SAILORS—excellent quality; French grosgrain binding. $2.44 This Monday only

TABLE NO. 2—Elegant SILK HATTER'S PLUSH HATS—Sailors and Shapes, silk velvet facing, French grosgrain binding. Monday only $3.44

TABLE NO. 3—BLACK SILK VELVET HATS—Sailors, Tricornes and Novelty Shapes, including Lyon's Velvet Hats. This Monday only $2.44

TABLE NO. 4—LYON'S VELVET HATS—Sailors, Flares, Continentals and Novelty Shapes, including hand-blocked hats. Big assortment. This Monday only $3.33

TABLE NO. 5—SILK VELVET TURBANS AND TRICORNES—fancy shapes, some Lyon's Velvet. This Monday only $2.44

TABLE NO. 6—GIRLS' VELVET TAMS—of excellent Silk Velvet; also Girls' Mushroom and Short Black Pokes. This Monday only $1.44

TABLE NO. 7—LARGE SILK VELVET SAILORS—different crowns, 3/4-inch brims; also large side flare; fine quality velvet. This Monday only $1.66

TABLE NO. 8—SILK VELVET TURBANS—also Silk Plush Hats with Velvet Brims, an elegant variety of our best sellers. This Monday only $1.66

TABLE NO. 9—VELVET SAILORS—extra wide brims, fancy and plain crowns; also medium pure Silk Velvet Sailors and Zibeline Plush Hats. This Monday only $1.29

TABLE NO. 10—BLACK VELVET HATS AND TURBANS—medium size—full variety of styles. This Monday only 79c

TABLE NO. 11—One Large Table of Excellent Quality COLORED SILK VELVET SAILORS—in navy, brown, rose, purple etc.; unusually good values. This Monday only $2.22

TABLE NO. 12—Hand-blocked LYON'S VELVET HATS—Fancy Shapes and Turbans, including highest class hand-blocked hats. This Monday only $4.44

TABLE NO. 13—Misses' Colored SILK VELVET HATS—Sailors and Mushrooms. They are unusual good quality. This Monday only $1.66

TABLE NO. 14—MISSES' COLORED VELVET HATS—also Girls' Shirred Hats, all colors; choice on table. This Monday only 79c

In addition to the above we offer the following most desirable and best selling numbers at SPECIAL MONDAY PRICES. GOOD THIS MONDAY ONLY.

GIRLS' DRAPED LYON'S AND SALTZ SILK VELVET TAMS—including latest ideas. Ready to put on. This Monday $2.44

HIGHEST CLASS DRAPED LYON'S VELVET TAMS—with high draped sides. Ready to put on. This Monday only $3.33

DRAPED LYON'S VELVET TURBANS—for middle-aged women and girls—compare well with hats sold at $6.00 to $7.00. Ready to put on. This Monday only $3.33

EXTRA SPECIAL—SILK HATTER'S PLUSH SAILORS—wide grosgrain bands—French binding—full lined—including Keith's Sailors—unusually large variety of high-class hats. This Monday only $3.98

SPECIAL SALE OF VELOUR HATS—A manufacturer's close-out of about 15 dozen assorted styles and the best colors including black—will let you judge the values. For this Monday only $2.98

Rain or Shine --- Let Nothing Keep You Away on Monday

BOGAR-SHAFFER MARRIAGE TODAY

Young Couple Wed in Shamokin Will Make Their Home in This City

The evening will be in charge of Miss Carrie Reineohl who will tell "Ephraim's Career"; Miss Clara B. Shore has chosen the tale, "The Winning of Miso in a Woods," by Andrew Wilkinson, as her contribution to the program; Miss Elizabeth Goldsmith will tell Joel Chandler Harris' story of "Mr. Rags and His Wonderful Fiddle," and Miss LaVene Grove will conclude the tales with "Monsieur George" by Cabie.

The treasurer, Miss Ella Yost will be there to receive club dues and year books will be distributed.

Seventeenth Birthday of Miss King Celebrated

In celebration of their daughter Anna's seventeenth birthday, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. King entertained a number of young folks at their home, 1539 North Fourth street. The guests spent a delightful evening with games and contests.

Refreshments were served to Miss Abbie Smith, Miss Elizabeth Gensler, Miss Ruth Johnson, Miss Elizabeth Kimmel, Miss Ruth Daller, Miss Mildred Martin, Miss Sarah Martin, Miss Ruth Armet, Miss Elizabeth King, Miss Anna King, John Ebersole, Paul Magill, James Kulp, Floyd Keener, John Grass, Fred Korby, Artyanas Keener, Harry Bankes, Earl King, John Goodyear, Elverson Keener, Russell Ritchie, Stephen Stroup, Hester Dull, Charles Clements, Lloyd Cocklin and Calvin Holzman, Mr. and Mrs. T. King, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. King and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bankes.

There will be a special meeting of the Derry Street C. E. Society tomorrow evening at 6:30 o'clock with Miss Helen Bright, the vice-president in charge. Miss Sylvia Drawbaugh will play a piano solo and plans will be completed for a Halloween social. All members are urged to be in attendance.

Miss Miriam K. Sourbeer Bride of Albert Craver

Mrs. M. K. Sourbeer, of the Donaldson, announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Miriam K. Sourbeer, to Albert B. Craver, of this city, Thursday evening, October 26, in Hickory, North Carolina.

The ceremony was performed at 6 o'clock at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. LeRoy F. Abernethy, by the Rev. Dr. J. S. Murphy, of the Reformed Church, who used the ring service. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, LeRoy F. Abernethy, wore a gray panne velvet suit, a silver lace picture hat and corsage bouquet of orchids and valley lilies. She was attended by her twin sister, Miss Lenore Sourbeer, as maid of honor and little Dorothy Abernethy, a niece of the bride, bore the wedding ring in a lily.

After the wedding supper the newlyweds left for Florida, stopping at many points of interest en route. Mr. and Mrs. Craver will be "at home" after December 1 at 17 South Front street, this city.

Miss Edith Denney of Evergreen street, a student at Irving College, Mechanicsburg, is spending the week-end at her home.

Miss Louise Plank of 1421 North Front street, is home after a visit in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cooper of Chester, Pa., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nelson Cooper of Camp Hill.

BOGAR-SHAFFER MARRIAGE TODAY

Young Couple Wed in Shamokin Will Make Their Home in This City

The evening will be in charge of Miss Carrie Reineohl who will tell "Ephraim's Career"; Miss Clara B. Shore has chosen the tale, "The Winning of Miso in a Woods," by Andrew Wilkinson, as her contribution to the program; Miss Elizabeth Goldsmith will tell Joel Chandler Harris' story of "Mr. Rags and His Wonderful Fiddle," and Miss LaVene Grove will conclude the tales with "Monsieur George" by Cabie.

The treasurer, Miss Ella Yost will be there to receive club dues and year books will be distributed.

Seventeenth Birthday of Miss King Celebrated

In celebration of their daughter Anna's seventeenth birthday, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. King entertained a number of young folks at their home, 1539 North Fourth street. The guests spent a delightful evening with games and contests.

Refreshments were served to Miss Abbie Smith, Miss Elizabeth Gensler, Miss Ruth Johnson, Miss Elizabeth Kimmel, Miss Ruth Daller, Miss Mildred Martin, Miss Sarah Martin, Miss Ruth Armet, Miss Elizabeth King, Miss Anna King, John Ebersole, Paul Magill, James Kulp, Floyd Keener, John Grass, Fred Korby, Artyanas Keener, Harry Bankes, Earl King, John Goodyear, Elverson Keener, Russell Ritchie, Stephen Stroup, Hester Dull, Charles Clements, Lloyd Cocklin and Calvin Holzman, Mr. and Mrs. T. King, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. King and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bankes.

There will be a special meeting of the Derry Street C. E. Society tomorrow evening at 6:30 o'clock with Miss Helen Bright, the vice-president in charge. Miss Sylvia Drawbaugh will play a piano solo and plans will be completed for a Halloween social. All members are urged to be in attendance.

Miss Miriam K. Sourbeer Bride of Albert Craver

Mrs. M. K. Sourbeer, of the Donaldson, announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Miriam K. Sourbeer, to Albert B. Craver, of this city, Thursday evening, October 26, in Hickory, North Carolina.

The ceremony was performed at 6 o'clock at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. LeRoy F. Abernethy, by the Rev. Dr. J. S. Murphy, of the Reformed Church, who used the ring service. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, LeRoy F. Abernethy, wore a gray panne velvet suit, a silver lace picture hat and corsage bouquet of orchids and valley lilies. She was attended by her twin sister, Miss Lenore Sourbeer, as maid of honor and little Dorothy Abernethy, a niece of the bride, bore the wedding ring in a lily.

After the wedding supper the newlyweds left for Florida, stopping at many points of interest en route. Mr. and Mrs. Craver will be "at home" after December 1 at 17 South Front street, this city.

Miss Edith Denney of Evergreen street, a student at Irving College, Mechanicsburg, is spending the week-end at her home.

Miss Louise Plank of 1421 North Front street, is home after a visit in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cooper of Chester, Pa., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nelson Cooper of Camp Hill.

BOGAR-SHAFFER MARRIAGE TODAY

Young Couple Wed in Shamokin Will Make Their Home in This City

The evening will be in charge of Miss Carrie Reineohl who will tell "Ephraim's Career"; Miss Clara B. Shore has chosen the tale, "The Winning of Miso in a Woods," by Andrew Wilkinson, as her contribution to the program; Miss Elizabeth Goldsmith will tell Joel Chandler Harris' story of "Mr. Rags and His Wonderful Fiddle," and Miss LaVene Grove will conclude the tales with "Monsieur George" by Cabie.

The treasurer, Miss Ella Yost will be there to receive club dues and year books will be distributed.

Seventeenth Birthday of Miss King Celebrated

In celebration of their daughter Anna's seventeenth birthday, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. King entertained a number of young folks at their home, 1539 North Fourth street. The guests spent a delightful evening with games and contests.

Refreshments were served to Miss Abbie Smith, Miss Elizabeth Gensler, Miss Ruth Johnson, Miss Elizabeth Kimmel, Miss Ruth Daller, Miss Mildred Martin, Miss Sarah Martin, Miss Ruth Armet, Miss Elizabeth King, Miss Anna King, John Ebersole, Paul Magill, James Kulp, Floyd Keener, John Grass, Fred Korby, Artyanas Keener, Harry Bankes, Earl King, John Goodyear, Elverson Keener, Russell Ritchie, Stephen Stroup, Hester Dull, Charles Clements, Lloyd Cocklin and Calvin Holzman, Mr. and Mrs. T. King, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. King and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bankes.

There will be a special meeting of the Derry Street C. E. Society tomorrow evening at 6:30 o'clock with Miss Helen Bright, the vice-president in charge. Miss Sylvia Drawbaugh will play a piano solo and plans will be completed for a Halloween social. All members are urged to be in attendance.

Miss Miriam K. Sourbeer Bride of Albert Craver

Mrs. M. K. Sourbeer, of the Donaldson, announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Miriam K. Sourbeer, to Albert B. Craver, of this city, Thursday evening, October 26, in Hickory, North Carolina.

The ceremony was performed at 6 o'clock at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. LeRoy F. Abernethy, by the Rev. Dr. J. S. Murphy, of the Reformed Church, who used the ring service. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, LeRoy F. Abernethy, wore a gray panne velvet suit, a silver lace picture hat and corsage bouquet of orchids and valley lilies. She was attended by her twin sister, Miss Lenore Sourbeer, as maid of honor and little Dorothy Abernethy, a niece of the bride, bore the wedding ring in a lily.

After the wedding supper the newlyweds left for Florida, stopping at many points of interest en route. Mr. and Mrs. Craver will be "at home" after December 1 at 17 South Front street, this city.

Miss Edith Denney of Evergreen street, a student at Irving College, Mechanicsburg, is spending the week-end at her home.

Miss Louise Plank of 1421 North Front street, is home after a visit in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cooper of Chester, Pa., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nelson Cooper of Camp Hill.

BOGAR-SHAFFER MARRIAGE TODAY

Young Couple Wed in Shamokin Will Make Their Home in This City

The evening will be in charge of Miss Carrie Reineohl who will tell "Ephraim's Career"; Miss Clara B. Shore has chosen the tale, "The Winning of Miso in a Woods," by Andrew Wilkinson, as her contribution to the program; Miss Elizabeth Goldsmith will tell Joel Chandler Harris' story of "Mr. Rags and His Wonderful Fiddle," and Miss LaVene Grove will conclude the tales with "Monsieur George" by Cabie.

The treasurer, Miss Ella Yost will be there to receive club dues and year books will be distributed.

Seventeenth Birthday of Miss King Celebrated

In celebration of their daughter Anna's seventeenth birthday, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. King entertained a number of young folks at their home, 1539 North Fourth street. The guests spent a delightful evening with games and contests.

Refreshments were served to Miss Abbie Smith, Miss Elizabeth Gensler, Miss Ruth Johnson, Miss Elizabeth Kimmel, Miss Ruth Daller, Miss Mildred Martin, Miss Sarah Martin, Miss Ruth Armet, Miss Elizabeth King, Miss Anna King, John Ebersole, Paul Magill, James Kulp, Floyd Keener, John Grass, Fred Korby, Artyanas Keener, Harry Bankes, Earl King, John Goodyear, Elverson Keener, Russell Ritchie, Stephen Stroup, Hester Dull, Charles Clements, Lloyd Cocklin and Calvin Holzman, Mr. and Mrs. T. King, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. King and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bankes.

There will be a special meeting of the Derry Street C. E. Society tomorrow evening at 6:30 o'clock with Miss Helen Bright, the vice-president in charge. Miss Sylvia Drawbaugh will play a piano solo and plans will be completed for a Halloween social. All members are urged to be in attendance.

Miss Miriam K. Sourbeer Bride of Albert Craver

Mrs. M. K. Sourbeer, of the Donaldson, announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Miriam K. Sourbeer, to Albert B. Craver, of this city, Thursday evening, October 26, in Hickory, North Carolina.

The ceremony was performed at 6 o'clock at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. LeRoy F. Abernethy, by the Rev. Dr. J. S. Murphy, of the Reformed Church, who used the ring service. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, LeRoy F. Abernethy, wore a gray panne velvet suit, a silver lace picture hat and corsage bouquet of orchids and valley lilies. She was attended by her twin sister, Miss Lenore Sourbeer, as maid of honor and little Dorothy Abernethy, a niece of the bride, bore the wedding ring in a lily.

After the wedding supper the newlyweds left for Florida, stopping at many points of interest en route. Mr. and Mrs. Craver will be "at home" after December 1 at 17 South Front street, this city.

Miss Edith Denney of Evergreen street, a student at Irving College, Mechanicsburg, is spending the week-end at her home.

Miss Louise Plank of 1421 North Front street, is home after a visit in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cooper of Chester, Pa., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nelson Cooper of Camp Hill.

BOGAR-SHAFFER MARRIAGE TODAY

Young Couple Wed in Shamokin Will Make Their Home in This City

The evening will be in charge of Miss Carrie Reineohl who will tell "Ephraim's Career"; Miss Clara B. Shore has chosen the tale, "The Winning of Miso in a Woods," by Andrew Wilkinson, as her contribution to the program; Miss Elizabeth Goldsmith will tell Joel Chandler Harris' story of "Mr. Rags and His Wonderful Fiddle," and Miss LaVene Grove will conclude the tales with "Monsieur George" by Cabie.

The treasurer, Miss Ella Yost will be there to receive club dues and year books will be distributed.

Seventeenth Birthday of Miss King Celebrated

In celebration of their daughter Anna's seventeenth birthday, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. King entertained a number of young folks at their home, 1539 North Fourth street. The guests spent a delightful evening with games and contests.

Refreshments were served to Miss Abbie Smith, Miss Elizabeth Gensler, Miss Ruth Johnson, Miss Elizabeth Kimmel, Miss Ruth Daller, Miss Mildred Martin, Miss Sarah Martin, Miss Ruth Armet, Miss Elizabeth King, Miss Anna King, John Ebersole, Paul Magill, James Kulp, Floyd Keener, John Grass, Fred Korby, Artyanas Keener, Harry Bankes, Earl King, John Goodyear, Elverson Keener, Russell Ritchie, Stephen Stroup, Hester Dull, Charles Clements, Lloyd Cocklin and Calvin Holzman, Mr. and Mrs. T. King, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. King and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bankes.

There will be a special meeting of the Derry Street C. E. Society tomorrow evening at 6:30 o'clock with Miss Helen Bright, the vice-president in charge. Miss Sylvia Drawbaugh will play a piano solo and plans will be completed for a Halloween social. All members are urged to be in attendance.

Miss Miriam K. Sourbeer Bride of Albert Craver

Mrs. M. K. Sourbeer, of the Donaldson, announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Miriam K. Sourbeer, to Albert B. Craver, of this city, Thursday evening, October 26, in Hickory, North Carolina.

The ceremony was performed at 6 o'clock at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. LeRoy F. Abernethy, by the Rev. Dr. J. S. Murphy, of the Reformed Church, who used the ring service. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, LeRoy F. Abernethy, wore a gray panne velvet suit, a silver lace picture hat and corsage bouquet of orchids and valley lilies. She was attended by her twin sister, Miss Lenore Sourbeer, as maid of honor and little Dorothy Abernethy, a niece of the bride, bore the wedding ring in a lily.

After the wedding supper the newlyweds left for Florida, stopping at many points of interest en route. Mr. and Mrs. Craver will be "at home" after December 1 at 17 South Front street, this city.

Miss Edith Denney of Evergreen street, a student at Irving College, Mechanicsburg, is spending the week-end at her home.

Miss Louise Plank of 1421 North Front street, is home after a visit in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cooper of Chester, Pa., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nelson Cooper of Camp Hill.

BOGAR-SHAFFER MARRIAGE TODAY

Young Couple Wed in Shamokin Will Make Their Home in This City

The evening will be in charge of Miss Carrie Reineohl who will tell "Ephraim's Career"; Miss Clara B. Shore has chosen the tale, "The Winning of Miso in a Woods," by Andrew Wilkinson, as her contribution to the program; Miss Elizabeth Goldsmith will tell Joel Chandler Harris' story of "Mr. Rags and His Wonderful Fiddle," and Miss LaVene Grove will conclude the tales with "Monsieur George" by Cabie.

The treasurer, Miss Ella Yost will be there to receive club dues and year books will be distributed.

Seventeenth Birthday of Miss King Celebrated

In celebration of their daughter Anna's seventeenth birthday, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. King entertained a number of young folks at their home, 1539 North Fourth street. The guests spent a delightful evening with games and contests.

Refreshments were served to Miss Abbie Smith, Miss Elizabeth Gensler, Miss Ruth Johnson, Miss Elizabeth Kimmel, Miss Ruth Daller, Miss Mildred Martin, Miss Sarah Martin, Miss Ruth Armet, Miss Elizabeth King, Miss Anna King, John Ebersole, Paul Magill, James Kulp, Floyd Keener, John Grass, Fred Korby, Artyanas Keener, Harry Bankes, Earl King, John Goodyear, Elverson Keener, Russell Ritchie, Stephen Stroup, Hester Dull, Charles Clements, Lloyd Cocklin and Calvin Holzman, Mr. and Mrs. T. King, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. King and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bankes.

There will be a special meeting of the Derry Street C. E. Society tomorrow evening at 6:30 o'clock with Miss Helen Bright, the vice-president in charge. Miss Sylvia Drawbaugh will play a piano solo and plans will be completed for a Halloween social. All members are urged to be in attendance.

Miss Miriam K. Sourbeer Bride of Albert Craver

Mrs. M. K. Sourbeer, of the Donaldson, announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Miriam K. Sourbeer, to Albert B. Craver, of this city, Thursday evening, October 26, in Hickory, North Carolina.

The ceremony was performed at 6 o'clock at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. LeRoy F. Abernethy, by the Rev. Dr. J. S. Murphy, of the Reformed Church, who used the ring service. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, LeRoy F. Abernethy, wore a gray panne velvet suit, a silver lace picture hat and corsage bouquet of orchids and valley lilies. She was attended by her twin sister, Miss Lenore Sourbeer, as maid of honor and little Dorothy Abernethy, a niece of the bride, bore the wedding ring in a lily.

After the wedding supper the newlyweds left for Florida, stopping at many points of interest en route. Mr. and Mrs. Craver will be "at home" after December 1 at 17 South Front street, this city.

Miss Edith Denney of Evergreen street, a student at Irving College, Mechanicsburg, is spending the week-end at her home.