

HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH

A NEWSPAPER FOR THE HOME... Founded 1831... Published evenings except Sunday by THE TELEGRAPH PRINTING CO., TELEGRAPH BUILDING, FEDERAL SQUARE.

Member American Newspaper Publishers' Association, The Audit Bureau of Circulation and Pennsylvania Associated Dailies.

Eastern office, J. J. Brooks & Finley, Fifth Avenue, New York City; Western office, Story, Brooks & Finley, Peoples Gas Building, Chicago, Ill.

Entered at the Post Office in Harrisburg, Pa., as second class matter.

By carriers, six cents a week; by mail, $3.00 a year in advance.

SATURDAY EVENING, OCT. 21.

Those who bring sunshine into the lives of others cannot keep it from themselves.—J. M. BARRE.

THE ALLIES AND GREECE

THE allies are doing in Greece precisely what they criticised Germany for doing in Belgium. Except that there are no reports of them smashing her churches and killing her citizens.

Americans who have sympathized with the allies will pause for a moment to wonder which is the worst—the despoiler of Belgium or the invader of Greece.

ENRULY NEGRO ELEMENT

THE police authorities should be heartily supported by City Council in their effort to put down the unruly negro element that scarcity of foreign labor and busy industries have brought to this locality from the South.

MARRIAGE OF A PRINCESS

A CABLEGRAM gives account of the latest royal marriage in Europe, a very unusual event. The Princess Marie Therese of Hohenzollern, it says, has given up all her family ties and a brilliant future at court to marry Otto Kohlhals, of Innsbruck, an apothecary's assistant and a descendant of an humble Austrian family.

REPUBLICAN MEETINGS

THE Republicans have begun their mass meetings throughout the county. They are well attended and enthusiastic, but really they were unnecessary this year.

SCRAMBLING FOR VOTES

PRESIDENT WILSON is more and more creating the impression of a wild-eyed individual with coat-tails streaming, grabbing the rear railing and scrambling to swing himself aboard the hand wagon where the votes are stored.

those thus brought together from all walks of life to share a common routine and danger. The tenant farmers of England, it is said, are going home when the war ends, to be land owners.

The marriage of the princess and her lover, the apothecary's assistant, is interesting and unusual. It is a striking illustration of the leveling process of war, where the humble drug clerk met, as a soldier of the empire, the princess royal, in the garb of a hospital nurse.

When the "ultimate consumer" consumes a dish of ice cream these days, he runs the risk of becoming very ultimate.

MT. UNION

MT. UNION, that hustling, prosperous little community some hundred miles to the west of us along the main line of the Pennsylvania railroad, has been heralded abroad as a "war bride" town.

KREIDER AND LABOR

DEMOCRATS discussing the candidacy of Congressman Kreider for re-election have neglected a very important item in reviewing the Congressman's labor record.

Looking for a Job

The Woman's Home Companion receives thousands of letters annually from people asking what they should do with their children in looking for work.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Wants to get us into an argument is bigger than we are. We can knock the spots off of a little country that cannot offer us a real fight.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

PERHAPS. Wife—When women rule we'll get out of some of those useless bureaus.

VERY TRUE

Wherever there's a will there's a way. Not always. Sometimes there's a law suit.

TYPHOID INOCULATION IS NOW "QUITE THE THING" IN HARRISBURG

THE DREAM OF THE MAN WHO REFUSED TO BE INOCULATED FOR TYPHOID

MR DUBBS—HE ALMOST GETS INOCULATED.

WE NEED REAL MAN-SIZED CITY HEALTH DEPARTMENT

J HORACE M'FARLAND, whose acquaintance with municipal problems makes his views worth while on any subject relating to city affairs, in an interview with a Telegraph representative to-day, made a strong appeal for an adequately equipped health department of Harrisburg.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Iowa State College has instituted a course in janitorship, giving the allowance of a janitor with a diploma.—Detroit Free Press.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Wants to get us into an argument is bigger than we are. We can knock the spots off of a little country that cannot offer us a real fight.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

PERHAPS. Wife—When women rule we'll get out of some of those useless bureaus.

VERY TRUE

Wherever there's a will there's a way. Not always. Sometimes there's a law suit.

Evening Chat

It is a great pity, but nevertheless, it is true that Col. Charles E. Covert will not be able to vote on the next election day, November 7. It will be the first time since he has been of age and the pity is increased because on that day the colonel will doubtless be in excellent health and spirits and able and willing to vote.

Some of the young squirrels in Capitol Park are having a hard time in these days of frequent rains and high winds and they have been excavating some fine ground and lofty tumbling in getting about from home in the trees to another.

The blackbirds have commenced their flights to the south and they are a scarce article about Reservoir park and other places in this section where they were so numerous as well as strenuous a few weeks ago.

"Yes, I knew it was coming," said a Harrisburg man who observes the weather occasionally instead of daily. "I never knew it to fall. It has come around like the full moon and it has always come in the evening."

Three people standing at the lock boxes in the post office heard his lament and asked what it was all about.

From all accounts cities in the State are keeping an eye on the manner in which Harrisburg is going to deal with its High School problem.

One can get a pretty good idea of the richness of the agricultural country which surrounds Harrisburg by going to market on Saturday or Sunday.

It used to be that the farmers who came to the Harrisburg markets would stay until about noon to do their shopping and go home between noon and 2 o'clock.

C. Henderson Supplee, a member of the Governor's commission to probe the price of milk says that the action of some dairy farmers is going to prove a boomerang.

Dr. John Marshall, noted Philadelphia physician and chemist, is home from his annual trip to Rhode Island.

HISTORIC HARRISBURG. The first stagecoach line to cross the river from this place was started before the Revolution.

Largest Dry City. Petrograd, Russia, is of course, the largest dry city in the world, and Toronto, Canada, with 400,000 population, becomes by the Ontario prohibition act the largest dry city in America.

WHAT THE ROTARY CLUB LEARNED OF THE CITY. [Questions submitted to members of the Harrisburg Rotary Club and their answers as presented at the organization's annual "Municipal Quiz."]