

Witmer, Bair & Witmer

Walnut Near Second

Personal and Important

These cool, crisp October days make you think of Fall GARMENTS.

We offer one of the most exclusive and decidedly complete stocks of SUITS, COATS, DAY-TIME AND EVENING DRESSES, SKIRTS, WAISTS AND PETTICOATS, that it has ever been our pleasure to show.

Garments tailored by master makers and designed to meet the requirements of the vogue ideas of to-day.

COATS AND SUITS—plain and fur-trimmed in all the desirable materials and shades.

You owe it to yourself to at least see our display of high grade SUITS AND COATS. It will pay—we assure you.

Witmer, Bair & Witmer

Winterdale Dances

Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings.—Adv.

The Potteiger-Fisher

Wedding in Baltimore

MRS. CHARLES E. POTTEIGER

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Fisher of 2106 North Sixth street announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Marie Evelyn Fisher, to Charles Edward Potteiger, of 1917 Forster street on Thursday, October 19. Both Mr. Potteiger and his bride were employed of the Western Union Telegraph Co., in this city. They will be at home to their many friends after November 1 in their new home at 2155 Logan street.

Miss Mildred Schradley of 747 South Nineteenth street who is a teacher in the public schools at Halifax spent the week-end at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Heaps and daughter, Laura, of 1615 Derry street spent the week-end with relatives in Reading.

Miss Dorothy Stewart of Crescent street, who is an instructor in the Halifax schools spent the week-end at her home.

Mrs. Abram Fetrow of Middletown and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kerns, of Camp Hill were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Orth of 428 North street yesterday.

Mrs. Frank Groff of Ephrata, Lancaster county, is visiting Mrs. William Orth, 406 North street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Palmer of 315 Verbeke street, spent the past few days in Newton Hamilton, Altoona and White Bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ball and daughter, of Engle with Mr. and Mrs. George Dutrey of Wormleysburg are home after a successful hunting trip in Juniata county.

Belle Pennington Middaugh

Teacher of Voice

Contraalto soloist, at the Market Square Presbyterian Church, pupil of Herbert Wilbur Green, of New York City, F. EDMUND EDMUNDS and Horatio Connell, of Philadelphia.

30 N. Fourth St. Bell Phone 4023-R

Buehler Bros

CUT RATE MARKETS

432 Market St.

SPECIALS FOR TUESDAY

- Pigs' Feet 6c lb.
- Flank Steak 16c lb.
- Club Steak 17c lb.
- Beef Liver 10c lb.
- Pork Chops 20c lb.
- Stewing Lamb 14c lb.
- Lamb Chops 22c lb.
- Buehler Bros., Special Coffee, 23c lb.
- Buehler Bros., High Grade Butterine, 21c lb.

Markets in Principal Cities of 13 States

Main Office, Chicago, Ill.

Packing House, Peoria, Ill.

PERSONAL --- SOCIAL

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION FOR PARENTS AND SON

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES ORTH—W. E. ORTH

BIRTHDAY DINNER MOST ENJOYABLE

Commemorates Unusual Event With Three Guests of Honor at the Orth Home

Mrs. William E. Orth of 428 North street, was hostess at a handsomely appointed dinner yesterday in joint celebration of the birthdays of her husband, William E. Orth and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Orth. William E. Orth, one of the city's foremost businessmen celebrated his birthday on Saturday, his father, Charles Orth on Tuesday, October 3 and Mrs. Charles Orth on Friday, September 29.

Pleasantly Entertained at the Eslinger Home

An interesting autumn party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Eslinger near Wildwood Lake with musical numbers by Mr. and Mrs. Norman Goodyear as a special feature of pleasure.

A late supper was served to Mr. and Mrs. Harper Eslinger, Mrs. Charles Potticher, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Goodyear, Howard Eslinger, Mrs. Jacob Durham, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stutzman, Jay Esterline, the Misses Agnes Witman, Lulu Potticher, Myra Attick, Cora Conrad, Mary Witman, Theresa Rhoads, Regina Stouffer, Helen Davis, Catherine Turms, Mabel Attick, Anna Davis, Jennie Eslinger, Angeline Weaver, Jessie Belandine, Elsie Peiffer, Ella Stouffer and Beatrice Potticher, Charles Blessing, Geo. Hamilton, Jr., Elmer Eslinger, John Conrad, Mrs. S. Mark, Rodeamel Apartments, George Kinterman, Clarence Rapp, Ross Look, George Lingie, Charles Whitman, George Heck, Ralph Stutzman, Russell Eslinger, George Stutzman, Peppy Eslinger, Harry Dunham and Anson Miller.

TAKING AUTOMOBILE TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. W. Earle Mark of Lackawanna, N. Y., who have been spending a few days with his mother, Mrs. H. S. Mark, Rodeamel Apartments, have gone to Pittsburgh. They motored from New York stopping at places of interest along the way. Mr. Mark is secretary of the Lackawanna Institute, Lackawanna, N. Y.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASSES AT MEETING AND SOCIAL

The Sunday school classes of the Ridge venue Methodist Church, taught by Mrs. L. L. Banks and Chester C. Byler, held a meeting and social at Mrs. Banks' home, 428 Hamilton street.

HOLD MASQUERADE DANCE AT COLONIAL COUNTRY CLUB

While most of the members of the Colonial Country club and their guests will wear fancy dress at the big masquerade party planned for Thursday evening, the entertainment committee desires all to come whether as masqueraders or not, as they choose. This event will be one of the largest ever held at the club from all indications and the usual feeling of sociability and friendliness will prevail.

ANNOUNCE BETROTHAL

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Wiener, of 1408 North Sixth street, announce the betrothal of their daughter, Miss Ida Wiener to Max Green of this city at an informal reception last evening. Two hundred guests extended congratulations and good wishes to the young couple and enjoyed dancing and refreshments.

Dana Griffin, a student of Ursinus College, near Philadelphia, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Griffin, of 809 North Seventeenth street.

Mrs. William Estinger, of 123 Calder street, has returned home after a motor trip to Pittsburgh with her sister, Mrs. F. W. Pratt.

TO MEET NEWELL ALBRIGHT
Frederic C. Martin, of Riverdale, went to New York Saturday to meet Newell Albright, who was expected to land there yesterday after spending several months in London studying the piano with Tobias Matthay. Nothing had been heard of Mr. Albright to-day by his family, who expect him home during the week.

CAMP HILL MUSIC CLUB ACTIVITIES

Organization Will Study "The Power of Music" and Have Three General Concerts

The Music Club of Camp Hill is about to begin activities for the season of 1916-1917. A business meeting was held last week at the home of Mrs. Guert W. Ensign, the president, when new names were added to the active and associate membership lists. Business relative to the season's work was acted on and everything points to a most interesting and successful series of meetings.

The programs have been arranged by Professor and Mrs. E. J. Decevee, who have done their best to portray "The Power of Music," the subject of a paper which will be read at the first meeting, October 24, in Firemen's Hall. Nine programs will be given during the season on the subject. In addition there will be two concerts given by the club and one by artists, to be announced later.

Officers of the club are: President, Mrs. Guert W. Ensign; vice-president, Mrs. William Dennison; secretary, Mrs. Arthur W. Lebo; treasurer and librarian, Mrs. George W. Cook; director of chorus, Mrs. H. M. Shope.

The following program will be given in Firemen's Hall, Tuesday, October 24, at 2:30 p. m.
Rondo in C, Beethoven, Miss Steinhauer; "Avec Tol." D'Hardelot, Mrs. Shope; "Gondoliera." Moszkowsky, Miss Davison; "The Power of Music," paper, written by Mr. Decevee and read by Mrs. Lebo; a) "Allah," Chadwick; (b) "The Maiden and the Butcher," Chadwick, Mrs. Steinhauer; "My Star," Rogers, Mrs. Whitney; "Mighty Lak a Rose," E. Nevin, Mrs. Ensign, Mrs. Gilbert, Mrs. Lebo, Miss Kurzenknabe.

MARKET SQUARE ENDEAVORS TO GIVE HALLOWEEN SOCIAL

Members of the social committee of the Christian Endeavor Society of Market Square Presbyterian Church are busy formulating plans and arranging for the Halloween social to be held Tuesday evening, October 31. The place is ghostly, the surroundings ghastly and everything as weird as possible in strict keeping with the Halloween fantasies. But arrangements for the evening are being made to insure a big surprise and jolly time for the many who will undoubtedly attend.

PARTY OF YOUNG PEOPLE ENJOY STRAWBERRY TO COVE

A jolly party of young folks chaperoned by Mrs. Peters took a strawberr to Cove and were entertained at the Louise bungalow. A walk to the mountain held Tuesday evening, October 31. The place is ghostly, the surroundings ghastly and everything as weird as possible in strict keeping with the Halloween fantasies. But arrangements for the evening are being made to insure a big surprise and jolly time for the many who will undoubtedly attend.

FOR MRS. HARDER'S CLASS

Members of the Sunday school class of Mrs. William Harder were invited to her home, 1827 Wood street, where a social evening was spent after some routine business.

MISS SUE FLEMING WINNER OF SILVER LOVING CUP

Miss Susanna Fleming won the Casper-Dull silver loving cup for women's golf on Saturday afternoon at the Country Club of Harrisburg. Miss Anna Gay Bradley and Miss Fleming played scratch. Those entered in the tournament were Miss Frances Morrison, Miss Fleming, Miss Elaine Riley, Mrs. John M. Wallis and Mrs. Joseph L. Shearer.

MR. AND MRS. PAUL SHANK OF MAIN STREET, PENROCK, ANNOUNCE THE BIRTH OF A DAUGHTER, EVELYN ST. CLAIR PIE, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1916.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shank of Main street, Penrock, announce the birth of a daughter, Evelyn St. Clair Pie, Thursday, October 19, 1916. Mrs. Shank was Miss Jennie Koons of Linglestown prior to her marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo St. Clair Pie, of 1848 Market street, announce the birth of a daughter, Evelyn St. Clair Pie, Thursday, October 19, 1916. Mrs. Pie and Miss Evelyn Verona Smith of Smithville, N. J., before her marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Swartz announce the birth of a son, Wayne Irvin Swartz, October 21, 1916. Mrs. Swartz before her marriage was Miss Mae Fernsler of Steelton.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. McNary, of Altoona, announce the birth of a daughter Thursday, October 19, 1916. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fitzgerald, 2718 North Sixteenth street, announce the birth of a daughter, Eleanor Mae Fitzgerald, October 15, 1916. Mrs. Fitzgerald was formerly Miss Elsie R. Donovan of Reading.

Buy here not alone because prices are lower, but because qualities are better.

Art Needlework Week

An Event Full of Importance to the Christmas-Gift-Maker

This week has been set aside as Art Needlework Week in this big store. The department has been filled to capacity with the newest ideas in Art Needlework—an expert demonstrator will be on hand to teach the new stitches—and everything that a woman will need for her gift-making is to be seen here in profusion at the low prices characteristic of this store.

Stamped Goods

- Children's and Ladies' Gowns.
- Corset Covers.
- Combination Suits.
- Combining Jackets.
- Corset Bags.
- Pillow Cases.
- Huck and Turkish Towels.
- Pin Cushions.
- Collars.
- Shawls.
- Library Table Runners.
- Linens Centerpieces, tan and white.
- Hot Roll and Toast Covers.
- Work Bags.
- Laundry Bags.
- Boudoir Caps.
- Baby Booties.
- Baby Caps.
- Baby Carriage Robes.
- Baby Pillows.
- Baby Dresses.
- Baby Petticoats.
- Lace-trimmed, hemstitched, scalloped and embroidered scarfs.
- Drawn Work Pillow Shams.
- 12-inch Hand Crocheted Dollies.
- Renaissance Scarfs, Centerpieces and Dollies.
- 24-inch Scalloped Centers.
- Linens Guest Towels and Embroidery material.
- Cretone and Burlap Cushion Slips.
- Inside Cushions.
- Lamb's Wool and Satin Slipper Socks all sizes.

Art Needlework Notions

- Embroidery needles.
- Scissors.
- Embroidery Scissors.
- Crochet Hooks.
- Laundry Pins.
- Knitting Pins.
- Finger Shields (rubber and celluloid).
- Lace Pins.
- Bone Rings (all sizes).
- Gold and Silver Thread.
- Emery Bags.
- Needle Cases.
- Pin Cushion Forms (all sizes).

Braids

- Richardson's, F. S. C., and Coates' Padding Cotton Braid.
- White Coronation Braid, all sizes.
- Assortment of colored Coronation Braids.
- Rick Rack Braid, all sizes.

Attend the Demonstration of GOLDEN FLEECE YARNS

Beginning to-day and continuing for a period of two weeks, Mrs. Mace E. Robertson, of Philadelphia, an expert Demonstrator in Art Needlework will teach all the new stitches. You should avail yourself of this extraordinary opportunity.

Piece Goods

- Handkercher Scrim, 18 and 24-inch widths (white).
- Tan Linen, 15, 20 and 36-inch widths.
- Manilla Cloth (ecru and white), 18 and 36-inch widths.
- White Linen, 20 and 42-inch widths.
- Linen Sewing, 15, 18 and 20-inch widths.
- Gross Stitch Canvas.
- Cordenette Crochet Cotton (White and Ecru)

- R. M. C. Cordechet, C. M. C., Coates' and D. M. C. Crodenette, 1 to 15 white; 3 to 50 ecru; and 3 to 80 in all colors.
- D. M. C. Pearl Crochet Cotton, No. 12.
- Peri Lusta Slipper and Jewel Cotton.
- Royal Society, ecru and white.
- Princess Pearl, all colors, large and small balls.
- Coates Silk Finish Crochet Cotton.
- Coates 200-yd. Crochet Cotton.
- Barbours F. D. A. Linen, all numbers.
- Hakelyara Crochet Cotton, large and small balls.
- Richardson's "Our Art" Crochet Silk.
- Richardson's Perlanina Crochet.
- Hemenway's Texta Silk in all colors.

Mercerized Embroidery Cottons

- Strand Floss, Utopia (white and colors) Royal Society and Peri Lusta.
- Skull Floss, Peri Lusta and Utopia (white); Royal Society Rope and India, all colors and white.
- Embroidery Silks, Cords, Letters, etc.
- Crystal Floss, Royal Society and Utopia, all colors.
- Unbroken line of Richardson's Embroidery Silk, Grecian, Rope, German, Fllo and Twist.
- Large line of silk working cord, all colors.
- Paper and Linen Letters, all sizes and kinds.
- Instruction Books, all kinds.
- Cushion Cord, all sizes.
- Silk Drapery Cords.

Baskets of All Sizes

- Jap—Chinese and Sweet Grass
- Jap waste paper, fruit and sand-wood baskets; fern dishes, vases, flower pots, work baskets and candle shades.
- White enameled flower baskets with wide assortment.
- Chinese fruit baskets, work baskets and jardiniere.
- All sizes Sweet Grass work baskets and Sweet Grass Mats, all sizes.

Large Display of Finished Pieces

A feature of this special event will be a display of finished pieces in Art Needlework, many of which are shown in our big Window Display—SEE IT.

More Wonderful Millinery Values In Hats and Trimmings

A new showing of the very dainty White Velvet Hats in large and medium shapes—a number with black velvet facings—Silk, Velvets and Plush Hats in Sailors, Turbans, Mushrooms, Tricornees and high side rolled effects.

Trimmed Millinery, embracing a showing of the very newest styles—prices to meet everybody's pocket.

Children's trimmed Hats in Corduroy, Velvet, Plush and Silk—in all colors.

Trimmings in the new pheasant, guinea, hackle and congo breeds, and a large assortment of fur and metal combinations, plume, wings, ribbons, etc.

AT LOWER-THAN-ELSEWHERE PRICES

MILLINERY EXCEPTED 25c DEPARTMENT STORE

SOUTTER'S

1c to 25c Dept. Store

Where Every Day Is Bargain Day

215 Market St. Opp. Courthouse

Hallow'en Needs Wide in Variety

Comique Masks, masks with wigs, paper and felt hats, horns, etc., and a full line of cambric for costume-making in all colors, belts, etc.

At Our Usual Low Prices

Three Hundred Children in the Patriotic Festival

Everyone is interested in entertainment given by children. That is why the Orpheum will be filled to-morrow evening for a presentation of the children's musical patriotic festival, under the direction of Miss Ivis M. R. Cook, for the benefit of the Woman's Preparedness Society of this city.

Three hundred youngsters, all in white, waving United States flags, will be an inspiring sight and when they surround the Goddess of Liberty, proclaimed by the Boy Scouts, and sing songs of "your land and my land," enthusiasm will run high.

EMBOIDERY GUILD ARRANGES SOCIAL FOR HALLOWEEN

The Embroidery Guild of St. Andrew's Church will hold its annual Halloween social Thursday evening, October 26, at the parish house, Nineteenth and Market streets. Dancing will be held with or without the dancers being masked. Special features of the evening are the witch's well, at which one may seek their fortune, and the pumpkin filled with favors to be obtained by casting the line. Home-made candy will be for sale and music will be furnished by the Souther orchestra. Refreshments are included in the admission fee.

MRS. G. H. MUCKLER HOSTESS AT CARDS AND SUPPER

Mrs. G. H. Muckler entertained at her home, 274 Muench street, members of the card club to which she belongs. Decorations appropriate to Halloween were used and after games of five hundred a buffet supper was served.

FRANCES ECKBERT'S BIRTHDAY IS MERRILY CELEBRATED

Miss Frances Eckbert, of New Cumberland, entertained several little girls on Saturday from three to six, in celebration of her eleventh birthday. The house was prettily decorated with autumn leaves and Halloween emblems.

After playing numerous games the following little guests had supper in the prettily decorated dining-room:

Helena Altland, Sarah Gray, Marguerite Wright, Mary Wright, Anna Coover, Alice Hoyer, Marian Hill, Evelyn Hetrick, Elma Seaman and Dorothy Hale.

Hold Up Honeymooners Right in Market Street

The bold holdup causing so much excitement Saturday night in Market street in front of The Hub turned out to be, on police investigation, merely incidental greetings on the arrival from Baltimore of Mr. and Mrs. Tiberius G. Fritchard, who were recently married and stopped off in Harrisburg to visit relatives during the honeymoon.

Mr. Fritchard is president and general manager of the Fritchard Company, of Baltimore, manufacturing cornstarch, baking powder and baking soda. The bride was Miss Mary Shelberger, formerly of York, bookkeeper and secretary for a large business firm there. The couple will reside in Baltimore.

The newlyweds were guests of relatives in Penrock yesterday, where a dinner was served in their honor. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Fritchard, Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Hileman, Penrock; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Garland and Miss Bertha Shellenberger, Harrisburg, and M. P. Shellenberger, of Allentown.

HALLOWEEN SOCIAL

Miss Edna Forrer and her Sunday school class of Westminister Presbyterian Church will hold a Halloween social in the church to-morrow evening. The following program will be presented: Vocal solos, Miss Getha High and Miss Jane Kinzer; readings, Miss Mary Orth and Miss Jennie M. Horton; piano solos, Miss Mildred Rudy and Emma Zimmerman; violin solos, William Wanbaugh and Blair Smith; selections by high school quartet, Emory Hartman, Willard Smith, Thomas Lautz and Ray Rice, and the Sunday school orchestra. Refreshments will follow the recital.

Dr. A. L. Bishop, of West Philadelphia, spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. M. B. Bishop, of 1621 North Second street. Mr. Bishop was accompanied by his little son, William O. Bishop.

Mrs. Samuel Z. Shope, of 610 North Third street, is home from Philadelphia, where she attended the state conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution as one of the delegates from Harrisburg Chapter.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond James and small son, Howard James, of Toledo, Ohio, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Anderson, of State street, for the remainder of the month.

Miss Cathryn Underhill, of Cincinnati, is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Luther M. Wilmer, of Green street.

Mr. and Mrs. Christian G. Nissley, of Hamilton street, spent the week-end in Mount Gretna.

DELEGATES TO FEDERATION

Delegates from the Harrisburg Civic Club to the State Federation of Pennsylvania Women, in session this week in Philadelphia, include: Mrs. William Henderson, Mrs. John W. Rely, Mrs. Harvey F. Smith, Miss Mary Jennings, Mrs. James I. Chamberlain and Mrs. John C. Stine; from the Camp Hill Civic Club, the president, Mrs. William Henderson, Mrs. John W. Rely, Mrs. Harlow and Mrs. Howard W. Gooden, chairman of the press committee, Mrs. Ralph W. Dowdell represents the Harrisburg Walking Club, of which she is president.

Little Miss Peiffer Has a Birthday Party

Little Miss Alverta Frances Peiffer daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peiffer, of 21 North Twelfth street had the merriest kind of a party to celebrate her eleventh birthday. A thorough house were Halloween decorations of yellow and black and all games and music delicious refreshments were served.

The guests were the Misses Irer Maiseed, Helen Hanger, Lenore Stagner, Cathrine Biddle, Lillian Coleman, Gladys Zerbe, Eleanor Cox, Marjorie Killian, Mildred Dunkelberger, Leah Bowen, Maxine Holby, Lucille Smith, Bernice Nissley, Vida Herman, Isamb Holby and Alberta Peiffer, James Mobre, David Danner, Eric wandle John Byrem, Kermit and John Peiffer.

Some Interesting Classes Starting at the Y. W. C. A.

The current events class, under the direction of Miss Anne U. Wert, will hold every Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. This has always been one of the largest classes of the Y. W. C. A. and it is expected the record will be kept up this season.

A class in basketry taught by Miss Mary Miller meets Thursdays at 7:30 o'clock.

Classes in German, in charge of the Rev. H. F. F. Lisse, meet Thursdays at 7 p. m. for advanced pupils and Fridays at 7 p. m. for beginners.

All interested in French lessons will meet Miss Marguerite Robinson at the association at 7:30 o'clock Thursdays evening.

The members' reception Saturday night was largely attended and the guests were most cordially received by Mrs. John W. Rely, Miss Ella Stii and Miss Mary Jennings. After choice musical program refreshment were served by Miss Dorra W. Coe, Miss Katharine Etter, Miss Elizabeth Ros Miss Mary Meyers and Miss Sar Denehy.

The Commonwealth Club begins its series of entertainments this evening with a lecture in John Y. Boyd hall of "The Land of Scot and Burns," by Dr. J. G. A. T. The State Board of Education. Beautiful views will be used and the event will be one of the most worth while ones of the year. Members may bring guests.

GUESTS OF MISS SPANGLER AT A HALLOWEEN PARTY

Miss Patti Spangler, of 233 Eberly street, entertained a number of friends Friday evening at a birthday party. After music, games and dancing a birthday supper was served. Halloween decorations were used in ever detail.

In attendance were Miss Zetlan Watner, Miss Dorothy Steele, Miss Mar Kaufman, Miss Kathleen Eyer, Miss Esther Jean, Miss Margaret Myers, Miss Patti Spangler, Lee White, Russell Eyer, Samuel Werner, William Harker, Charles Keller, Paul Huntzberger and James Gazette.

Miss Roberta Daugherty, of 101 North Second street, is visiting at the home of her brother, Harry Daugherty in Altoona.

[Other Personals on Page 5]