

TECH SPRINGS SURPRISE---CENTRAL EASY VICTOR---ACADEMY BIG WINNER

TECH AND CENTRAL WIN; SURPRISE AT STEELTON

Steelton high lost its first game of the season on Saturday on Cottage Hill field, when Harrisburg Tech defeated the lower end eleven, 19 to 0. Beck and Harris, two of the Tech backs, were largely responsible for the victory which puts Tech in the running for the local triangular championship.

Followers of the local high school teams this season, had predicted in advance a close victory for the Maroon team, as Steelton has seven veterans in the line-up this year. Tech's weight told in the line plunges.

Beck Big Star
Beck started with a 22-yard end run in the third quarter for the first six points for Tech. Snyder kicked the goal. In the last period Harris sent a pretty drop kick over the bar from Steelton's 22-yard line.

A 25-yard run by Coleman, and a long forward pass Dayhoff to Coleman were the only other big gains in the entire game. Eckenrode and Crowley outplayed Eyster and Bell on the wing positions during much of the game, and often the light Steelton line men threw the heavy Tech backs for losses. Both elevens played clean football, and no penalties were inflicted for rough play. Tech's entire back-field played well, while Starastine, Behan, Dayhoff and Coleman were stars for Steelton. The line-up and summary:

Penn May Eliminate State; Sore Over Saturday Kick

Penn State probably played its last game on Franklin Field Saturday. Penn is in arms over the protesting of Gussie Billy Neill, and sentiment at Penn seems to be against the continuance of football relations with the blue and white.

No formal action will be taken for a State did not formally protest Neill, but insisted that he be kept out of Saturday's game.

There was almost a break last year, after Saturday's rough game and the manner in which Berry was mauled. It looks as though no game will be played between the two teams next year.

Berry is not as badly injured as was at first thought. He was helped into the gym, and after the game he limped out to say a few words to the students. Captain Matthews and all the other Penn regulars spoke.

Berry will be out of the line-up for about three days, but Folwell fully expects to have him in shape for next Saturday's big game with Pitt. Berry's knee was wrenched. He had trouble with the same leg last season.

Central High had an easy proposition in Stevens Trade on Saturday, winning by a score of 62 to 7. The Lancaster lads scored on a fumble by Wolfe, Hannah picking up the ball that had been kicked near Central's goal and making a touchdown. Shank kicked the goal.

It was a record score for Island Park field. Central held previous high score marks. They defeated Elizabethtown High by a score of 81 to 0; York high 80 to 0, and Columbia 72 to 0. Under the direction of Coach Leo Hart the Central players went through the same kind of work that would have been in evidence with a stronger team. No one expected a record, nor played for it. It was the first time the regular eleven had a chance to show what was in them on a home field.

Central Players Hard Workers
Central had good men working all the time. Even the substitutes showed they knew the game. The switching of players was made for the purpose of trying a number of new plays. The game was additionally profitable to Central because of the coming game with Steelton.

In the first period the local eleven piled up 27 points; second quarter, 28; third quarter, 24, and fourth period, 13. It was in the last period that Wolfe fumbled and then kicked the ball. Stevens had little trouble in piling off the touchdowns. Hilton, Fields, Gregory, Frank, E. Rogers and Wolfe made big gains and figured in the scoring. Hannah, Shank, Lane, Acker and Leppard were stars for Stevens.

Player's Name Sounds Like Real College Yell

New York, Oct. 23.—During the game with the sailors from the battleship Arkansas, on South Field, the other day, some Columbia rooters collected in the stand and practiced cheering. After they had run through their yells, they decided to spell it out for each member of the varsity team.

They started off with Captain Healy and ended up with Lech Zychlinski, the Polish fullback. As they finished the last cheer, they, in the usual fashion, shouted the name of the player three times, "Zychlinski! Zychlinski! Zychlinski!" they belted.

An old bearded man nearby remarked that the cheer sounded like one used in his prep school days.

"What college did you go to?" asked a freshman.

"The University of Warsaw," replied the man.

Active part is being taken by Harrisburg men, at the opening of the school year, in athletic and literary activities at Gettysburg College. On the varsity football squad are Ernest G. Diefenbach, Harold A. Houtz, Harry F. Rote, Samuel S. Freshick, Victor Emanuel and Paul Loudenlager.

Paul Miller is on the editorial staff of the publication, and is taking prominent part in literary work. George W. Schilling is a member of the senior class debating team. Howard F. DAIRYMOUTH HAS ONE-ARM STAR

Hanover, Mass., Oct. 23.—Not alone has Eugene Neely, despite the handicap of having only one arm, won the position of left guard on the Dartmouth Varsity eleven, but he has also the reputation of being the best man in the green line.

Neely's home is in Dallas, Texas, and he is a member of the sophomore class at Dartmouth. Last year he made the freshman eleven, and then, through sheer persistency and grit, he gained a varsity position this year. He lost his arm five years ago in a hunting accident.

Academy in Baltimore Game

Harrisburg Academy maintained a clean record on Saturday, defeating the Friends School eleven, of Baltimore, 33 to 0. The local eleven outweighed their opponents. The Baltimore eleven was a lucky team and was in the game until the finish.

Britsch, the former Technical high school star athlete, led the attack of the Academy team with three touchdowns, made after long runs, and the kicking of three goals from touchdown. His longest run was one of 35 yards, made after he had intercepted a forward pass, and he scored after passing through the entire force of the opposition. The two other runs on which he made touchdowns were from near the 50-yard line.

ONE-ARM GOLFER TO PLAY

New York, Oct. 23.—Louis Martucci, the one-armed professional golfer, who is located at the Essex County Country Club, said that he would accept the challenge of Yves Boctazon, the one-armed professional of France, to play for the international championship. Martucci's friends are willing to back him against the foreigner up to almost any amount, if the latter will come to this country to play the match.

THREE LOCAL TEAMS WIN; CENTRAL HAS RECORD SCORE

Stevens Trade Is Easy Proposition; Tech Springs Surprise; Academy Wins at Baltimore; Local Stars Shine

Tech, 10; Steelton, 0.
Central, 92; Stevens Trade, 7.
Academy, 33; Baltimore Friends School, 0.

These give in a nut shell the story of the victories that were chalked up by the three local scholastic elevens, thus giving each team a chance to keep their status clean for another week, and bring them undefeated a week closer to the final results.

All three games were in a way, a surprise to local enthusiasts. While Central looked for a victory, no one was optimistic enough to expect so overwhelming a score. Tech pulled a real surprise in downing the Tiggart crew. Steelton "blood" was willing to wager 5 to 3 on the outcome, and many 2 to 1 bets were laid. Tech's back field did heroic work, and made yard after yard on an off tackle play. Lauster on the line played the game of his life.

Down at Baltimore, Captain Phillips and his up-river crew had a surprisingly easy victory. Britsch, the former Tech quarter, piloted the team from that position, and uncorked a fifty and ninety-five yard run. In all he registered three touchdowns and kicked two of the goals. These results were highly pleasing to the followers of the three teams, who look for real championship contests in later games.

Hard Games This Week

This week's bill will bring Steelton to Central; the Academy will play a return game at Reading with Schuylkill Seminary at Reading, while Tech will journey to Greensburg to take their third crack at the Westmoreland county lads. A 28 to 0 score two years ago, and a 7 to 0 defeat on the island last season are the two trimmings that Captain Harris and his bunch of players will try to vindicate.

Bob Good and "Red" Atticks played each other to a standstill at South Bethlehem Saturday. Score, Lebanon Valley 3, Lehigh 3. Good played right tackle for Lehigh, while the Steelton lad broke into the contest for Lebanon at left tackle. It was Loomis, the former Tech athlete who made the tie score possible. He pulled down a forward pass for Lebanon Valley on the 38 yard line, and from the 43 yard position. Mackert the Sunbury athlete, kicked a pretty goal. Mackert was second in the country in the matter of goals from field last season.

Gougler In Evidence
Gougler, formerly of Central, played left half for Glenn Warner's Pitt team that won from Syracuse on the latter field, during the third quarter. Pitt had a 30 to 0 triumph, and is looked upon by many of the sharp to win the highest honors in football this year. Immediately upon entering the game, Gougler pulled off a seven-yard run. He also kicked the ball out of danger on several occasions.

Rote was again in evidence in the Gettysburg line-up. At Baltimore the Battiefeld collegians won from Johns Hopkins in a 27 to 0 contest. "Rotie" tallied 21 of these points. Emanuel and Houtz were also in the game. The game at Philadelphia brought nothing for local stars. Penn won from Penn State, score 15 to 0. Berry was a big star.

WELLY'S CORNER

It sometimes does not pay to advertise. This is true in football. For weeks Beck has been advertised by Penn State as the player who was expected to get Penn State in the game on Saturday. There is no discounting Beck's ability. The mistake was in creating an impression that one man is all that is necessary to win a game. It is due every player to give him credit for the work performed, but in planning for great things there are sometimes fall downs.

A general opinion prevails that both scholastic teams should profit by the results of the Penn-Penn State game. Drill players so that every man is available. Of course, it is always one or two men who do the work and are practical factors in victories, but telling about these stars gives prospective opponents a chance to get next to some of the work. Penn's offensive was built especially to stop Beck, and they did it. Penn State went after Berry and they got him.

Elliott C. B. Darlington, son of Bishop James Henry Darlington, 321 North Front street, landed a big shark at Huntington Bay, Long Island. He was fishing for bluefish with an ordinary hook and line.

Those Carlisle Indians are coming back in football. They handed Conyngham Hall eleven a hard bump on Saturday. The Indians presented a strong back field and have some fast men to carry the ball down the field.

Ted Meredith is not doing much in the long distance chases in the Christiana Olympics. He was another winner on the short runs on Saturday, but fell down with Bolin in the 300-meter event. Joe Loomis set a pace in high jump and the Americans captured the relay.

Light, a Lebanon athlete who has figured in local events, was a star for Penn. He played quarterback and his work will land him a permanent job. His handling of forward passes to Berry was spectacular.

That Dickinson team is coming around with a series of victories. It looks as if the old-time pop is there, and that Dickinson will be in winning class at the window. The victory over Uxiguus on Saturday was well earned. There was a big celebration at Carlisle Saturday night.

Lebanon Valley Sprung a Big Surprise on Lehigh Saturday

Lebanon Valley sprung a big surprise on Lehigh Saturday, tying up the game; score, 3 to 3. Lebanon Valley played a great game, while Lehigh showed a reversal of form. The Brown and White men fumbled atrociously and gave a mighty poor exhibition of forward passing. Lebanon Valley ends performed brilliantly in ground gaining. For two periods the ball surged up and down the field, neither side getting into the danger zones.

Individual matches—Frank Payne defeated H. J. Heimens; J. R. Locher defeated B. H. Evans; George S. Franklin defeated W. S. Baldwin; A. C. Scully defeated C. L. Miller; William McCreath defeated Joseph E. Lant; Ira Baer defeated R. A. Hickok; J. L. Brown defeated C. B. Miller; J. A. Maxwell defeated S. C. Todd; H. J. Wickersham defeated H. J. MACK LANDS STARS

Toledo, O., Oct. 23.—Harold Gable, Toledo infielder, has been sold to the Philadelphia American League baseball club, according to a telegram received by Gable here yesterday. The purchase price was not stated.

Harold Vaughan, student at the University of Wisconsin, has also been signed by Connie Mack, manager of the Philadelphia American League baseball club.

NEW SWIMMING MARVEL

A new swimming marvel has been uncovered in Honolulu. His name is John Keill. He is just a youngster, yet he covered the 100 yards in 9:55 3-5, the furthest in 2:29 4-5 (which is four-fifths of a second behind the world's record), and the 440 yards in a trifle over 5:30.

Keill has been swimming in competition only a few months. His showing in the Honolulu meet has caused experts to predict that in another year or two he will be peer of all the "human fish" in the world.

FATIMA

A Sensible Cigarette

More men are now smoking SENSIBLY—

MEN ARE willing to think a little more carefully today even about the cigarette they choose.

That is good sense. For if an otherwise good cigarette is unfortunate in its blend—if it disturbs after continued smoking—it is not worth while.

The one reason why Fatimas appeal strongly to so many thinking men is that they do not disturb. Fatimas are truly comfortable—comfortable to throat as well as tongue. And they always leave a man feeling fine and "fit" even after a long-smoking day.
