NEWELL ALBRIGHT RETURNS TO CITY
Young Musician Has Interesting Trip; Submarine Follows Big Steamer Lapland

NEWELL ALBRIGHT

Newell Albright, a talented young musician of this city, who has been studying abroad since May, returned to Harrisburg last evening. He was met in New York city by his former teacher, Frederic C. Martin.

Mr. Albright was ten days coming from Liverpool. His boat was obliged to take a roundabout course in order to escape German submarines.

Some War Incidents

During his stay in London Mr. Albright had many interesting experiences in connection with the war.

The young musician left Harrisburg May 18 and sailed on the American liner Philadelphia for Liverpool. He spent some time in London, studying under Tobias Matthay, said to be the greatest teacher in the world on scientific piano technique.

Samuel Etter, of the Etter Apartments, 1515 Derry street, spent yesterday in Palmyra.

HOSSESSES PLAN FOR "BIG NIGHT"

Hallowe'en to Be Eve of Gaiety—Parties Hinge on Street Cabaret

With the approach of the mysterious Eve of All Hallowes, scores of prospective party hostesses and dance committees are working out the thousand and one details of decorative schemes, supper plans, favor selections, game arrangements and so on.

Then, too, the rapid approach of the special season for ghostly witches on flying brooms, glaring green-eyed black cats and other shivery things, is more than suggested by the appearance of the smaller dances as being planned and the worried farmer whose best market customer has been daily urging delivery of pumpkins and yams.

Officially, it's to be the closing night of the three-night program of the merchants' fall opening campaign postponed, but some eager thousands of youngsters aren't so particularly concerned about that.

Paul H. Nisley, 2306 North Sixth street, when visiting his parents for several days, left yesterday for New York, where he will sail on one of the Standard Oil steamers for Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey T. Hershey, of Steelton, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Miller, of Lebanon, for the last few days.

J. H. Liker, of Sunbury, was in the city yesterday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Greene and family, 623 North Seventeenth street, have returned home from visiting in Lancaster.

Mrs. G. A. Kerstetter and Miss Winifred Hoefling, 349 South Thirteenth street, have returned home from visiting in Reading and Pottstown.

FORMER RESIDENT MARRIED

J. R. Stubbins, of Newark, a former resident of this city, was married last week to Mrs. Lilian Blander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Holland, of Newark.

WILL HOLD HALLOWE'EN PARTY

The Embroidery Guild of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church will hold its annual Hallowe'en social in the parish house, Nineteenth and Market streets, tomorrow evening.

HIKERS TELL GHOST STORIES

Last evening the Sunday school classes of Mrs. M. I. Kast and Mrs. Percy Paxton held a hike back of Paxtang. The feature was the telling of ghost stories while seated around a big fire.

Edward McManamy, Stewart Klaspugh, Richard McAllister, Joseph Lehman, William Hoy, Samuel McIlhenny, Joseph Bowman, John Hoffinger, Daniel Becker, Earl Killinger and Glen Killinger, students of the Harrisburg Wharton school, attended the football game last Saturday held at Franklin field, in Philadelphia.

Leaving for the Quaker City early in the morning, the crowd visited at the university building. After the game they were entertained at dinner by the Phi Delta Epsilon fraternity and were guests of the fraternity at a smoker in the evening.

PAUL MILLER CELEBRATES HIS 19TH BIRTHDAY WITH PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Miller, 560 Race street, entertained at their home last evening in honor of their son, Paul's, nineteenth birthday.

The H. A. Society met last evening at the home of the president, Charles Wagner, 1910 North Fifth street.

The Hallowe'en committee of the Centralians will meet this evening in the Boyd Memorial building to make final plans for their masquerade on the 31st.

Who who expect to enter the "cross-country" run this fall have been asked to hand their names immediately to Professor B. V. Saul, athletic director.

A well-attended cheering practice was held in chapel at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon.
