MORE CHANGES IN STATE EMPLOYES

Six Deputy Factory Inspectors Named; Pure Food Man "Fired"

Six deputy factory inspectorships made vacant by resignations in the last week were today announced as having been filled, while confirmation was also given to the report that M. J. Walsh, of Wilkes-Barre, one of the oldest of the pure food inspectors, had been removed. The new factory inspectors are Dr. William Mohler, Shackamaxon and Wilday streets, Philadelphia; George J. Gorman, Philadelphia; Edward E. Korb, Philadelphia; William J. Boylan, Philadelphia; Robert Davison, Nanticoke, who was secretary of the Brumbaugh campaign committee in Luzerne county last May, and Russell P. Conley, Weatherly, Carbon county. They replace the following, who resigned either of their own will or were asked to do so: Rosser Max in Sunbury, Luzerne county; Gladys E. Kelly, Samuel Beatty, Gottlob Hammer and Charles R. Hope, Philadelphia, and J. R. Patterson, Beaver Falls. The Department of Agriculture at first refused to admit that Walsh had been "fired," saying that it was not advisable to do so because there were cases pending in court which might be interfered with, but it was finally admitted by Secretary Patton that the veteran inspector had been dismissed. Mr. Patton denied that Ralph Gabriel, who is a business partner of Charles N. Loveland, the Brumbaugh delegate from Luzerne county, had been told he was to get Walsh's job after November 15.

No reason was assigned why Walsh was notified that he was to get out on November 15. Walsh is a Penrose man. Mr. Patton admitted that he was "looking over" Gabriel and said he did not appoint anyone until he had satisfied himself about a man's qualifications. An Gabriel is close to Loveland, Capitol Hill books for Governor Brumbaugh's desires to be carried out by the Secretary of Agriculture.

Only Two Cases.—Only two cases of infantile paralysis were reported yesterday to the Department of Health. One was from Lancaster county. There were no cases from Philadelphia.

Big Tax Payment.—The Philadelphia Electric Company yesterday paid the State Treasury $103,000 in state taxes.

Withdrawing Nurses.—The State Department of Health has withdrawn the emergency nurses on duty because of typhoid fever in Schuylkill and in part of Cumberland county.

Committee's Last Meeting.—The State Industrial Board committee in charge of the explosives code is holding its final session at Philadelphia today. The code will be acted upon next month.

State Wants Its Money.—The State has entered suit through the Attorney General's department against Blossburg for $12,222 in damages for highway for $6,995 for failure to pay the borough shares of road construction.

Enjoy a Song Recital at the Phillips Studio

An excellent song recital was given at the Phillips studio, 121 State street, last evening. Ross Harman, baritone, a student for the past year, sang the greater part of the program. Mr. Harman has a remarkably rich, musical voice, with abundant resonance and power. His singing of "Hear Me, Ye Winds and Waves," by Handel, was decidedly well finished and interpretative ability remarkable in so young a man.

Mr. Phillips, director of music at Grace Church, sang the famous "On-ward, Awake Beloved," from "Hilwath's Woe," by Coleridge-Taylor. This is a big aria and taxes the resources of any singer. Mr. Phillips handled it with ease and power and brought into it all the requisite tone color and warmth of expression in which this number abounds and he so abundantly possesses. He also sang four old Irish songs in a charming and artistic manner.

Mrs. Phillips played the accompaniments for both singers and gave sure and sympathetic support in every number.
