Hundreds of Suits That Are Distinctive in Type Yet Not Extreme

For Women Who Will Pay $25.00 to $45.00

The showing of suits is so extensive and so interestingly varied that the average woman will not find it a hard matter to select her winter garment from our stock. The same degree of careful choosing has been maintained in gathering together the styles between $25.00 and $45.00 as is to be noted in the more expensive groups.

Favored Materials Are Poplin, Gabardine, Broadcloth and Wool Velour

Every suit in this broad collection is typical of the fashions, with a freedom from the extreme, freakish modes.

Poplin and gabardine suits, in green, navy, black and brown. The coat is made with a full flare finished with self-trimmed bands and inlaid velvet collar $25.00
Wool velour, poplin and gabardine suits, in many good styles. The coat of one is a full flare model with large patch pockets; the collar is finished with bands of seal $30.00
Suede velour, gabardine and chiffon broadcloth suits, in belted or plain tailored styles; coats are beautifully finished with touches of Hudson seal; in Burgundy, green, brown, navy and black $39.50
Wool poplin, velour and broadcloth suits; the coat is a semi-flaring with large pointed collar and cuffs, finished with skunk or Hudson seal. The skirt is made with a full gathered back and finished with broad belt; in brown, navy, green and Burgundy $42.50

Two Kinds of Overcoats Make Up Our Overcoat Stock

To be sure, both are the best obtainable. The distinction is this—

Overcoats For Men

Overcoats For Young Men

Briefly, this classification is meant to emphasize the distinctiveness of each stock of garments. There is a difference. Sons of their fathers have their own tastes, and they are pretty well conversant with "What's What in Style." So we have splendidly fashioned overcoats for men—none more stylish or better made—and a winning assemblage of specialized overcoat modes for particular young fellows.

As to varieties, patterns, cuts and the like, we cannot do these stocks justice by a mere recital of trade names. They are here—all the fashionable belted backs, pinch picks, form fitting models, Single and double breasted effects, loose backs—a veritable host of overcoat styles picked for their excellence, their tailoring, their quality and good style.

Worthy Overcoats For as Little as $10.00--and Mounting the Scale of Quality Variouslly Priced to $35
