COLONIAL CLUB IN AUTUMN ARRAY

Hallowe'en Masquerade Attracts Many Members and Guests to Clubhouse

George Washington danced with Pierette, straw-hatted farmer strolled arm-in-arm with the silken-flooned lady of antebellum days, Pierette chummed with a big-eyed girl of Italy, a cowboy fox trotted with the basketball athlete, and the sailor had fun with the Red Cross nurse—at the Colonial Country Club last evening.

The club held its pre-Hallowe'en masquerade and more than a hundred guests crowded the dance floor from early evening until long after midnight.

In many years the club dance floor never looked prettier. Autumn was more than suggested in the decorations. Astors and chrysanthemums and varicolored leaves waved summer's good-by from the walls and great mantelpiece over the fireplace.

Committee is Congratulated The committee in charge of the arrangements was headed by Red-secker Brinser, chairman of the dance committee, and Arthur H. Bailey, chairman of the entertainment committee.

Among those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Red-secker Brinser, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Houser, Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Delmotte, Mr. and Mrs. John C.
