New Series Nine Has Less Weight, More Power and Improved Appearance

The new model Franklin, known as Series Nine, was received by E. W. Shank this week. This car shows a decided improvement in appearance over the preceding model, with a lighter engine and a remarkable saving in weight throughout without sacrifice of strength or efficiency.

The Series Nine Franklin has been generally accepted as the lightest comfortable touring car in the world, this low weight being obtained by scientific design, careful choice of material and elimination of every superfluous pound of metal.

BACKS DOWN ON TREASON CHARGE

should have made a statement which generally might be construed as a charge of treason against American citizens:

U. S. Troops Guard Line, All Ready For Bandit Raid

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 28. — Every ford, bridge and trail along the international border in this patrol district is being guarded by additional United States troops, in compliance with Secretary of War Baker's warning to border commanders to be prepared for another Mexican bandit raid on the border.

Baker Floundering Denies He Slandered Heroes

New York, Oct. 28. — Newton D. Baker, Secretary of War, in a letter to the Democratic National Committee, denied that in his Jersey City speech on October 16 he had compared Washington's soldiers with Villia's bandits.

The general lines of the chassis remain almost unchanged. The air-cooled engine, now 3 1/2 by 4 inches, is externally similar to the old 3 1/2 by 4 inches; the wood frame, full-elliptic springs front and rear, and the amidships chassis are all retained.

The principal car of the Franklin series is, of course, the five-passenger touring job, which sells for $1350. The four-passenger roadster costs $1350 also, and there is a two-passenger roadster at $1300, this having a very big boot under the rear deck which would hold enough baggage for a three-month tour.

Baker Again Attempts to Evade Real Issue, Committee Charges

New York, Oct. 28. — The following statement, in part, was issued by the Republican National Committee at Republican headquarters last evening:

"The campaign of humbug, pretense and falsehood which has been waged by the Wilson administration and its political managers reached its climax with the issuance of the War Department by Mr. Baker, Secretary of War, of his astounding statement charging that some unnamed and unidentified persons were plotting a new Mexican outbreak before election day for the purpose of turning the tide of sentiment against Wilson."

"This is the same Baker who ten days ago in Jersey City likened the heroes of the Valley Forge to the bandits of Villa and Carranza. Having at various times denied that speech, it was to be expected that he would deny or modify his War Department statement as soon as he found that it was not accomplishing what he had hoped for. But denial came from Secretary Lansing, who protested that politics need not 'thrust' in the matter."

"Mr. Baker now seeks to evade responsibility for this charge, but even in his efforts at evasion, Mr. Baker does not free himself from culpability. He is charged with plotting active treason. And it is incredible that Mr. Baker had any other purpose in mind than that when he issued the statement."

Republicans Hold Big Meetings in Upper End

Republicans held two big mass meetings in the upper end of the city last evening. At Wisconsin Ben S. Keefer, a prominent Republican, presided and at Lykens, John H. Lehr, was in the chair. To-night mass meetings will be held at Highspire and Middletown and Monday evening at Horstlick's store, Hummelstown and Shellsville. Tuesday evening the candidates will be at Union Deposit and Waltonville. Farmer Senator John E. Fox will address the Hummelstown meeting.

New York, Oct. 28. — The following letter was sent to Vance C. McCormick, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, by George W. Perkins, chairman of the Republican Campaign Committee:

"This country is not at peace; it has not been kept out of war. There has been no preparedness and our prosperity is wholly due to the war in Europe, and not at all due to anything that the Democratic Party has championed, or accomplished."

Mr. Willcox has been all along predicting the election of Mr. Hughes, but this is the nearest he has yet come to forecasting the number of electoral votes Mr. Hughes would obtain.

"The Democrats have given up their campaign in New York and everybody knows it," said Mr. Willcox. "We will carry New York by over 100,000. We will also carry Ohio. Our fight is won. Mr. Hughes will be elected."

While Mr. Willcox would not specify what States the Republicans would carry, Charles E. Warren, national committeeman from Michigan, a member of the executive committee and who has been acting as one of Mr. Willcox's chief aids, before leaving for Michigan gave the following list of
