

Stop in and hear the new Victor Records

One of the many is by Clarence Whitehill

And his big baritone is very impressive in the singing of "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp," the famous old Civil War song.

Conway plays two brilliant war numbers

"Napoleon's Last Charge" and "The Battle of the Nations"—two selections with the inspiring stir of battle, and the swing and spirit of the military in them.

Everybody loves a band, anyway, and when one as good as Conway's makes a record like this we generally have to hustle to supply all the "band fans."

"When Uncle Sammy Leads the Band"—also "Li-b-e-r-t-y"

Two songs that are making a "healthy hit" nowadays! They're among the Victor's popular songs of the month, and they are "done to a turn" by the singers—the "Uncle Sammy" song by the Peerless Quartet and "Li-b-e-r-t-y" by Henry Burr.
