Proof; Bryan and Wilson Make Denials

Columbus, Ind., Oct. 31.-Charles E Hughes to-day told a heckler that he was in favor of the maintenance of every American right "including the right of travel and the right of shipment.' Mr. Hughes had been asked if he favored an embargo on muni-tions or the passage of a resolution by Congress warning Americans off merchantships flying the flag of belligerent nations.

Mr. Hughes spoke in the open air here before a crowd that had come from miles to hear him and choked the streets around Commercial Park. He was speaking of the competition from Europe after peace when a man in the crowd shouted:
"Mr. Hughes, as a personal admirer, may I ask you a question?"

There was the usual confusion resulting from an attempt to heckle.
The nominee asked the crowd for

Bride, as Servant, Aided by Husband to Steal

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 31. — George Brewning, a teller in the Pine Brook Bank, was held up yesterday by a youth, apparently 19 years old, and believed to be demented. Browning was alone in the bank when the man came in and demanded $25. The teller hesitated and the intruder drew a revolver and told him to hurry. Browning threw $5 on the counter and the youth grabbed it and ran out. Police headquarters was notified by telephone and the motorcycle squad was detailed to search for the fugitive, who is still at large. Browning furnished the police with a good description of the man who held him up and said that the fellow acted queerly.
