Central High Seniors Organize a Latin Club

At a meeting of 26 seniors of Central high school, held last evening at the home of Miss Katharine McNiff, of the Central faculty, the Senatus Populatus Romanus Society came into existence. It will be known as the S. R. P., and its purpose is to gain a broader view of classic literature. Before the business meeting the famous scene in the Roman Senate between Cicero and Caelius was given by Miss Nora Lippi impersonating Cicero, and Miss Margaret Winegard, Caelius. During the business meeting the following officers were elected: Primus consul, Paul Selsam; secundus consul, Sabra Clark; secretarius, Nora Lippi; thesaurus, Harry Mell. The following were elected as an executive committee: Louise Johnson, Mary Dietrich, Margaret Winegard, Harold Martz, Marlin Geiger, James Daugherty, Miss Edna Engle and Miss McNiff, of the Central faculty, were elected as advisors. It was decided to hold meetings once a month, and that refreshments shall be barred. The next meeting will be at the home of Miss McNiff, at 1900 North Second. At the beginning of the business meeting, each person was required to give a motto in Latin and at the close all sang "How Firm a Foundation," in Latin.

Those present were: Miss Louise Johnson, Miss Katharine Kelly, Miss Mary Dietrich, Miss Kathryn Dubbs, Miss Kathryn Keene, Miss Helen Kelly, Miss Sabra Clark, Miss Martha Crosswell, Miss Rachael Lightner, Miss Evelyn Speakman, Miss Margaret Winegard, Miss Nora Lippi, Miss Mary Allan, Miss Nora Lippi, Miss Mary Allan, Miss Getha High, Donald Dallman, Kenneth Downes, Harold Martz, Paul Selsam, Harry Mell, William Bretz, Emory Hartman, James Daugherty, Marlin Geiger, Frank Wittherow.

Fun in Vacant House Mid Pumpkins and Leaves

Mr. and Mrs. J. Robert Hoffman, who are just ready to move from 332 Peffer street, invited a merry party to spend last evening in the vacant house at an old-time Halloween party. Striking Values in Ladies' Apparel For Saturday Shoppers

If you want to appear correctly attired, you can't afford to make the old suit do longer duty. It may be all right in other respects, but its style stamps it in the eyes of others as just what it is—a last season's garment.

Women, particularly, are expected to keep pace with Fashion's demands—and they can be more economically supplied here than elsewhere. Our policy of quick sales at little profits means material savings that it will pay you to investigate.

Convincing Proof

Convincing proof of our wonderful Coat and Suit values was shown yesterday when members of a theatrical troupe, playing at a local theater, purchased four coats, one suit and one dress, the aggregate sale amounting to $272.00.

The members of this troupe are direct from Broadway, the home of "chic" and ultra-fashionable clothes. They recognized at once true style, the values were self-evident. On Broadway these garments would have sold for $400 instead of our price, $272.00.

50 Ladies' Suits at 15% Less Than Manufacturer's Cost

The busy month just closing left one of our largest and most exclusive New York manufacturers with a surplus of Ladies' and Misses' Suits on hand. To insure prompt movement of these garments, 50 Suits of handsome design were shipped us to be disposed of at 15% LESS THAN MANUFACTURER'S PRICES. The allotment consists of beautiful Gabardines, Broadcloths and Wool Velours, many of them fur trimmed. This gives Harrisburg an unheard-of Suit-buying opportunity, and one long to be remembered. It means a saving of from $10 to $20 on every suit—something no woman can afford to overlook.
