

"Meat Prices Will Not Come Down" is the cheerful news that comes from the Department of Agriculture. Meat prices will not worry the man or woman who knows that a Shredded Wheat Biscuit will supply more real body-building nutriment than beefsteak or eggs and at much less cost.

OF INTEREST TO THE WOMEN THE GAME OF MARRIAGE

By DOROTHY DIX The great thing that the present mania for outdoor sports is doing for women is not so much in giving them stronger muscles as it is in giving them stronger mental and moral fiber.

man, was under the impression that his wife knew what she was doing when she married him, and that he represented her choice in life partners.

NARROW MESSAGES IN THE WING

Pretty Frock for Young Girl With Tucks on the Full Skirt By MAY MANTON

9179 (With Basting Line and Added Seam Allowance) Girl's Dress, 8 to 14 years.

The Last Word—Rengo Belt Reducing Corsets. Made for women who demand the utmost in ability to reduce, comfort, grace of line, and durability.

Town Is Moved to Foil Speculators

Salina, Kan., Nov. 3. — Because it is alleged speculators began to ask enormous prices for land on which the townsite was located, the business men of Keystone, a little town in Logan county, and officials of the Scott City & Northern Railroad put their heads together and decided to move the town.

FOODS THEY BUILD OR DESTROY

AMAZING BUT RARELY SUSPECTED TRUTHS ABOUT THE THINGS YOU EAT By ALFRED W. McCANN

The conditions discovered in two large commercial ice cream factories by representatives of the New York Bureau of Municipal Research threw additional light upon the nature of the frozen dairy which the people consume under the name of "ice cream."

The difference in price means nothing. It simply represents what the individual ice cream manufacturer sees fit to pay in the absence of any official objection to the contrary.

Look and Feel Clean, Sweet and Fresh Every Day. Drink a glass of real hot water before breakfast to wash out poisons.

Velvet ribbon makes a favorite trimming of the scarf and it is always especially pretty for the little girl's dresses. This one is made of challis and is just as charming and attractive as can be.

In the ice cream factory investigated it was found that the finished product, including the cost of labor, light, ice, rent, interest on investment, delivery service, horse feed and raw materials, sold for fifty-five cents a gallon to the retail stores that parcelled it out to the public.

The legal profession admits that it is quite impossible to drag a dead body into any courtroom and to say that some one article of food, consumed at some time during the preceding year, is responsible for the corpse.

AMUSEMENTS. ORPHEUM—To-night—Mme. Gadski. COMING SOON—The New Warmers. COLONIAL—Diana of the Folies.

Even when serious illness or death is quite unquestionable it is worth more than all the so-called expediency of the market place still prevails, although a certain class of politicians persist in making the mistake of refusing to interfere with questionable food conditions for the reason that they have no power to do so.

Mormons 40 Years, Couple Wed Again. Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 31.—James Mitchell and Louise Moran on the fortieth anniversary of their marriage by the Mormon Church in Utah, were married the other day in Minneapolis.

Man Dies as Job He Sought 11 Years Comes. Elling N. Y., Nov. 3. — News that John H. Edwards, of Stony Point, had been appointed to the position of carrier, a job he had been after for 11 years, reached his family 24 hours after he had died from heart trouble.

Tobacco Has Aroma With Nicotine Out. Ephrata, Pa., Nov. 3. — Through the activities of the federal tobacco experiment station here a strain of tobacco, with 1 per cent nicotine content, has been developed without depriving it of a job or title of its aroma.

FATHER READ HEADLINE ONLY AND FEARED WORST. Aberdeen, Wash., Nov. 3. — "Deaf Boy Holds Up Train; Peter Cole, Jr., is Bandit." This was the headline in a Portland paper which caught the attention of Peter Cole, laborer, of South Aberdeen, whose son, Peter Cole, Jr., is attending the State school for the deaf at Vancouver.

Edna Mayo appears as modern Eve in "The Return of Eve," the sensation of the year, which is the attraction at the Regent-to-day and to-morrow. The legend of a cave boy and cave girl, raised in the wilderness by an eccentric millionaire, returns to the world until a peer of society enters Eve's life, and she enters into the whirl of gay soirees and deceptions of the world, she returns to Eden and the arms of her cave boy sweetheart.

The last chapter of "Gloria's Romance" will also be presented these two days. Billie Burke's pink tinged daily points to the words, "The End." The play tells the story of a big book, Billie turns to the end of the world, "Where is My Heart?" with Mary McLaren, will be shown.

A great deal of talent is displayed on the bill at the Regent-to-day and to-morrow. The week's attraction is "The Phun Friends," a comedy that contains pretty girls attractively costumed, as well as good comedy provided by two comedians of ability. An appropriate stage setting enhances this production from a scenic viewpoint.

"Diane of the Folies," one of the prettiest feature pictures that was ever shown at the Regent, will play a repeat engagement for the Colonials. Today only. The Regent will enjoy its clever story that deals with the life of a chorus girl, and the woman will not only love it, for its unusual love story, for among other things sixty-seven beautiful scenes of the very latest fashion are worn by star and principals during the action of the play.

"Diane of the Folies," one of the prettiest feature pictures that was ever shown at the Regent, will play a repeat engagement for the Colonials. Today only. The Regent will enjoy its clever story that deals with the life of a chorus girl, and the woman will not only love it, for its unusual love story, for among other things sixty-seven beautiful scenes of the very latest fashion are worn by star and principals during the action of the play.

Lucas and Bessie Love are billed to top the program in a new five-part Triangle feature, called "The Rummy." The story is of a once prosperous businessman, who becomes an habitual drunkard and goes down and out; but with the aid of a girl in whom he is interested, he proves that he is one of the very few that is able to come back.

Ask Mme. Gadski if Wagner ruins the voice, as popularly supposed, and if the big arias are likely to make her Gadski it is impossible ultimately to sing pretty little songs and things as delicate as lace, and she sings the undisputed fact that she sings Mozart much better today than she did before she became a Wagnerian soprano.

RUB YOUR BACK! STOPS LUMBAGO. Don't drug kidneys! Rub the pain right out with old "St. Jacobs Oil."

Back hurt you? Can't straighten up without feeling sudden pains, sharp aches and twinges? Now listen! That's lumbago, sciatica, or maybe from a strain, and you'll get blessed relief the moment you rub your back with soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil."

Lumber up! Don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle from any drugstore, and after using it just once, you'll forget that you ever had backache, lumbago or sciatica, because your back will never hurt, or cause any more misery. It never disappoints and has been recommended for 60 years.

AMUSEMENTS. GRAND THEATRE. 1426 Derry Street TO-NIGHT CHARLES RAY in "THE DIVIDEND"

Mme. Gadski TO-NIGHT ORPHEUM Opening Number (Solo) Burlesque's MUSICAL COURSE

Burton Holmes (HIMSELF) IS COMING TO THE ORPHEUM

REGENT. Extra Double Attraction TO-DAY AND TO-MORROW

VICTORIA THEATRE To-day Only "The Wheel of the Law"

COLONIAL SPECIAL REQUESTED Return Engagement TODAY ONLY

Lillian Gish in "Diane of the Folies"

MAJESTIC WILNER & VINCENT VALDEVILLE. FINDERS-KEEPERS

AMUSEMENTS. MME. GADSKI TO-NIGHT ORPHEUM

BURTON HOLMES (HIMSELF) IS COMING TO THE ORPHEUM

REGENT. Extra Double Attraction TO-DAY AND TO-MORROW

COLONIAL SPECIAL REQUESTED Return Engagement TODAY ONLY

LILLIAN GISH in "Diane of the Folies"