First Wedding in Remodeled Zion Lutheran Church

MRS. JOHN ROSS HALL

YOUNG COUPLE ON SOUTHERN TRIP

The Hall-Hoffman Nuptials in Same Church Bride's Parents Were Married

Old, historic Zion Lutheran Church, beautiful in its simplicity, new with the alterations recently added, was the setting for an attractive wedding this morning when Miss Margaret Keene Hoffman became the bride of John Ross Hall. The parents of the bride were married in this church and Miss Hoffman is the first bride to be wedded there since it has been remodeled. The ceremony was performed at 12:30 o'clock by the Rev. Stewart Winfield Herman, pastor of the church, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Luther DeYoe, of the Trinity Lutheran Church, Germantown, an old friend of the family.

The church was beautifully and simply decorated by Hildebrand with banks of palms, ferns and autumn leaves, with huge bouquets of large yellow chrysanthemums on either side of the altar. Newell Albright played the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" as a professional for the bridal party. "O Promise Me" during the ceremony and Mendelssohn's Recessional afterward.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a going-away suit of dark blue kitten's ear with black fox trimmings and a black picture hat with bird of paradise. She carried a white prayer book and her corsage bouquet was of orchids and lilies of the valley. Miss Margaret Ramsey Boas, the maid of honor and only attendant of the bride, wore a gown of Burgundy georgette crepe over white satin, a picture hat, and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. William S. Hamaker, of Chambersburg, acted as best man.

Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for their wedding trip, which will include various places in the South. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Wilson Hoffman, 1930 North Third street, a graduate of the 1914 class of the Central high school, a member of the D. V. V. Sorority and a graduate of the Walnut Lane School, Germantown, Pa. Mr. Hall, a former Harrisburger, now of New York, is a graduate of Lehigh University and a member of the Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity, the college quarter, and of the Mustard and Cheese College Dramatic Society. He is a civil engineer, connected with the Underwriters' Bureau of the Middle and Southern States, with headquarters in New York city.

After their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Hall will make their home in Jersey City, N. J.

Astrich's Great 98c HAT SALE TAKES PLACE THIS MONDAY It Seems Almost Impossible! considering the continuous rise in prices of Velvet and labor that DESIRABLE Silk Velvet Hats of this character can be sold at so ridiculously low a price. HOWEVER, THE GOODS ARE HERE. Ask any merchant who is familiar with values—how we do it, and he'll admit that it is hard to explain. For weeks we have quietly prepared for this sale. We not only sacrifice our profit but actually meet a loss on some of the goods offered in this sale. From an advertising standpoint, our Monday sales have proved the best advertising our Millinery Department has ever had. Every Hat we sell at these sales means another new customer—and more firmly establishes the fact That No Matter What Other Stores Do We Can Always Do Better We will not attempt to tell you anything about the value of these Hats—WE'LL LET YOU BE THE JUDGES. They will be displayed on SEVEN LARGE TABLES with the 98c Sale Ticket. They are SILK VELVET SAILORS, SILK VELVET TURBANS, SILK VELVET TAMS, PLUSH HATS, COLORED VELVET HATS, etc.; GIRLS' TRIMMED VELVET SCHOOL HATS. LARGE BLACK VELOUR HATS and ready to wear; trimmed Silk Velvet Turbans, etc. Your Choice of any of these seven tables on this Monday only . . . at 98c This Monday Only These Hats are displayed in our show windows. Come and take a look at them. Any Hat at 98c, either out of the window or upstairs. Sale starts 9 o'clock. CASH SALES ONLY. None laid aside; no C. O. D.; no exchanges.
