Francis X. Bushman stars with Beverly Bayne in the original "Romeo and Juliet" which is the attraction at the Victoria theater to-day and tomorrow. This play contains over 600 chosen actors appearing in nearly 900 scenes. It is a $250,000 production and required thirteen months to produce it.

Street Car Versus Jitney
OR
The Corporation Against the People

If the people of the city want the jitney, they have a right to have it.

The amended Jitney Ordinance stands for SAFETY FIRST and aims to encourage competition between the jitney and the street car.

The Harrisburg Railways Company has a perpetual franchise, giving it the right to run its cars on our streets forever.

We can have no other street railway to compete with it, therefore, without the jitney competition, we are largely at its mercy.

The "cut-throat" bond designed, in the interest of the Railways Company, to kill off jitney traffic, is to be abolished by the amended ordinance and a payment of five dollars each month to the City Treasurer as a forfeit, is to be substituted.

The money so deposited with the Treasurer is to be returned to the jitneyman when it pleases him to quit operations, provided he has kept himself free from responsibility for damage to person or property.

We believe that this method will be far more effective against accident than even a "cut-throat" bond where the responsibility does not rest on the owner, or lessee, driving the machine. The sum in the hands of the Treasurer would be as a bank account and it is the nature of us to protect our savings with all possible vigilance.

Under the "cut-throat" bond plan, it appears that the expense is about two hundred dollars a year for each jitney, if the jitney operator is not wealthy enough to put up his own $2,000 security. To purchase a bond, therefore, means that, at least, five thousand passengers must be carried, before earnings begin. Isn't it reasonable to assume that a burden of about two hundred and fifty dollars, on the jitneyman, encourages rapid traveling and danger, instead of lessening it?

We contend that the present system is excellent from the standpoint of the Railways Company, but unfair to the public; that it increases liability to accident rather than lessens it; that, by endeavoring to prevent the evolution of city passenger traffic, it is foolish as well as unprogressive and, as its main purpose, seeks to keep the people's nickels dropping into the coffers of the Railways Company.

THE OLD EMPLOYEES OF THE RAILWAYS COMPANY, WHO WILL RUN JITNEYS, IF THE NEW ORDINANCE PASSES, PROPOSE TO FORM A MUTUAL INDEMNITY FUND, FROM WHICH THEY CAN PAY FOR ANY DAMAGE TO PERSON, OR PROPERTY, AS PROMPTLY AND GENEROUSLY AS THE HARRISBURG RAILWAYS COMPANY. IT CAN, TOO, IF REQUIRED, PAY A PERCENTAGE OF ITS EARNINGS TO THE CITY.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action, yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by every one, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Friday, November 10, at 2.15 o'clock, in the chapel of the school building on Foster street, special exercises will be held, including music by the senior girls' glee club and the school choir under the direction of Professor E. J. Rose and the orchestra with George W. Updegrave, leader.

Orpheum—Friday evening, Saturday matinee and evening—Fair and Warner.

MAJESTIC—Vaudeville.
COLONIAL—"The Old Folks at Home."
REGENT—"The Big Sister."
VICTORIA—"Romeo and Juliet."

Avery Hopwood's "Fair and Warner," which scored such success in New York last season that a demand for it had come from North, East, South and West before the month at the Eltinge Theater, will be presented at the Orpheum for a special return engagement, Friday and Saturday and Saturday matinee, by Selwyn and Company, whose faculty for tickling the public has not once failed them in the four years of their existence. "Fair and Warner" is infallible as a laugh-maker. Nobody was ever able to resist its ray of absurd situations, or its galaxy of sparkling lines. These accounts for the fact that for month after month of its long run in New York there was never a vacant seat in the theater.

Special Show Tomorrow Night at Majestic Theater

To-morrow night a special performance, beginning at 11 o'clock, will be conducted at the Majestic Theater which time election returns will be given as they are received over the wires. Reserved seats are now on sale at the theater office for advance in prices. At this time patrons will be given the opportunity of witnessing a good vaudeville show headed by Will Oakland and Company, in a new production of "The Old Folks at Home," that is said to give Mr. Oakland excellent opportunity to display his rich tenor voice. An added attraction on the bill is Wells, North and Moore, clever trio, who furnish lots of bright entertainment with their comedy singing, talking and dancing act. Smith and Farmer, in a comedy song and dance offering; Greco and Platt, comedy juggler, together with one other act, round out the roster.

Special Show Tomorrow Night at Majestic Theater

Mr. Herbert Beerbohm Tree, one of England's most celebrated actors, and Rupert Hughes, one of America's most successful present-day authors, contribute their joint efforts toward making "The Old Folks at Home," the new Triangle feature to be seen at the Colonial Theater to-day and tomorrow, one of the finest that has ever appeared on the Triangle program.

The powerful story of this new feature deals with John Coburn and his wife, who have become comfortable old age in their simple farm life. Reward comes to the farmer in the form of a State Senatorship. This, in the end, means breaking up of the old home. The son, Steve, goes to the city, leaving behind his country sweetheart, and later falls into the hands of an adventurer, Lucinda Mendon, who plays with the affections of the boy, which later leads to his killing another man in defense of her. How he is saved from the gallows by the intervention of his aged father and mother, gives the illustrious English actor an opportunity for some powerful acting.

Duplicate William Fox photodrama, "The Spider and the Fly," are duplicates of the rooms in the original Hall of Folly which flourished in Paris, a few years ago. The real Hall of Folly was known for the luxuriosity of its fittings, tapestries, paintings and works of art.

The place flourished for many years. Eventually it was closed after the number of persons who had committed suicide in it rivaled the number who have taken their lives at Monte Carlo. This film will be shown this evening at both the Royal and National theaters.

Rats Were Sneak Thieves, Loot Found Under Floor

Georgetown, Del. — Supposing that sneak thieves had been stealing from her home for the past few years, and, in her own mind, accusing small boys of the mischief, Mrs. Bessie Hudson was shocked to regain the lost articles when workmen, in making repairs to the kitchen floor, found them strewn in different places under the boards, where rats had dragged them.

For the past two years Mrs. Hudson has been missing various articles, including three silver spoons, a silver dinner bell, a comb case and other small articles. She supposed that children were systematically stealing from her home and set various traps, but never caught them.

Now she has found that the rats did the mischief and the articles have been recovered. Just why the rats dragged the articles under the floor is a mystery.
