STATE COLLEGES IN BIG CLEAN-UP

College Presidents Plan Drastic Rules; Take Up One Year Regulation

State College, Pa., Nov. 6.—Athletics in Pennsylvania colleges are likely to be overhauled as the result of action taken here Saturday by a committee of the Pennsylvania College Presidents' Association. The committee outlined a clean-up which includes the offering of financial inducements to brilliant high school athletes in return for their services on the college athletic teams.

letic teams.

Rigid inforcement of the one-year residence rule, sometimes called the college migratory rule, was recommended. Attending the conference were the following: Dr. J. A. W. Haas, president of Muhlenberg College; Dr. W. A. Granville, president of Gettysburg College; Dr. Isaac Sharpless, president of Haverford College; Professor S. B. Linhart, of the University of Pittsburgh, and Dr. E. E. Sparks, president of the Pennsylvania State College.

cxplained, is a piece of legislation designed to prevent a student attending one college from taking part in athletics at another college until he has remained there one year. A few of the colleges in this State have a strict observance of this rule, which operates to discourage "tramp" athletes. All of the Pennsylvania colleges will probably establish the principle firmly following its indorsement by the association. Helping the star athlete through college by giving him room and board was frowned upon as the equivalent of paying him money, or professionalism. It was voted that steps should be taken at once to stop this practice. In the opinion of the committee, the offering of inducements to young athletes to enter certain colleges is harmful to the high school boys who offer themselves for sale to the highest bidder. They take a similar stand on paying the athlete's board and room rent.

Who is who in football? Ask the first ten persons you meet and they will all have a different answer. The field and wet ball prevented accuracy real tests are yet to come in college circles. Thus far the Army and Syracuse have been disappointments. Harvard and Yale look like strong contenders for season's honors.

While Nanticoke was not in the local class, the visitors put up in the local class, the visitors put up Among the little fellows the surprises this season are Dickinson and Gettysburg. The Carlisle Indians, newcomers, are also a big success. Lebanon Valley College eleven has been keeping up its reputation and looks like a big winner this year.

Central High won a decisive victory Saturday. While Nanticoke was not in the local class, the visitors put up a good game, lacking somewhat in charging ability. It was a thorough test for Central. The teams played in the mud and at times it was difficult to distinguish the players, who were covered with mud from head to foot. The only regret was that costly fumble, due to a wet ball. It gave Nanticoke a chance to score.

In the game at Conshohocken Saturday the Carlisle Indians left the field because the officials refused to penalize Conshohocken for roughness. The score was tie, 6 to 6. Coach Clevett was umpiring and he called attention a number of times to the rough playing. Later the police took Coach Clevett to the clubhouse and demanded half of the guarantee money back, To-day suit was entered against the Conshohocken authorities for $10,000 damages. Picking individual players as stars in football is not an easy task. Those Central boys are showing form in a manner that is bringing favorable criticism. Hilton, Wolf, Fields, Martz, Gregory, Frank and E. Rogers have been doing great work, but the other fellows were in the game, to. For Tech, Beck, Haris, Phillipelli, Eyester and Wier have been factors, but others were there when given a chance. Tho final results are awaited with much interest.

The only way to assure clean games is to have disinterested officials. No matter how honest an official may be, he will always be charged by someone with partiality if he represents a school or college that is playing. No one believes an official would delip or crately decide unfairly, but the crowd always feels better if neutral men are in charge.

A SENSIBLE CIGARETTE IS EASY TO "DIGEST"

No word can describe that mean feeling which often follows smoking a poorly-blended but otherwise good cigarette. Such a cigarette might be called "indigestible." On the other hand, Fatimas always give comfort. They "digest" easily, smoothly as only a delicately balanced Turkish blend cigarette can. And best of all, Fatimas leave a man feeling fine and fit—yes, even after a longsmoking day. That's why men call Fatimas "sensible".
