

Plenishing the Guest Room

HOW to furnish, economically and well, the guest-room which is infrequently used, but so important when occupied, is a problem that we can solve for you.

We commend some inexpensive but tasteful suites, in white and ivory and black enamels.

Among the embellishments employed in these suites are tinted carvings, painted panels, cane inserts and decorative drawer pulls.

Comfortable Beds, Dainty Toilet Tables, Commodious Bureaus, Handy Lingerie Chests and Chiffoniers and Winsome Chairs are to be found in various woods and finishes, at moderate prices.

Many of our choicest offerings at reasonable prices, were made and decorated in the celebrated shops of Berkey & Gay.

House of Seven Gables Given as Church Benefit

The ladies of the Stevens Memorial Methodist Church have arranged for a most unique and unusual affair to be given in the church Thursday and Friday evening, November 16 and 17. It is called the "House of Seven Gables." Mrs. Manley T. Chubbuck, chairman of the committee in charge, planned the entire affair and Mrs. Samuel Fackler, chairman of the publicity committee, made numerous fine posters.

The committee is making the "House of Seven Gables" a quaint sort of spot filled with fascinating surprises from attic to kitchen for old and young, containing in every room something that will please each person who visits. Among the pleasing features will be refreshments on the porch, flowers in the conservatory and grandma's chest in the attic. "Come one, come all—great and small!"

HOSTESS AT LUNCHEON
Miss Lorene Shelley of 2425 North Second street will entertain a few friends at a bridge luncheon Friday afternoon, November 10.

Harvey H. Frank of New York city, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Hoy, of Green street.

DELIGHTFUL TRIP THRO' TENNESSEE

The Misses Pearson and Mrs. George B. Kunkel Visit Historic Ground in South

The Misses Pearson and Mrs. George B. Kunkel have returned after a two weeks' motor tour to Chattanooga, Tennessee.

The tour began with the fertile, beautiful Cumberland Valley, which led to Winchester, where the celebrated Valley Pike begins, that historic road, the scene of Sheridan's famous ride.

The Old Dominion is full of Revolutionary as well as Civil War history, one of the many interesting places being Lexington, with the large and Colonial buildings of Washington and Lee University set in a campus of great beauty and extent. The memorial to General Lee in the chapel is most impressive, a recumbent figure in marble, while the room on the ground floor which he had used as an office at the time he was president of the institution remains just as he left it.

The next stop was at the Natural Bridge, always so beautiful, the mountains grand and the autumn foliage most gorgeous; indeed, nothing is needed to make Virginia the Mecca of the motorist as New England is at present except fine roads, but with the exception of the Valley Pike, which is a fine state road, no other stretches, there are few good roads in Virginia, some of them not having been worked since 1854.

Cumberland Valley Women Go to Federation Meeting

An unusually attractive program has been arranged for the annual meeting of the Cumberland Valley Federation of Women's Clubs to be held in Mechanicsburg, Thursday, November 16, at 10 a. m.

The hostess club of which Miss Caroline S. Saxton of Mechanicsburg is president, has arranged some delightful music including a vocal solo by Mrs. J. V. Miller and an organ recital by Miss Clara Cromliekh. There will be greetings from the President, Mrs. Marjorie Cronis Jones and a brief address by Mrs. Walter King Sharpe of Chambersburg a vice-president of the district.

William D. B. Ainey, chairman of the State Public Service Commission, will talk on Mexico. As member of the congressional committee on foreign affairs, Mr. Ainey was sent to Mexico and his observations and deductions will throw much light on the Mexican problem—which seems to be our problem now.

Miss Anna A. MacDonald of State College, consulting librarian at the Capitol, will give a practical talk on traveling libraries and show how our State Library can be of vital use to every one. Harrisburg club women are urged to attend these meetings, and take a box luncheon with them. Coffee will be served by the hostess club.

SUNSHINE SOCIETY MEETS AND PLANS FALL WORK

Mrs. Melvin B. Cumber, first vice-president, presided at a meeting of the Roberts Disbrow Loyd Sunshine Society held yesterday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. Requests were made for charitable donations to supply special needs and contributions taken for an oil stove and shoes for a destitute woman. Bed linen, body linen and baby clothes were donated to a young mother with a three days' old baby sadly in need of comforts whose husband is out of work. It was decided to hold Sunshine meetings on the second Monday of the month hereafter instead of the first.

A special meeting will be held early in December to discuss the Christmas work for children and shut-ins.

TWO FORMER RESIDENTS HONOR GUESTS AT SUPPER

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Allen H. Fritz, 32 South Eighteenth street, the guests of honor being Dr. Walter E. Kiefer, of Buffalo, N. Y., and Samuel V. Keeler, of Tamaqua, former residents of Harrisburg.

The evening was spent in discussing the lively topics of the day and renewing past associations.

CENTRAL HIGH TENNIS

Messiah Church Choir Surprises the Organist

While Miss Emma Hoffman, organist of Messiah Lutheran Church, was engaged as accompanist at a rehearsal of the Moorhead Knitting Company chorus, the choir of the church stole to her home at 1534 Walnut street last evening to give a pleasant surprise for the unsuspecting young lady. Not until Miss Hoffman was preparing to retire did the guests reveal their presence in the darkened parlor, and great indeed was her astonishment. Miss Hoffman was the recipient of many useful and valuable gifts and entertained her party with well played solos at the piano.

Mrs. W. K. Bumbaugh, Mrs. Witherow and A. W. Hartman sang solos and the choir beautifully voiced their sentiments with anthems and hymns. William Rowe had the gathering in a continuous row with his humorous jokes and stories. Miss Hoffman's mother, Mrs. Moser, furnished the guests with a buffet supper.

Those present were the Misses Sarah Bannan, Grace Daniels, Clara McLaughlin, Katherine Peters, Pearl Weaver, Helen Geisel, Rosanna Scheffer, Adelaide Lusk, Margaret Stine, Emma Hoffman, Mrs. W. K. Bumbaugh, Mrs. Mollie Steele, Mrs. Lottie Miller, Mrs. William Witherow, Mrs. Mary Moser, Mrs. Florence Hain, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Moser, William Rowe, Carlton Dummoier, Paul Bowman, A. W. My Examinations Only One Dollar

Most Specialists charge from $2 to $10 for examining the eyes, which is all right where the specialist is catering to an exclusive or wealthy class. I give just as careful—just as scientific and just as competent examinations for $1, which I consider reasonable for the time required. If you suspect that your eyes are failing, or that you are suffering from any defect of vision, I will tell you frankly whether you need glasses or medical treatment. You pay me for reliable and conscientious advice and I can not afford to guide you wrongly for the sake of the small profit I make on a pair of glasses.

If you do need glasses I can afford to treat you fairly in regard to price; because I charge for the examination and do not have to make an exorbitant profit on the glasses in order to be compensated for my services.

I offer you the benefit of over twenty years' experience in optometry on the basis that I am permanently established in Harrisburg and expect to enjoy the confidence and respect of yourself and friends in the future as I have in the past.
