GRADE CROSSINGS MUST BE PAID FOR

A State Appropriation For the Purpose Likely to Be Asked of the Legislature

Legislative appropriation to give the State a start toward abolition of grade crossings is to be one of the subjects early brought to the attention of the Commonwealth assembly when it meets here in January. The report submitted to the Public Service Commission by Investigator John P. Donegan shows 402 accidents at grade crossings in the year ending June 30 last, 161 persons being killed.

As there are 12,776 grade crossings in Pennsylvania, of which only 1,794 are protected in any way, the general abolition of crossings is manifestly going to call for expenditure of a great amount of money and for much time. The Public Service Commission has been going ahead with its plan to secure gradual abolition of crossings and in dividing the costs has been placing them upon the railroads and the counties and municipal divisions benefited. It has happened several times that the State has been a beneficiary as crossings abolished were on State highways and the lack of an appropriation to pay the bill on the part of the Commonwealth has attracted much attention. Future abolition projects are bound to involve the State.

It is likely that an appropriation of a quarter of a million dollars may be asked to take care of the State's end of such matters.

Hearing at Reading.—Commissioner Alney will go to Reading late in the month to division benefited. It has happened several times that the State has been a beneficiary as crossings abolished were on State highways and the lack of an appropriation to pay the bill on the part of the Commonwealth has attracted much attention. Future abolition projects are bound to involve the State.

FIVE HILL HOMES ARE ENTERED BY THIEVES

B. Hess, 1853 Park street by the way of a back window, where they made a leisurely examination of the portable goods downstairs. A solid gold watch and chain, two gold rings, three bracelets and some "ready change" seemed all they cared to take at that time. A number of cheap rings were taken from a shelf where they had been displayed for several years, but were promptly discarded when their lack of value was discovered.

They next entered the Hockenberry home, 1849 Park street where they helped themselves to a valuable fur coat, a well-filled child's bank, and two pounds of butter. In this case they attempted to get in through the front transom, but it being rather narrow they abandoned it for an easier method, the back window.

They next went to Nineteenth and Market streets and entered the St. Andrew's Protestant Episcopal Parish House, which is at the present time unoccupied. Here all the small valuables had been removed and evidently not caring to call a truck to remove the furniture they continued on their schedule.

Becoming even bolder they moved their operations to Regina street where they entered No. 1849, the home of Ned M. Shirk. A gold watch in a leather case, won in a golf tourney at the Altoona, Pa. regatta, bearing the name E. J. Shirk, several dollars in currency, as well as a pair of shoes without rubber heels was the loot obtained.

Next, at 1841 Regina street, the home of William Fisher, they secured four dollars in currency.

They also tried the windows of several other homes in the vicinity. The marks of the "jimmy" are plainly evident on the window ledge of 1851 Regina street.

Although the robbery was reported at police headquarters at 6 a. m. a city detective did not arrive on the scene until late this morning.

Will Next President Take Oath of Office March 3 or March 5?

The choice of the American people for President at to-day's election would, according to general custom, take the oath of office March 4, 1917, but that day falls on Sunday. The Constitution of the United States provides no fixed date for the administration of the oath, although it does, of course, prescribe its textual form. A committee appointed by the constitutional convention chose the first Wednesday in March, 1789, the date of the first Congress under the Constitution to meet. This date happened to be March 4, which has since then been used as the date of the presidential inauguration.

By an act of March 1, 1792, it was provided that "the term of four years for which a President and Vice-President shall be elected shall, in all cases, commence on the fourth day of March next succeeding the day on which the votes of the electors have been given."

March 4, 1877, fell on Sunday. Rutherford B. Hayes took the oath of office twice, on Saturday night, March 3, when it was administered by Chief Justice Waite in the White House, and again at the public ceremonies in the Capitol on the following Monday. The precedent was set, however, by James Monroe, who was inaugurated March 5, 1821. The 4th of March then came on a Sunday, as was also the case in 1849, when Zachary Taylor was inducted into office. He, too, took the oath on Monday.

It would, therefore, appear to be a matter of personal preference with the President who will be elected to-day as to whether he shall take the oath on March 3 or March 5, 1917.

HUGHES CASTS BALLOT EARLY

Votes Before Breakfast; Number Was 13; Says It's Lucky

New York, Nov. 7.—Charles E. Hughes cast his vote at 7:05 o'clock this morning in a small laundry at 715 Eighth avenue, almost directly back of the hotel where he made his headquarters during the campaign. His ballot was No. 13. When his attention was called to this the Republican candidate said 13 was his lucky number.

"And I was born on Friday, too," he added.

Mr. Hughes went to the polls before breakfast. When he saw the weather conditions indicating a clear, cool day he remarked: "It looks like a good Republican day."

The candidate left the polling place the cookery was started by the great inventor who had a dozen policemen jumped in the direction of the disturbance, but stopped when Mr. Hughes smilingly pointed to the heavy smoke hanging behind the stalled automobile.

Mr. Hughes was handed his ballot at 7:03 o'clock. When he emerged from the booth he handed the marked ballot to the inspector, having taken exactly two minutes to record his choice. He walked back to his hotel accompanied by the crowd and went to his room. He expected to pass the day quietly at the hotel.

Edison Is Not Sure of Wilson's Election

West Orange, N. J., Nov. 7.—Thomas A. Edison was induced last night to give his views on the Presidential election.

"Wilson ought to be elected," he said "but it is not so sure he will be." The great inventor showed that he was not entirely pleased with the policies of the President, however, when he said:

"I think Wilson has given sufficient consideration to humane projects for the time, and I hope that if he is elected he will go into the campaign for preparedness more seriously. What we need now is more 'police' to guard our nation and more machines to protect ourselves from other nations if we ever are attacked.

"America is not going ahead fast enough in her development. You know I have been around a great deal lately looking at our forts and other defenses."

Edison was asked what he thought of them.

NEWS OF STEELTON

BOROUGH HAS POLICE PATROL

Council Decides to Purchase Car For Use of Force and Street Commissioner

Steelton now has adequate police protection. This was brought about by council last night when in monthly session it decided to place three new patrolmen on the borough's force. Aside from placing these men on the force council authorized the purchase of an automobile, not to exceed $400, which will be used as a patrol. During the day the street commissioner will have use of the car and during the still hours of the night it will belong to the police. This addition to the force was much needed for some time. When a hurry call was sent into the station the patrolmen either had to run to the scene or borrow a car.

The addition of the new patrolmen is believed to come out of the suggestion of Quincy Bent, of the local police of the Bethlehem Steel Company, in a conference over the disorderly Southern negroes. Burgess Wigfield has a more recent memory of the trouble months and stated this morning he was very glad that council had taken the step.

H. F. Longmacker, for eight years chief of police in the borough, last night tendered his resignation before council, to take effect Monday. He has accepted a position with G. W. Esig, Inc., which has the contract for installing the big intercepting sewer in the borough. B. A. Capella, a former councilman, was appointed to succeed him.

Detective I. M. Durnbaugh was selected as one of the trio of new men on the force. He took up his duties Monday. The other two were selected soon by the police committee of the council.

With the three new men the borough force will include a chief, one sergeant, six patrolmen and one night desk officer. The former force was composed of a chief, sergeant and four patrolmen. The new chief and two patrolmen will be on duty from 8 o'clock in the morning to 4 o'clock in the afternoon and one desk officer.

The election of officers which took place yesterday, resulted as follows: President, the Rev. H. F. Longmacker; vice-president, the Rev. W. C. Sanderson; secretary, the Rev. G. N. Lauffer; treasurer, the Rev. W. C. Wier. The association will hold its next meeting in Trinity parish house Monday, January 8, 1917.

Elect Board Members.—Attorney W. F. Housman has been elected a member of the board of directors of the Commercial Building and Loan Association and has been made solicitor for the association.

Willcox Greatly Gratified With Reports of Election

New York, Nov. 7.—Gratification was expressed to-day at both Republican and Democratic national headquarters here at the fair weather for election as it was expected that it would bring out a great number of voters. It has been claimed by both of the leading parties that the outcome of election would be greatly influenced by the so-called "silent vote" which would bring this class out in strong numbers.

Chairman William R. Willcox, of the Republican national committee, graphic reports. He said he was gratified at the reports received.

Chairman Vance C. McCormick, of the Democratic national committee, was at his home at Harrisburg, Pa., where he had gone to cast his vote. He expected to be at his desk at national headquarters later in the day.

The fight is won. We have Republican weather and it all over by the shouting," said Chairman Willcox at noon after hearing the reports of the progress of the voting from all over the country. He declared that the result of the returns at New Ashford, Mass., were "indicative of the whole country."

Chairman McCormick, of the Democratic committee, has at that hour returned from Harrisburg, but the officials in charge declared that reports received indicated "a strong drift for the Republican side."

Mr. Morgenthau commented upon the new Ashford vote, saying that the Democrats were on guard in addition to the two required by law.

As the candidate left the polling place the cookery was started by the great inventor who had a dozen policemen jumped in the direction of the disturbance, but stopped when Mr. Hughes smilingly pointed to the heavy smoke hanging behind the stalled automobile.

Mr. Hughes was handed his ballot at 7:03 o'clock. When he emerged from the booth he handed the marked ballot to the inspector, having taken exactly two minutes to record his choice. He walked back to his hotel accompanied by the crowd and went to his room. He expected to pass the day quietly at the hotel.

Hughes Ends Campaign Trained Like an Athlete

New York, Nov. 7.—Charles Evans Hughes, entirely confident of being elected President, finished his campaign as probably the best trained individual, physically, that ever made a Presidential race. He has preached "America first and America efficient" everywhere—and at the same time done his best to live up to the idea of efficiency in his own personal work.

He is only a trifle under the weight he carried when he resigned from the Supreme Court bench. His skin is clearer, his muscles harder, his eyes keener for the strenuous but carefully planned campaign he has as a foot-ball player and is just as coolly confident of the result to-day as the head coach of a college team would want his eleven's captain to be.

In reality Mrs. Hughes has had just as much of a burden to carry as her husband.

It was Mrs. Hughes' self-imposed duty at all times that the Governor was in condition; that he had proper food; that his private car was warm enough or cool enough; that he had a place quickly to change from perspiration-soaked garments to dry clothes after his speeches—and a thousand other details pertaining to his comfort.

Moreover, those who traveled with the Hughes party very quickly knew that the candidate placed a very great deal of reliance on Mrs. Hughes as a political adviser.

An Effective Laxative For Growing Children

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin Highly Recommended as a Family Remedy.

In children the slightest irregularity of the bowels has a tendency to disturb the entire digestive system, and unless promptly remedied invites serious illness. The experienced mother knows that by training her child to regularity in this respect, and when occasion arises administering a mild laxative, she will have little need for the doctor's services.

Mrs. Leo Weigand, 325 1/2 Central Ave., S. Pittsburg, Pa., whose two boys, Frank and Joseph, are shown in the illustration, writes that she has found Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin a most effective laxative, not only for the children but also for herself, and that she will always keep it in the house to use when needed. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin that acts easily and naturally without griping or other pain or discomfort. It is pleasant to the taste so that children like it, and is equally effective on the strongest constitution.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can be obtained at any drug store for fifty cents. It should be kept in a cool place in every home. It will save many times its cost in lessened doctor bills and maintain the health of the entire family. The only limitations are that ineffective substitutes be sure to get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. See that facsimile of Dr. Caldwell's signature and his portrait appear on the yellow cartons in which the bottle is packed. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 465 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

Women Helping Swell Huge Army of Voters Casting Ballots in Ills.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—By far the largest vote in the history of Illinois elections is expected to be cast to-day by reason of the fact that women for the first time voted for President and Vice-President. Promise of fair weather throughout the State was also counted on by party managers to aid in bringing about a heavy vote.

Approximately 2,000,000 voters have registered in the State and party leaders estimated that close to 1,800,000 votes would be recorded, of which number between 600,000 and 700,000 would be cast by women. The women, however, enjoyed only partial suffrage, being permitted to vote for President and Vice-President, but not for the State officers except trustees of the State University.

Chicago, with its more than 800,000 voters, men and women, started its voting in the State, the polls here opening at 9 a. m. and closing at 6 o'clock this afternoon. Down State the polls opened at 7 a. m. and will remain open until 5 p. m. In order to give the women a vote in Chicago a full State ticket is to be chosen.

In Chicago, principal interest aside from the Presidential contest, centers on the three-cornered race for Governor. Attorney General Maclay Hoyne, Democrat, incumbent; Harry B. Miller, Republican, and W. A. Cunnea, Socialist.

GREETED BY SNOW

Denver, Colo., Nov. 7.—Colorado voters who came out in large numbers early were greeted by a snow storm. "Dry" workers were astir early to get voters against the amendment permitting the manufacture of beer in Colorado.

RAIN HASTENS VOTING

Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 7.—Overcast skies with a rain early to-day tended to hasten the voting throughout Wyoming. Chief interest centered in the Senatorial contest.

HEAVY EARLY VOTE

Albuquerque, N. M., Nov. 7.—Fair weather prevailed throughout New Mexico to-day and reports from various sections indicated a heavy early vote.

Heavy Voting Reported From All Sections of Michigan

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 7.—From every section of lower Michigan this morning came reports of heavy voting. Clear weather and the State-wide prohibition light helped to bring out what is expected to be a record breaking vote.

Nearly every county which reported to Detroit before 11 o'clock this forenoon forecast victory for the Prohibition forces but the Presidential contest was in doubt. Several counties were conceded to Hughes but in the majority of Democratic and Republican chairmen made conflicting claims.

BIG VOTE AT CLEVELAND

Cleveland, O., Nov. 7.—Cloudy weather marked election day here but the early vote was very heavy and indicated a greater total than at any previous election.

FULL VOTE IN N. H.

Manchester, N. H., Nov. 7.—Pleasant weather aided the Republican and Democratic party managers in their efforts to bring out a full vote to-day in New Hampshire. The balloting early in the day was lively.

LARGE VOTE IN KENTUCKY

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 7.—Fair weather and mild temperatures brought out a brisk early vote in Louisville. The indications were, party leaders said, a very large vote would be cast.

BEST LIVER AND BOWEL LAXATIVE FOR FAMILY USE

"Cascarets" regulate women, men and children without injury. Take when bilious, headachy, for colds, bad breath, sour stomach.

Instead of nasty, harsh pills, salts, castor oil or dangerous calomel, why don't you keep Cascarets handy in your home? Cascarets act on the liver and thirty feet of bowels so gently you don't realize you have taken a cathartic, but they act thoroughly and can be depended upon when a good liver and bowel cleansing is necessary—they move the bile and poison from the bowels without griping and sweeten the stomach. You eat one or two at night like candy and you wake up feeling fine, the head, ache, biliousness, bad breath, coated tongue, sour stomach, constipation, or bad cold disappears. Mothers should give Cascarets to their children as they are harmless and safe for the little folks.
