

DRINK HOT TEA FOR A BAD COLD

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Tee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once.

HOT CONTESTS IN NEARBY COUNTIES

B. K. Focht Wires That He Was Re-elected by 5,000 Majority

Returns reaching the Telegraph to-day told of hot contests in the counties in this part of the State. Interest here was great in the battle waged by Congressman B. K. Focht for re-election and this afternoon a message came from the Lewisburg man that he had won by 5,000. There was also great interest here in the outcome of the contest between Senator Franklin Martin and S. S. Leiby for Senator in the Cumberland-Perry-Junata-Mifflin district, which was doubtful this afternoon.

Lebanon county went Republican, giving Congressman Kreider a fine vote and helping elect Horace L. Halldeman, senator in addition to re-electing Representatives Asa A. Weimer and I. K. Ulrich. Cumberland's results are summed up as follows in a telegram from Carlisle:

"Wilson's majority in Cumberland county is expected to be about eight hundred. In fifty-three districts out of sixty the vote is Wilson 761; Hughes, 4755. Leiby leads Martin by about three hundred and fifty. In thirty-five districts for Superior Court Judge, Palmer has 1533 and Walling 2461. Cramer leads Snyder between three and four hundred more votes than Kreider. The Legislative fight is very close and will hinge on doubtful precincts and the result of the poll at the border. In fifty-six districts the vote is Barner, 5262; Burnett, 5163; Goodyear, 5054; Brandt, 4985. The result of Company G's vote was Kreider 29; Sabban, 23; Martin, 47; Leiby, 23; Brandt, 23; Goodyear, 72; Barner, 31 and Burnett, 5. The total vote in the county was one of the heaviest in several presidential elections."

A Lewistown dispatch gives the following: "With incomplete returns in Mifflin county it seems that Wilson carried the county, others receiving majorities being Walling, Knox, Kephart, Snyder, B. K. Focht and Franklin Martin. For Representative in General Assembly, Cramer leads Snyder. Republican is leading over Dr. F. A. Rupp, by 50 majority with seven districts to hear from at noon to-day. The Republican majorities in the county run close to 200 for all offices except State Legislature."

Republicans of City Hold Old-Fashioned Parade

Republicans of the city and county to the number of hundreds cheered and sang behind a band as they tramped over the streets during the wee sma' hours of this morning in an old-fashioned celebration of another Republican victory. Because information of a definite character was not forthcoming until during the late hours, the assembling of the paraders had to be necessarily delayed until after midnight. But that procession finally got going. It was a mighty imposing one. There was plenty of redfire and singing and cheering.

The band stopped and the paraders cheered in front of the Harrisburg and the West End Republican clubs. And a host of late spectators missed the last cars to watch the procession.

WILSON SLIGHTLY AHEAD

Seattle, Nov. 8.—One thousand and seventy-one precincts in Washington give: Hughes, 82,964; Wilson, 90,665.

TWO OF THE LEADERS IN DAUPHIN COUNTY ELECTIONS YESTERDAY

PHILANDER C. KNOX Elected U. S. Senator From Penna.

SENATOR E. E. BEIDLEMAN Re-elected to the Senate by Big Majority.

DEMOCRATS CLAIM SENATE CONTROL

Party Leaders Are Anxiously Awaiting Complete Returns

New York, Nov. 8.—With the Presidency in doubt at 8 a. m. to-day the political complexion of Congress also was undecided and party leaders were anxiously awaiting complete returns before definite claims could be made although it appeared that the Democrats would retain control of the Senate without question by a reduced majority.

With nearly a hundred congressional districts still in doubt the Republicans had made a net gain of six, capturing fifteen Democratic districts while the Democrats had taken nine from the Republicans. Without further upsets this would reduce the present Democratic House majority of 23 to 11. Republican leaders, however, insisted they would win the House. They claimed a gain of several seats in Indiana and two in Michigan.

Practically complete returns showed that the Democrats certainly have lost four United States Senators, one each in Maine, New York, New Jersey and Maryland while they gained one each in Rhode Island, Delaware and Utah. Indications pointed strongly to a further Democratic loss of two Senators in Indiana, one in West Virginia and Arizona and possibly one in Ohio and Montana. To offset this in the possibilities the election of Republican Senators in Wyoming and New Mexico had not been assured. If the Republicans and Democrats should lose all these as indicated the Senate still would remain Democratic by two.

The Democratic majority in the present Senate is 16. The most surprising development in the Senatorial contest was the defeat of Senator Henry F. Lippitt, Republican, of Rhode Island by Peter G. Gerry, Democrat, as the State otherwise went Republican. William M. Calder, of New York, takes the place of Senator O'Gorman, easily defeating William F. McCombs, former chairman of the Democratic national committee.

Martine Defeated The defeat of Senator Martine, of New Jersey, by Joseph S. Freilighusen had been persistently heralded by Republican leaders.

Although Democratic chieftains were hoping against hope that complete returns would reverse the situation in Indiana the indications at this time are that both John W. Kern, majority leader of the Senate, and Thomas Taggart must yield to Harry S. New and James E. Watson for long and short terms, respectively.

In Ohio, Senator Pomerene is running behind his Republican opponent, Myron T. Herrick, although the electoral vote of the State probably will go to Wilson.

Another upset was the defeat of Republican Senator George Sutherland, of Utah, by William H. King, Democrat. Late returns also indicated that Senator DuPont, of Delaware, would lose his seat to the Democratic nominee, Josiah O. Wolcott.

Upon returns thus far received, the Republicans have gained House seats in New York, Kansas, Illinois, Maine, Maryland, Wisconsin, Iowa and Oklahoma, fifteen in all. These were offset by Democratic gains in New York also, one in the 20th district of Pennsylvania, where A. R. Brodbeck defeated H. H. McCall; in North Carolina where J. J. Britt, the line North Carolina Republican, lost to Zebulon Weaver; one in Connecticut; two in Ohio; nine in all.

Herrick Defeated Late returns from Ohio indicating the re-election of Senator Alton Pomerene, D., over Myron T. Herrick, R., virtually ended the possibility of Republican ascendancy in the Senate.

With Democratic leaders insisting that Hitchcock in Nebraska and Bittman in Nevada had been re-elected, and with Kendrick probably elected in Wyoming, the political status of the new Senate would thus be: Democrats, 52; Republican, 42; with the result in Arizona and New Mexico still in doubt. Should the Republicans carry both the Democratic majority in the Senate would be eight.

19 SENATS GAINED Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 8.—Wisconsin gave Hughes an estimated plurality of twenty thousand.

Massachusetts Gives Hughes 21,000 Plurality

Boston, Nov. 8.—Massachusetts gave Hughes a plurality of 21,000 over Wilson. The Republicans also re-elected Governor McCall and Senator Lodge by larger pluralities than that given Hughes. All four Democratic Congressmen from this State were re-elected and the Republicans held their 12 congressional seats in the present Congress.

The Republicans increased their majority in the State House of Representatives and retained their present large majority in the State Senate.

Iowa Votes For Hughes and Passes Prohibition

Sioux Falls, Iowa, Nov. 8.—Latest available returns this morning from 714 out of 1,728 precincts in the State give Hughes 34,452 and Wilson 29,301.

The prohibition amendment carried by a majority estimated at from 15,000 to 30,000. The woman suffrage amendment carried. Norbeck (R.) for Governor, has defeated his opponent, Klinehart.

DELAWARE FOR HUGHES

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 8.—Of 191 districts in Delaware with 23 missing the vote is as follows: Wilson, 20,220; Hughes, 21,055. Senator — Wolcott, D., 18,833; Du Pont, R., 17,813; Burton, P., 1,465. Congress — Polk, D., 17,949; Miller, R., 18,742; Bradford, P., 988. The Republicans carried New Castle and Sussex counties. The Democrats will control the Legislature.

40,000 FOR HUGHES IN MICHIGAN

Detroit, Nov. 8.—The plurality of Hughes over Wilson in Michigan mounted to nearly 25,000 this forenoon when returns from about one-half of the State precincts were compiled. Hughes' plurality was constantly growing and Republican leaders claimed he would carry Michigan by more than 40,000.

CONNECTICUT VOTE

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 8.—The complete vote in Connecticut was: Hughes 105,324, Wilson 99,832.

Wilson Expresses Pleasure With Returns; Won't Talk

Long Branch, N. J., Nov. 8.—An exhausted but confident group of men including Secretary Tumulty waited today for more complete returns from yesterday's election after having been up all night in the executive offices at Asbury Park, N. J., with their hopes slowly rising as more complete returns from Western States came in.

President Wilson, who retired late last night, was up shortly before 8 o'clock and was immediately notified of the ship in his favor in returns received during the night. He expressed pleasure but reserved judgment.

President Wilson remained at Shadow Lawn during most of the morning preparing returns and then went golfing with Mrs. Wilson on nearby links. Although the outcome was still uncertain when he left, no efforts were made to supply him with returns while he was playing.

Hughes Plurality in New York State 100,000

New York, Nov. 8.—New York State gave Hughes a plurality of 100,000 or more and re-elected Governor Whitman by an even larger vote. All the rest of the Republican state ticket won by large pluralities, including the candidate for United States senator, Samuel Seabury, with 528 districts missing, is 132,233.

William M. Calder, of Brooklyn, Republican candidate for United States senator, polled 683,353 votes, against 508,732 for his opponent, William F. McCombs, former chairman of the Democratic national committee.

WISCONSIN FOR HUGHES

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 8.—Wisconsin gave Hughes an estimated plurality of twenty thousand.

CLOSE VOTING IN CALIFORNIA

Wilson Slightly Ahead, but Hughes Is Gaining Fast

San Francisco, Nov. 8.—Returns available early to-day indicated that the contest between Wilson and Hughes in California was so close that an official count might be necessary to determine the result. With 2,152 precincts in various parts of the State out of a total of 5,817 accounted for by the President was leading by about 700 votes.

Owing to the exceptional length of the ballot few precincts have been reported in either San Francisco or Los Angeles and on the result of the count in those two cities hinged the outcome. In San Francisco the city registrar estimated that Wilson would have a majority by twenty thousand. Whether this would overcome the majority certain to be rolled up for Hughes in the Southern California city was the point with which election experts concerned themselves.

Governor Hiram W. Johnson, Republican and Progressive candidate for United States Senator, had a commanding lead over his Democratic opponent, George S. Hutton, and it was believed his majority would approximate $200,000.

The two prohibition amendments which shared interest with the presidential contest early to-day appeared to have been beaten.

San Francisco, Nov. 8.—3,991 precincts of 5,917 in California give Hughes 246,182; Wilson, 237,585.

Sacramento, Cal., Nov. 8.—Sacramento county returns from 132 precincts for President give Hughes 9,097; Wilson, 12,230.

Los Angeles, Nov. 8.—Partial count of 893 city and county precincts give Hughes 61,373; Wilson, 46,134.

Oakland, Cal., Nov. 8.—Three hundred and fifteen precincts of 410 in Alameda county give Hughes 38,212; Wilson, 33,193.

LOS ANGELES FOR HUGHES Los Angeles, Nov. 8.—One hundred and forty complete city and county precincts gave Hughes 12,970, Wilson 11,634.

McCormick Is Claiming 312 Votes For Wilson Now

New York, Nov. 8.—Early this forenoon Chairman McCormick, of the Democratic national committee, gave out the following list of states with the electoral vote, a total of 312, which he claimed for the President: Alabama 12, Arizona 3, Arkansas 9, California 13, Colorado 6, Delaware 3, Florida 6, Georgia 14, Idaho 4, Indiana 15, Kentucky 13, Louisiana 10, Maryland 8, Minnesota 12, Mississippi 10, Missouri 18, Montana 4, Nebraska 8, Nevada 3, New Hampshire 4, New Mexico 3, North Carolina 12, Ohio 24, Oklahoma 10, South Carolina 9, Tennessee 12, Texas 20, Utah 4, Virginia 12, Washington 7, West Virginia 8, Wisconsin 13, Wyoming 3.

G. O. P. Nominee Leads Wilson in Home State

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 8.—Hughes' early plurality of 22,634 over Wilson with 777 districts missing was reduced to 9,196 with the receipt of returns from 31 of those missing districts.

The President's total vote with 462 missing districts is 184,660; Hughes', 195,556.

WILSON AHEAD IN N. DAKOTA

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 8.—President Wilson's lead over Charles E. Hughes in North Dakota increased slightly early to-day when additional reports on yesterday's election were received from the rural districts. At the present ratio Wilson's plurality would be about 4,000.

WILSON AHEAD IN MISSOURI

St. Louis, Nov. 8.—Returns from 2,476 out of 2489 precincts in Missouri give Wilson 268,973; Hughes 254,304.

STOCKS REGISTER NEW HIGH MARKS

Broad and Active Undertone Despite Uncertainty of Race

New York, Nov. 8.—Despite the uncertainty of the result of the general election the stock market opened to-day with a strong broad and active undertone in which some new high records were registered.

Advances ranged from 1 to 2 points in United States Steel, Lackawanna Steel, Pressed Steel Car, Central Leather, American Locomotive, International Paper, Crucible Steel and several of the leading railroads.

Steel's opening comprised a block of twenty thousand shares at 124 1/2 to 124 with one small lot selling to 125. Later the stock reached to 122 3/8.

The attendance on the floor was the largest in many months while crowds in the offices of the leading commission houses bore strong evidence on the widespread interest of speculators.

Houses with distance wire connections reported an overnight accumulation of buying orders chiefly from the West and Southwest where large sums were reported to have been wagered on the success of the Democratic ticket.

Buying of this character was equalized however, by heavy offerings of local trading orders which expressed apprehension regarding the final outcome of the contest.

Declines of 1 to 3 points followed the strong opening, this in turn being followed by another upward movement in which most losses were regained. Sales in the first half hour were roughly estimated at 300,000 shares.

MR. SEITZ IMPROVING Blood Clot on Optic Nerve of City's Legal Adviser Cuts Off Half His Eyesight

Reports of the condition of City Solicitor D. S. Seitz were decidedly more favorable to-day although the municipality's legal adviser is still suffering considerable pain at his home, 1211 North Second street. According to Postmaster Frank C. Sices, the solicitor's brother-in-law, Mr. Seitz is suffering from blood clot at the base of his brain which is pressing on the optic nerve. This has served to cut off half the sight of each eye. The slightest vibration of sound intensifies the pain.
