

ELECTION IS STILL IN DOUBT WITH RESULTS VERY CLOSE

DAUPHIN COUNTY FOR HUGHES WITH 2,418 PLURALITY

Senator Beidleman Who Leads Local Ticket Gets 4,592 Over Opponent

KREIDER IS RE-ELECTED

McCormick Fails to Carry Precinct, Ward, City or State

Dauphin county, which gave a majority to Colonel Theodore Roosevelt four years ago, swung into the Republican column yesterday with a plurality of 2,418 for Charles Evans Hughes and a plurality of 4,592 for Senator Edward E. Beidleman who led his ticket. All of the Republican candidates in the city and county won, with the exception of Augustus Wildman, who was defeated by Ramsey Black, Democrat, for one of the city's legislative seats in a close fight.

Much interest was attached to the vote in Dauphin county throughout the State because of the fact that it is the home county of the Democratic national chairman, who, by the way, failed to get a majority for Wilson in his precinct, his ward, his city, his county or his State. Another thing which caused unusual interest in Dauphin county was the strenuous effort made by the Democrats to win over the Progressives, who seem to have preferred the advice of Roosevelt to that of McCormick.

Congressman Aaron S. Kreider who was re-elected by a substantial majority, carried Dauphin county, including Harrisburg city which gave him a fine vote, received a splendid testimonial from his neighbors in Lebanon and a good vote in Cumberland.

Justice Emory A. Walling, who had the endorsement of the Dauphin county lawyers, was loyally supported not only in Dauphin but in the other counties of this district. Returns indicate that the vote for him in the State will run many thousands above that for Charles Falmer.

Vote For President

Justice Hughes carried both the city and the county having a total of 6,551 votes in the city and 7,306 in the county, an aggregate of 13,857. Wilson had 6,041 votes in the city, and 5,395 in the county, a total of 11,439. Benson, Socialist, had 320 in the city, 505 in the county, a total of 825 and Hanly, Prohibition, got 195 in Harrisburg and 213 in the county, a total of 408.

By far the most interesting contest in the county was that for State senator. Dr. William N. Yates, of the Washington party candidate who was running on a local option platform, was a poor third despite the fact that he had the covert support of the newspaper of the Democratic national chairman. Owing to this fact Alderman George D. Herbert's friends consider that he made a remarkable showing, having 4,249 votes in the city and 4,095 in the county, or a total of 8,344 as compared with 2,286 for Yates in the city and 1,318 in the county, a total of 3,604.

Senator Beidleman simply walked away with his two opponents, having a vote of 6,253 in Harrisburg and 6,943 in the county outside, a grand total of 13,196. This gives him a plurality of 4,592 and a clear margin over all of 1,248. The Senator will be re-elected president pro tem of the State Senate in January.

For United States Senator — Philander C. Knox polled 6,755 votes in the city and 6,405 in the county, a total of 13,160 as compared with 6,191 votes for Ellis L. Orvis, the Democratic candidate in the county, 4,360 in the city, a total of 10,551.

Senator Charles A. Snyder, who is a native of the upper end of Dauphin county, won a fine vote in the city and county, having 6,985 in the city and 6,967 in the county, a total of 13,952. James Murrin, his rival for Auditor General, received 4,780 votes in the city and 4,597 in the county—a total of 9,377.

Harmon M. Kephart, for State Treasurer, polled a total of 13,556 in the county, the city giving him 6,671 and the county districts and boroughs 6,885. James M. Cramer, Democratic candidate, had a total of 10,361, the city giving 5,644 and the county outside 4,717.

The vote for Congressman Kreider in Harrisburg was 6,300 and in the county districts 6,737, a total of 13,037, as compared with 5,727 in Harrisburg and 4,821 in the county for H. B. Sausseman, his Democratic rival. Sausseman got a total of 10,548.

The Republican Congressmen-at-large carried the county by figures approximating those of Kreider. Justice Walling's vote in the city was 5,388 and in the county 4,063, a total of 9,451. Charles Palmer received 3,927 in the city and 2,938 in the county, or 6,865 all told.

Legislative Contest

The votes for the candidates for the Legislature in the two districts was as follows:

First, or City District
Black, Democrat, 6,640; Werner, Democrat, 5,490; Swartz, Republican, 3,098; Wildman, Republican, 2,364.

Second, or County District
Bechtold, Republican, 6,937; Ush, Republican, 6,680; Martin, Democrat

ELECTION CROWDS FILL STREETS ALL NIGHT AND TODAY

Nearly as Many Watch Bulletins as Kept Eye on "Screen"

Lack of decisive reports on the outcome of the presidential fight kept a whole city on the qui vive and the Telegraph bulletins were watched all day as eagerly as were the Telegraph screen with their flashing returns last night.

When Harrisburg went to bed last night it felt reasonably certain that the day had been won by the Republicans and that Charles Evans Hughes had been elected to the presidential chair. The earliest dispatches of the day seemed to confirm—until reports from the "doubtful" Western States with their Republican margin clipping

BISHOP McDOWELL TO BE HERE SATURDAY

All the ministers of the Central Pennsylvania Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church have been invited to the "long table" table d'hôte luncheon to be served in the Grace Methodist Church at the noon hour on Saturday. The speaker will be Bishop William F. McDowell, of Washington, D. C. His topic will be "The Pennsylvania Convention of Methodist Men." The following local arrangements committee will have charge of the gathering: H. B. Dickson, James W. Barker, Dr. John D. Fox, Charles W. Burnett, Dr. J. H. McLaughlin, and Thur Bacon.

EARLY RETURNS INDICATED LONG DRAWN OUT FIGHT

New York, Nov. 8.—The result of the election still was officially in doubt to-day.

Upon doubtful States from which the returns are slowly coming depends whether Mr. Wilson has been re-elected or whether the net President of the United States will be Charles E. Hughes.

Chairmen of both national committees claimed handsome majorities in the electoral college for their candidate but the actual figures early to-day made good the claims of neither. They did however, show a steady trend toward President Wilson all through the west.

Aside from the uncertainty of the result the most remarkable thing about the election was the sudden wiping out of the Hughes majorities

SCHOOL LOAN AND JIT CHANGES WIN WITH BIG TOTALS

People Authorize Borrowing of $1,250,000 For Better High Schools

Harrisburg may have gone to bed late last night or early this morning decidedly perplexed as to whether Mr. Hughes or Mr. Wilson is to be President of the United States but it had no doubt at all as to the question of the two important city problems.

The $1,250,000 high school loan was passed by the comfortable majority of nearly 2200. Just 6549 votes were cast for the loan and 4363 against it.

The amendment to the jitney ordinance, the first try-out of the initiative movement in Pennsylvania, was carried by nearly a thousand. Just

3 OF 5 DISTRICTS ON WEST SHORE FOR HIGH SCHOOL Measure

West Fairview and East Pennsboro Swamp Measure

Although only passed by three of five voting districts, the West Shore Central High School may be a possibility. Whether or not Lemoyne, Camp Hill, and Wormleysburg, the districts that passed the loans in their respective towns will proceed with a joint school for these districts is now up to the boards. West Fairview and East Pennsboro swapped the measure by a large majority.

The lower precinct of East Pennsboro township passed the project by a large majority but was smothered by the vote of the upper end of the district.

WILSON HAS BEST OF IT, IS ESTIMATE

New York, Nov. 8.—At 7.45 o'clock tonight President Wilson had taken the lead in California and in Minnesota, the acquisition of either of which to his column would insure his election, barring unexpected losses from states now accredited to him as reasonably sure. However, Oregon and North Dakota were slipping from him and late returns showed his lead in Minnesota being cut down.

CUTTING DOWN WILSONS LEAD

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 8. — When 2,005 of the 3,024 precincts in Minnesota had reported at 6 p. m. Wilson's vote was 141,921; Hughes 136,952, showing a continued decrease in the President's lead.

WASHINGTON INCOMPLETE

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 8. — Returns from 1,471 precincts of 2,355 in Washington give Hughes 107,394; Wilson 115,008.

HUGHES LEADS IN WEST VA.

Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 8. — Returns from 1,060 precincts out of 1,713 in West Virginia give Hughes 87,697; Wilson 85,161; 412 precincts for Governor give Robinson (R) 85,884; Cornwell (D) 86,045; 145 precincts for U. S. Senator give Sutherland (R) 87,534; Chilton (D) 81,328.

WILSON LEADS IN CALIFORNIA

San Francisco, Nov. 8. — Woodrow Wilson took the lead in California at 4 p. m. to-day. Returns available at that hour from 4,306 out of 5,910 precincts in California gave Hughes 327,657; Wilson 339,195.

MINN. GIVES WILSON LEAD

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 8. — Returns on President from 1,496 out of 3,024 precincts in Minnesota gave Wilson 138,796; Hughes 132,788.

MISSOURI FOR WILSON

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 8. — 2,666 precincts out of 3,459 in Missouri give Wilson 322,822; Hughes 307,556; 2,649 precincts give Gardner (D) for Governor 316,707; Lamm 313,975; 2,487 out of 3,459 precincts give Reed (D) for U. S. Senator 327,233; Dickey, (D), 305,230.

KANSAS FOR WILSON

Kansas City, Kan., Nov. 8. — Returns from 1,665 out of 2,474 Kansas precincts give Wilson 217,156; Hughes 192,990. Returns from 1,489 State precincts in the race for Governor

ELECTION RETURNS AT 7 P. M.

St. Paul, Minn.—Returns on President from 1,945 out of 3,024 precincts in Minnesota give Wilson 138,439; Hughes 132,929.

The Presidential election result remains in doubt. States in doubt are California with Hughes leading; Minnesota with Wilson leading; West Virginia, Oregon, South Dakota and New Mexico.

San Francisco.—4,226 precincts out of 5,917 in California gives Hughes 330,626; Wilson 323,896.

St. Paul, Minn. — Wilson's lead over Hughes in Minnesota dropped to 5,792 late to-day when returns from 1,865 precincts out of 3,024 in the State gave Wilson 134,737 and Hughes 128,944.

New York — Democratic headquarters announced at 5.40 o'clock their returns showed that New Hampshire had been carried by Wilson by 159 votes.

New York. — Republican National Chairman Wilcox claimed at 6 o'clock to-night that North Dakota had been carried by Hughes.

Charleston, W. Va. — Returns from 993 precincts out of 1,713 in West Virginia give Hughes 81,273; Wilson 80,657.

Fargo, N. D. — In 1,231 precincts out of 1,859 in North Dakota Wilson polled 31,104 votes and Hughes 32,519.

Portland, Ore. — Eight hundred seventy-four out of 1,639 Oregon precincts give Hughes 51,590; Wilson 47,110.

San Francisco. — With 652 complete precincts counted out of a total of 684 Wilson was leading Hughes by 12,500 in San Francisco. The Republican Central Committee concedes San Francisco to Wilson by about 15,000. City of Stockton complete gives Wilson 6,694; Hughes 4,316.

Sioux Falls, S. D. — Incomplete returns from 1,408 precincts out of 1,728 in the State late to-day indicate Hughes is maintaining his slight lead over Wilson. The latest figures are Hughes 41,949; Wilson 37,349.

Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 8.—Returns from 995 precincts out of 1713 in West Virginia give Hughes 49,771; Wilson 45,795.

San Francisco, Nov. 8.—3414 precincts out of 5917 in California give Hughes 269,926; Wilson 252,993.
