MISS OWERS WILL SPEAK TO CLUB

Industrial Secretary on Movement Toward Democracy in the Y. W. C. A.

The next regular meeting of the Commonweal Club will be held on Monday evening, November 13, at 7:45 p. m. in the John Y. Boyd Hall of the Young Women's Christian Association.

Miss Anna X. Owers, Industrial Secretary of the East Central Field Committee of the National Board of the Young Women's Christian Association, will address the club on the "Movement Toward Democracy in the Y. W. C. A." The Association has accomplished great things in the past, is doing splendid work in the present and hopes for greater achievements in the future. It is the purpose of Miss Owers to tell about the wonderful spirit at work in the hearts of the people which will make the dreams for the future come true. All who are interested in the work of the Young Women's Christian Association are cordially invited to hear Miss Owers next Monday evening.

Those present at the organization meeting of the Commonweal Club last December will recall the valuable assistance rendered by Miss Owers and it is hoped that all of the members will be present at the meeting on Monday evening to express to her their appreciation of her excellent service to the Club. An informal reception will be held for a few minutes immediately after the lecture in order that the members may have an opportunity of personally meeting Miss Owers.

Miss Laura Holmquist of the Department of Methods of the Y. W. C. A. National Board will be in the city Monday and also speak informally at the meeting of the Commonweal Club. The classes will start promptly at 9 o'clock.

Miss Helen May Batten Bride of Paul J. Hoover

Mr. and Mrs. George Batten, of 615 Madison street, announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Helen May Batten, to Paul J. Hoover, of 654 Schuykill house, at 9 o'clock this morning at Augsburg Lutheran Church by the Rev. Amos M. Starnes the ring ceremony being held in the church parlors and Sunday school rooms next Thursday and Friday evenings.

"The House of the Seven Gables" is to be erected early in the week in the Sunday school room of the church. It is going to be a quaint sort of spot, filled with fascinating surprises from attic to kitchen. Many beautiful things will fill the house—things to eat, things to wear, things for the worth while to hear and see.

On Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock a free concert will be given to all who attend by the Imperial Mandolin Club. Friday evening, from 5:00 to 7:45 o'clock, a supper is to be served. Refreshments both evenings will be served on the great porch of "The House of the Seven Gables."

Comrades in Service Meet With Miss Keefer

The Comrades in Service of the Market Square Church will hold their November meeting at the home of Miss Caroline R. Keefer, 1631 North Front street, this evening. Miss Katherine McFarland, the president, will preside.

The topic of this month, is the work of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Norton among the Belgian soldiers in the trenches. Miss Susan Thompson, Miss Trudell Lindley, Miss Minerva Van Horn, Miss Mildred Shupp and Miss Lillian Speckman will be present to discuss the subject. Miss Georgiana Weikle will conclude the subject with a brief talk. Many members are expected to attend.

R. U. L. BAL-MASQUE CARDS OUT FOR NEXT THURSDAY

Invitations have been issued by the R. U. L. Club for a Bal-Masque Thursday evening November 16, at Winterdale hall. The hall will be decorated in palms and Japanese lanterns and everything in keeping up with a gay masquerade. Dancing will start at 8:30 with the Morgan nine-piece orchestra playing. From indications this will be the "best ever" and a large attendance is anticipated.

Mrs. Mary Gerdes, Riverside, and Mrs. Peter Groff, 68 North Eighteenth street, spent yesterday in Columbia visiting friends.

Mrs. Edgar McClintock of the Hubley Apartments, 508 North Third street, has returned home after visiting relatives in Columbia.

TAKING PLEASURE TRIP

CELEBRATE PENNA. DAY AT CENTRAL

Harrisburg Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution Makes Awards

The large audience gathered this afternoon in the Central High school chapel for the annual Pennsylvania Day exercises showed the interest manifested in the essay contest of Harrisburg Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution. On the platform, gay with flags and flowers were seated the officers of the chapter of which Miss Cora Lee Snyder is regent; members of the prize committee including Miss Anne U. Wert, Mrs. David S. Funk and Mrs. Douglas E. Dismukes and the principal of the school, H. G. Dibble who welcomed the visitors and announced the program.

The Rev. Alvin S. Williams, pastor of the Camp Curtin Memorial Methodist church made the opening prayer after a selection by the High school orchestra under the direction of George W. Updegrave. The high school choir and the Senior Girls' Glee club led by Edward G. Rose each sang delightfully and there were two patriotic hymns by the audience.

The essays this year, the twentieth by the way, that the D. A. R. chapter has offered these prizes, were on "Children of the American Revolution" and most of the girls of the Senior class competed. The prize-winners were Miss Lydia Weigel, $10 in gold from the chapter; Miss Margaret Koster, $5 in gold from the regent; Miss Snyder, and Miss Laura Bretz, $2.50 in gold from Mrs. S. J. McCarrall, the registrar. The gifts presented by Miss Anne U. Wert after the papers had been read, were in blue boxes monogrammed in silver, with ribbons of the D. A. R. colors of blue and silver.

Columbia Medallions

Copied from your own pictures. Your picture unharmed! 47c

It behoves you to bear in mind, that in this, the age of commerce, gold will purchase most that the heart holds dear; but not everything. It is a thought worth remembering that your friends can buy anything you can give them except—your medallion. Christmas is coming!

DON'T DELAY. Obey that impulse—bring in your picture at once. Don't postpone! It requires two weeks' time to fill orders. Columbia Medallions are a dainty gift, bound with love and affection, to give as a Christmas gift. And they cost only 47c.

Ladies, What Is Your Impression of Bloom's?

Do you picture Bloom's as the Exclusive Style Shop we've tried to make it? Let us tell you WHY it is Exclusive! We never "over buy"; our weekly trips to New York's style centers makes over-buying unnecessary. While our stocks are comparatively large, you'll find no duplicate styles; each garment is exclusive in itself. Personal fitting and our direct buying methods gives you the advantage of price saving on all garments.

The New York trip this week revealed some unusual styles in Ladies' and Misses' Coats, Suits and Dresses—styles that have never before been shown in Harrisburg. It will be a pleasure to show them to you, and demonstrate the values on this allotment of garments.
