Commission Asks

Just Who Is Who The Public Service Commission will inquire of the United Business Men's Association of Philadelphia just who does represent it in the proceedings against the commutation rates of the Pennsylvania and Reading railroads in vicinity of Philadelphia.

The commission has been getting numerous letters from peolpe declaring the are interestted, E. B. Martin asserting he is counsel and Mirwin M. Abbott saying the same thing. Mr. Abbott's letter is signed also by Messrs. Piteairn and Childs. Counsel for the Germantown and Chestnut Hill Associations have set forth that they want to be considered separately.

Th Mr. Abbott's letter he says he acts by instructions of the president of the association and while accepting the reading proposition objects to that of the Pennsylvania. Mr. Martin does not accept either.

An interesting program has been arranged for the men's Sunday afternoon meeting at the P. R. R. Y. M. C. A. Tomorrow afternoon Ira P. Dean, religious secretary, will give his first of a series of illustrated talks. It will be something new in the way of a song service. The latest gospel songs will be considered to the series of the seri

FRENCH COMMENT ON ELECTION

Paris, Nov. 11.— The newspapers, while printing the news of the American election in a prominent position, express little opinion as to the result, What comment there is is sympathetic to President Wilson.
