What Subsoiling Did

This corn was grown on worn out land at the Experiment Farm at Brookhaven, Miss. All of it was planted and cultivated the same way, at the same time. The ground on the left was untreated; that on the right was subsoiled—blasted and roken up four feet deep and thus restored to fertility. By using

Thomas Dixon and Victor Herbert's dramatic spectacle with music, "The House of A Nation," will be shown next in its imaginative prophecy of America's future against the background of the European struggle and in the full view of all the besetting national problems. The author faces the welter of all the forces working in our national iffe-liberty, foreign ties, peace propagande, militarism, suffragism, imperialism—and pictures their combination in a world-shaking catalcysm. The outcome forms a surprising denoment, in which women assume a tending part in the country's enancepain. The nation," which is inswings over to the path of righteous-

In booking "The Fall of a Nation" at the Regent for next Monday and Tuesday, the management has been careful to select an acting piece of great merit as well as a lavishly staged spectacle. There are four roles of capital importance and they are entrusted to Arthur Shirley, Lorraine Huling, Percy Standing and Flora MacDonald.

Thomas Dixon, author and producer of "The Fall of a Nation," is emphatic on one point—that his preparedness spectacle is not anti-anything, but pro-American.
