Gettysburg to Meet Bucknell in Annual Battle; Both Teams Fast

One week from to-day this city will be the Mecca for the followers of football, when the Gettysburg College sleven will battle with the Bucknell warriors on the Island gridiron. Both institutions will send their student body, and in addition the old "grads" will be on hand to assist in encouraging the contestants. Never in recent years has the spirit been so intense as it is now.

Bucknell is counting on defeating Gettysburg again, but they consider the two teams as evenly matched. Gettysburg is preparing to wipe out the defeats of former years, and they will seek revenge to the limit. Year after year, Bucknell has triumphed over the Battlefield eleven because the latter could not withstand the pace set by the Lewisburgians.

over the Battlefield eleven because the latter could not withstand the pace set by the Lewisburgians.

Gettysburg Is Fast
This year Gettysburg is in pink condition. They not only have a well balanced team, but they have a well balanced team, but they have an eleven, which is especially apt in the aerial attack. Coach Berryman has an agsregation which can consistently execute long and short passes and when necessary can use straight football to an advantage. Although Gettysburg will have but few veterans in its line-up, and will greatly feel the loss of such men as "Bear Cat" Sheffer, "Toppy" Hoar, Buehler, Weigle and McCollough, nevertheless it will present one of the most formidable elevens ever sent upon the Island field.

Lewisburg Is Strong
The Bucknell team is an eleven of no mean ability and can be depended upon to play its best game against Gettysburg. The Lewisburg boys will have the advantage in having a team, the majority of whom are veterans. Captain Peale, Cockill, Banks, Baker, White, McDermott, Hendren, Hopler and Lawrence, have all had at least one season's experience, and, knowing how to fight, can be depended upon to turn the tide of victory in favor of Bucknell.

Reading. Pa., Nov. 11. — William B. Eckert's recent acquisition, the chestnut gelding Billy M., 2:03 %, by Newton Boy, died yesterday from pneumonia. The Eckert pacer contracted a heavy cold while being shipped to the Hillsgrove, R. I., meeting, which was later declared off. The gelding's condition improved, but a relapse yesterday ended in death. Several years ago Billy M was considered a sensation of the Grand Circuit, and this year he raced over the twice-arounds, winning every race until the York fair, where the Canadian sidewheeler Hal B., Jr., after three gruelling heats, lowered Billy M.'s colors.

It was after this race that William B. Eckert of this city, who also owns Peter Stevens, 2:014; Sellers D. 2:06 %, and Queen Hal. 2:114, purchased Billy M. He had intended racing these four fivers over the half; mile tracks next season. Sellers D and Queen Hal raced at Chorlotte, N. C., this week.

Harry Hough Is Sensation:

Wins Victory For Jasper

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 11. — Harry Hough, the little demon of all basketball players, showed a big crowdlast night that he was far from being "all in" when he made one of his famous sensational dribbles and equally sensational backboard shots, which gave Jasper a victory over Greystock by the score of 28 to 27. Hough not only tossed virtually the winning goal, but he was opposed to Ray Cross and gave the latter his shutout of the season. It was a fast and exciting game from start to finish and with the lead switching so much and the score tied nine times, the rooters of both teams had plenty to enthuse them.

Probable Line-up
After the two hard practices this week the team work and passing is much improved and a number of new plays and formations will be tried in Saturday evening's game. Both teams will line-up as follows:

The Harrisburg Independents this season will play more games away from home. The interscholastic series will open soon. Teams will line up for practice soon after Thanksgiving day.

In booking the St. Elizabeth quintet of Philadelphia, the management of the Harrisburg Independents secured a strong attraction. The team is made up of former league stars. The Quakers have not had much chance to show real form but promise to give the locals a lively battle tonight.

In a ten-round battle at St. Paul last night Mike Gibbons outpointed Jack Dillon. Dillon had the best of three of the rounds but Gibbons was fighting all the time.
