NOTABLE PEOPLE AT SADLER BURIAL

Funeral Services of Adjutant General of New Jersey Held at Carlisle This Afternoon

Carlisle, Pa., Nov. 12.—The funeral obsequies for New Jersey's adjutant-general, Wilbur Flisk Sadler, Jr., which were held this afternoon from the Thornebold residence of the deceased's brother, Lewis S. Sadler, here, were the most notable of such ceremonies held in this historic town since the nation honored Colonel Robert McGaw, the hero of the defense of Fort Washington, over a century ago.

The ceremonies, which were brief, and which were conducted by the Rev. Dr. William B. Eddy, of St. Michael's Episcopal Church, of Trenton, N. J., of which General Sadler was a vestryman, began at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, following the arrival of a special train bearing thirty honorary pallbearers from official New Jersey life. Included among them were Governor Fielder and staff, consisting of Major Nelson B. Gaskill, acting adjutant-general; Colonel Frank M. Taylor, Hackensack; Colonel William M. Libby, Princeton; Colonel William G. Schaeffer, Lakewood; Colonel George F. Perkins, Jersey City; Colonel Sackett M. Dickinson, Trenton; Colonel Austin Colgate, Orange; Chancellor Edwin Robert Walker, Justice Thomas W. Trenchard, Mayor Frederick W. Donnelly, O. O. Bowman, James J. Wilson, A. Crozier Reeves, John W. Cornell, Edwin M. Thorne, James Kearney, Newton A. K. Bueby, Carl G. Roebeling, Trenton; Judge Nelson V. Dungan, Somerville; United States Senator-elect Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, Somerville; ex-Governor John Franklin Fort, Newark; State Treasurer William T. Read, Camden; ex-Senator Ernest R. Ackerman, Plainfield; Sidney M. Colgate, Jersey City; Colonel Oscar H. Condit, Orange; Richard T. Elkits, Philadelphia; John M. Dickinson, New York City; Moorhead C. Kennedy, Chambersburg; and Spencer C. Gilbert, Harrisburg.

The midday trains to Carlisle brought many men of distinction in national, state and business affairs in general. General Sadler's connections with nearly two score traction companies and financial concerns of importance had made for him wide personal connections, as was evidenced by the large number of his personal and family friends who came here to attend the funeral. He was a member of the Theta Delta Chi fraternity and belonged to the Markham Club, Philadelphia, as well as several Trenton and metropolitan clubs. He was a leader and active in National Guard organizations.

Telegrams were received by the family from President Wilson and many other prominent people throughout the country. The floral tributes to General Sadler's memory surpassed anything ever seen in this part of Pennsylvania. A special car on the train was filled with blooms and scores of packages came by express and from local florists. Burial was made in the family plot in Ashland Cemetery.

Does Your Husband Drink? Druggist Tells How to Cure the Liquor Habit at Home

Free Prescription Can Be Filled At Any Drug Store and Given Secretly

H. J. Brown, 409 West Superior Ave., Cleveland, Ohio, was for many years a confirmed drunkard. His friends and relatives despaired of ever redeeming him. His sister sought the best medical men in Europe in the hope that she might find something which would cure him. Finally she was recommended to an eminent chemist who gave her a private formula (the same as appears below) and told her to use it. She had it filled at the drug store and gave it to him secretly. The results were startling. In a few weeks he was completely cured. That was over eight years ago and he has not touched a drop since. He is now occupying a position of trust and is enthusiastic in his efforts to help others overcome the liquor habit. He feels that he can best do this by making public the same formula which cured him. Here is the prescription: Go to any first class drug store and get 14 Teacup powders. Drop one powder twice a day, in coffee, tea or any liquid. It is harmless, tasteless, odorless and cannot be detected. You can use it without the knowledge of anyone. A lady who recently tried it on her husband reports: "My husband was on a spree when I got the powder, and he usually stays drunk from three to four weeks at a time. After putting the powder in his coffee for four days, he sobered up and has not taken a drink since and says he is through with it forever. He also complained that whiskey did not taste the same. I shall not tell him what did it, but I am grateful for this help and I shall recommend it whenever possible."

NOTE—A leading druggist when shown the above article said: "Yes, teacup is a very remarkable remedy for the liquor habit. It is harmless, wonderfully effective and has a long, successful sale. I advise everyone who wishes to destroy the liquor habit to give it a trial." It is sold in this city by H. C. Kennedy, and all other first class druggists, who guarantee it to do the work or refund the money.—Advertisement.
