MAJESTIC—Vaudeville. COLONIAL—"The Straight Way." REGENT—"The Fall of a Nation." VICTORIA—"Without a Soul."

"The Straight Way," the new William Fox feature booked for the Colonial Theater to-day, is at the Colonial the seventh picture which will be shown. It has been directed for the Fox Company. Among the best known of his former successes are "Dr. Rameau" and "Sianger." In this new play Miss Suratt wears many new fashions of late fashion, and a vital defect in the plot makes everything end happily, and the family is reunited. A new play, "The Fall of a Nation," will be shown Wednesday and Thursday. Norma Talmadge will be seen in a new play based on the matrimonial problem, "Fifty-Fifty," which demonstrates that what is good for the goose is good for the gander.

Large and appreciative audiences witnessed this morning and this afternoon "The Fall of a Nation," one of the greatest productions that have ever come to Harrisburg, and will be vacant at the commodious Regent. "The Fall of a Nation" will also be shown to-morrow. In New York, where it showed at $2 at the Regent Theater, the greatest spectacle was the means of many thousands of patriotic Americans, who came to see the play to the echo. Thomas Dixon's play (as likewise Victor Herbert's accompanying music) is a stirring and stirring Americanism. The author describes it as "A bugle call to arms for the national defense." The story is an imaginary invasion of the United States by a foreign power. After the defeat of our puny army by means of a secret, oath-bound conspiracy contrive to expel the invaders.

The cast includes Arthur Shirley, Lorraine Hulins, Percy Standing and Flora MacDonald. As for Miss MacDonald, she is undoubtedly the greatest emotional actress that the "silent drama" has disclosed in many a day. Her depiction of Angela, the Italian girl-mother and cavalry messenger of the Daughters of Jeol, was praised by the critics from New York, Chicago and Los Angeles critics.

The admission price will be from 10 a. m. till 6 p. m. Lower floor, adults, 15 cents; children, 10 cents; balcony, 10 cents. Evening prices: Lower floor, adults, 25 cents; children, 15 cents; balcony, 15 cents. Hours of the showing of "The Fall of a Nation" will be: 10:15 a. m., 12:15, 2:15, 4:15, 6:15, 8:15 and 10:15 p. m.

The Majestic's headline attraction the first half of the week of Harrisburg and vicinity were lacking in the "Town Hall Follies," a rural revue that is said to be one big laugh from start to finish. There are eight people in the company, headed by Eugene Emmett, and all put forth their best efforts to make the act as enjoyable as possible. The song numbers at an introduced were written by Bobbie Heath, who appeared at this theater last week, and are said to be among the most popular songs of the day. An added attraction on the bill is Kennedy and Burt, young couple who offer a lively comedy entitled "Engaged—Married—Divorced." Leo Beers, "Vaudeville's Distinctive Entertainer," in a very entertaining singing and piano act; Mintz and Wertz, clever acrobats, and Barrett and Opp, presenting a military comedy skit "On the Border," round out the roster.

If any evidence were necessary to show that the people of Harrisburg and vicinity were lacking in the appreciation of the Gluck world's supreme artist, it Concert has been dispelled, for the reception which everywhere greets Mme. Alma Gluck awaits her appearance at the Chestnut Street Auditorium on Wednesday evening next. The sale of seats has been unprecedented, and the management has been compelled to arrange for extra seats to supply the increasing demand. These will be placed on sale to-day, and as the supply is limited, it will be necessary to call early. A very few of the regular seats remain, and these are likely to be sold before the concert. The popular numbers Mme. Gluck will sing on this occasion has created widespread interest, and all the towns within fifty miles of Harrisburg will be represented.

"A Full House," the farce by Fred Jackson, which ran for six months in New York, will be packed at 7:15 p. m. "A Full House" night, it received a degree of praise from the usually severe metropolitan critics in terms that almost exhausted the superlatives. There has been no dissenting opinion as to the ingenuity of the fantastic idea on which the plot is based, and the swift movement and comic intensity of the details make an endless entertainment of rarely enjoyable fun. This is the first visit of this successful farce to Harrisburg, and playgoers will have an opportunity of witnessing a really good entertainment at bargain prices.

"MUTT AND JEFF'S WEDDING" It's enough to simply announce the coming of "Mutt and Jeff's Wedding" and the house will be packed as it always is when But Fisher's brain folks come to town. The manager of the Orpheum is not kidding you when he advises you to get your seats well in advance, and disappointment at the box office. It will be here Wednesday, matinee and night.

Burton Holmes will begin his twenty-fourth season of travels in this city this coming week with "Canada Coast" as the subject with "Begins" which he will inaugurate next Monday. This is the most successful season of his entire career. "Canada—Coast to Coast" pictures a land of limitless possibilities; it lures the traveler with the prices of a transcontinental journey unsurpassed in all the realm of travel. Burton Holmes crossed Canada from coast to coast last summer and his opening travels are the result of his many weeks of experienced sight-seeing and artistic picture-making.

THE HOOVER SUCTION SWEEPER

It's the only electric carpet sweeper and vacuum cleaner combined

Air-cleaning isn't enough. Air suction can't dislodge threads, hair, lint, adhering to the nap of your rugs. Air suction cannot get out the dirt and dust that's imbedded in the body of your floor covering.

The Hoover—with its patented electric brush—sweeps up all lint, hair and thread and shakes to the surface the imbedded grit—so that the air suction carries away all the dirt and leaves your rugs absolutely clean.

Don't half clean—get the best when you buy your electric cleaner—see The Hoover now—special demonstration being held right on the fourth floor.
