"OVERCOAT - FAIR"

No one mind could possibly conceive, nor any one tailoring establishment execute all the style variation which we must carry to satisfy a patronage so large as ours. For to this great store come men from every walk of life, from every business, trade and profession—and more of them by far than to any clothing store in Central Pennsylvania—each with his own preference; each with his own idea of what price he wants to pay.

Those who visited "DOUTRICHS" during the past week were amazed at the enormous number of Overcoats they saw here — more astonished still that we were selling them at prices no higher than last year. And the Overcoats themselves—examples of the finest tailoring and fabrics in America. There was great satisfaction on the faces of many of the purchasers because the "Doutrich" name on the label of the garment guaranteed the genuineness of the value.

Come here and choose your "overcoat"—for here is the cream of the world's finest merchandise in greater quantities and wider varieties than anywhere else. Here is expert, interested, helpful service that insists upon only one thing — YOUR Complete and lasting satisfaction.
