ROTE WINS GAME FOR GETTYSBURG

Scores All Points Against Bucknell on Saturday; Emanuel Another Local Star

Gettysburg for four years has been trying to take Bucknell's scalp. They did it Saturday, winning over the Bucknell team by a score of 17 to 0. This annual game has been a regular football classic for this city since 1912. Heretofore Bucknell has had an easy thing with the battled boys.

Things were different in Saturday's battle. There was a Harrisburg boy in the Gettysburg line-up. His name is Rote. While Gettysburg played a fast and aggressive game, Rote was the whole thing, scoring all of the seven points. Rote went out of the game near the finish with slight injuries.

Rote Scores Early
The game was called at 2:40 o'clock and ten minutes later Rote crossed the Bucknell line for the first score of the game. He later kicked the goal. Two minutes before the close of the first half Rote again scored a touchdown by zigzagging his way through the whole Bucknell team. In the second half, with the assistance of Captain Stratton and Halfback Moyer, Rote kept the ball in Bucknell territory by successive end runs, off tackle and line plunges. The Bucknell line held and Rote kicked a field goal, the last score of the game. Captain Stratton and Emanuel pulled off a nice forward pass in last quarter. Time prevented a touchdown. The line-up and summary.

CHANGE ATHLETE WITH DEATH
London, Ont., Nov. 20.—Edward McKay, prominent locally as an athlete before he joined the British flyers corps, was responsible for the death of Captain Boelke, the noted German aviator. So said a letter received here today from the British front. McKay and another aviator, the communication said, routed a squadron of twelve German airplanes and by clever maneuvering caused the last two of them to collide. One of them, which fell to the ground, carried Captain Boelke.

Another Yale Cripple Is Back in Line

SHELDON OF YALE

Chub Sheldon, Yale's tackle, who was reported to be out of the game for the rest of the season because of an attack of inflammatory rheumatism is back in the line to-day. It was said that he may be able to play in the Yale-Harvard game. If he does the varsity will be greatly strengthened. Sheldon is one of several Yale "cripples" who have appeared on the field for service in the past several days.

WILLIAMS IS RUN WINNER
Boston, Mass., Nov. 20.—Williams College on Saturday won the annual New England intercollegiate cross-country championship, defeating University of Maine, last year's winner, and six other colleges. H. H. Brown, of Williams, was the individual leader over the 5-mile course in Franklin Park, finishing in 23:35.2.5. The competing colleges, with their standing by points, were: Williams, 53; Maine, 56; Dartmouth, 58; Massachusetts Institute of Technology, 103; Worcester Polytechnic Institute, 126; Bates and Brown tied at 148 each; Massachusetts Agricultural College, 193. Bowdoin and Colby, which had entered teams, did not start. Williams' victory was unexpected, as Maine was the favorite. Brown, the individual winner, conserved his strength well and in the last half-mile showed the burst of speed which carried him to victory.

TO FIGHT FOR OUMET
Boston, Mass., Nov. 20.—The Woodland Golf club has voted unanimously to carry to a finish its fight for reinstatement in amateur standing of Francis Oumet, John H. Sullivan, Jr., and Paul Tewkesbury, who were disqualified by the United States Golf Association. It is charged that officials of the Massachusetts Golf Association were responsible for the disqualification of Oumet and an attempt will be made to have the state association call a special meeting and go on record in all three cases prior to the meeting of the national association in January.

CENTRAL HIGH BIG WINNER; BROWN COLLEGE SURPRISED

Tech Loses to Williamsport With Aid of Officials; Yale Takes Tiger's Scalp

Central High School's football eleven and the Harrisburg academy were the winners in the games of local interest Saturday. Steelton tied Lebanon, while Tech lost its second game of the season at Williamsport.

The Academy team, coached by Schlichter, a star on the Cornell team last season, closed its schedule by trimming Gettysburg academy 59 to 0. The up-river lads were far superior to the Battled boys, who were completely outclassed. Captain Phillips' team totalled 199 points during the season 19 made by their opponents. The 19 tallies were made by Schuykill Seminary of Reading in the two contests played by the two teams, but in each case the Academy team won.

Scalps Dangling
In addition to the two victories over Schuykill Seminary the local lads conquered Lykens High School, Baltimore Friends School, Franklin and Marshall Academy and Gettysburg Academy. The season is the best ever gone through by any other team representing that school. Last year the squad lost only one game, and that to the Venonah Military Academy located over in New Jersey.

While the team contained a number of brilliant players, Captain Phillips, British, the former Tech player, the Bennett brothers and "Chick" Froelich bore the brunt of the attack.

Central Wins at Reading
Central showed that it has pluck and the comeback spirit by going to Reading and walloping that crew with two touchdowns. Tech appears to be in the line-up for Saturday, while the sensational Freshman playing at fullback, The Berks county players were unable to stop his line-plunging. Prior to the Thanksgiving contest, Central will travel to Wilkes-Barre for their final out of town game.

Tech won from the Barons last Saturday by a score of 24 to 0. The result will give the deposters a further chance to figure out the result of the Thanksgiving game. Incompetency at Williamsport has been attributed in a large degree to the incompetency of an official. While reports would tend to indicate that this is the case, Tech appears to be in a slump for the last two weeks. The Maroon lads have had a good season, and are confident of winning from Central in the annual classic. Both of the local high schools are starring Freshmen, whose work will be closely watched. Beck and Fields were the point scorers for their teams Saturday and both are members of the first year class. Steelton plays Tech next Saturday.

Steelton had a costly game at Lebanon, in holding that eleven to a tie at seven points. Dayhoff, the Blue and White backfield star, is reported to have a fracture of the right leg, that will keep him out of football during the remainder of his high school days. With this lad in the line-up next Saturday, Coach Taggart had expected to trounce Tech on the Island, and thus retrieve the defeat sustained at the hands of Tech several weeks ago.

College Battles
Among the colleges, local interest naturally centered in the Gettysburg-Bucknell game that was played in this city. After many years of "watchful waiting" Harry Rote, the local star, finally won a contest for Gettysburg when he scored single-handedly 17 points for Gettysburg, while his teammates kept the Lewisburg contingent from tallying. Lebanon Valley for the first time in its history won from the Carlisle Indians. The Anville lads not only won, but trounced the aborigines to a 33 to 0 tune.

Yale put one over on Princeton, winning by a score of 10 to 0. This victory means that Harvard and Yale will decide season's honors. Dickinson led Swarthmore to a 20 to 20 score.

It was the first time this season that Swarthmore was unable to win. Lehigh with practically a second team took things easy with the Lancaster collegians. Lehigh is holding its players in reserve for the annual classic with Lafayette.

For season's honors the field has practically narrowed down to Pitt and Brown. Both teams have enviable records and have grounds upon which to lay their claims. Pollard, a colored halfback, has been playing sensational ball against the big teams for Brown, and will be sure to be selected by many coaches for the mythical All-American eleven after the Thanksgiving contests have been played.

FOUST SUGGESTS A FOOD EMBARGO

Dairy and Food Commissioner Would Hold Back Articles Which Cost More

An embargo on shipment of certain foodstuffs which have been mounting in price, especially eggs, is suggested by State Dairy and Food Commissioner James Foust, who has been studying reports of storage warehouses handling eggs and similar foods.

Mr. Foust gives these views: "The war in Europe is causing an increase in the price of foods of all kinds and the necessities of the State are being drained of many articles which we need at home. I have just received word that a shipment of ninety-seven cars of eggs was made by a cold storage warehouse in South Bethlehem. There were 930,000 dozens in the lot and they sold at 33 1-3 cents a dozen. These eggs were owned by a man in the West and I think they are headed for the States.

Blue Ridge Pitches' League; Only One Real Batsman

Hagerstown, Md., Nov. 20.—The official averages of the Blue Ridge Baseball League, composed of Hagerstown, Frederick, Chambersburg, Hanover, Gettysburg and Martinsburg, just issued from the office of President J. Vincent Jamison, Jr., show that the Blue Ridge in 1916 was strictly pitchers' league. There were only two .300 hitters and there were four pitchers who finished in the .600 class and fourteen were better than .500.

Eddie Hooper, Chambersburg's manager, was easily the leading hitter, with a record of .332, while Barnhart, of Frederick, was second, hitting .329 in sixty-one games. Charlie Dwyer, Hagerstown's right fielder, led the league in runs scored with 71 to his credit.

Criticism of Canal Is Condemned by Goethals

Washington, D. C., Nov. 20.—Major-General George W. Goethals in his annual report as governor of the Canal Zone, made public by the War Department, declares that, as he predicted at the time the great Culebra movements occurred, the slides will be overcome finally and for all time, notwithstanding the calamity howlers and in spite of the disastrous predictions of the "know-it-alls." His report replies especially to Professor Benjamin LeRoy Miller, of Lehigh University, who, with Senator Kearns, of Utah, predicted a continuation of adverse conditions.

Toiled 23 Years; Now Asks Back Salary

Helena, Mont., Nov. 20.—George E. Mayer, local mining man, brought suit for twenty-three years' back salary against the St. Louis Mining and Milling Company. Mayer asks $14,800, costs and attorney's fee.

He says he acted as secretary of the corporation from 1888 to 1911 and that he never collected any remuneration, although the understanding with the directors, he asserts, was that he should be paid—some day.

In 1911, after his twenty-third year in the office, the directors "retired" him, he charges.

Tech High officials and players returned from Williamsport Saturday night with an unpleasant story regarding incompetent officials. It was charged that the referee when shown a book of rule said the "book was wrong." He also penalized Tech, claiming the rules did not allow a center to be tackled when he was running with the ball, and every time the ball was out of bounds Tech was penalized by losing the ball.

Now is the time for the officials of the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association to get busy. The charges made against Williamsport officials should be investigated. If there is to be clean athletics, the state association should act without delay.

Harry Rote was a real hero Saturday. His work showed that Gettysburg's victories this season were mostly due to his playing. Emanuel was a big star in his position, and Captain Stratton is a great leader. He came out of the game rather sore, but will be all right in a few days.

Steelton was given rough treatment at Lebanon Saturday. Dayhoff is out of the game with a fractured leg and other injuries. It is to be regretted that this star cannot be seen Saturday in the game with Tech.

Penn's victory over Michigan on Saturday brought renewed spirit at the Quaker institution. Howard Berry was the hero and the entire team received a great welcome on their return home to-day. Penn's work was a big feature.

One more week of football for the big colleges. Harvard meets Yale next Saturday. Tech plays Steelton, and then will come the big Thanksgiving Day game between Central and Tech.

The National League fielding averages show Killifer in the lead, with Hilleke, of the Giants, as the first catcher. According to figures made public to-day, there will be some interesting facts printed in next year's baseball guides.

Harrisburg Independents found the Hancock team of Philadelphia an easy proposition Saturday night, the locals winning by a score of 52 to 36. The game was witnessed by a large college contingent. Local players showed championship form.

The Galahads won a basketball victory at Tower City Saturday; score, 32 to 16. They will meet Hershey December 2 and Hershey December 8. F. J. Marshall, American chess champion, is in Harrisburg to-day and is the guest of the Engineers Society of Pennsylvania. Following a dinner this evening he will deliver a lecture on chess and chess problems. Mr. Marshall was willing to meet all comers.

JACKSON URGES AMERICANISM

Would Have Businessmen Make English Speaking Part of the Training

"Americanize your industries and your unions" is a double appeal made by Commissioner of Labor John Fricke Jackson, of the Department of Labor and Industry, to heads of industrial plants and officials of labor organizations in all sections of Pennsylvania in the effort to promote attendance at night schools and other educational classes by non-English speaking workmen throughout the state. Census reports indicate almost 500,000 such workers in Pennsylvania.

This appeal, in separate letters, sent to-day to industries and to labor organizations, comes from Commissioner Jackson on the eve of the Fourth Annual Industrial Welfare and Efficiency Conference, which convenes in the hall of the House of Representatives, Harrisburg, beginning to-morrow morning and ending Thursday night. At this conference Americanization will be a vital theme and will be considered from every angle.

The commissioner points out in his appeal to heads of industrial plants that every non-English speaking employe means more accidents, increased cost of supervision and lower industrial efficiency. He asserts that accident records show that many workmen are injured through failure to understand orders and instructions given in English by foremen. He suggests that every effort be made by heads of industries to promote education in English among foreign workmen if it is even necessary to give wage bonuses to establish factory classes.

To the labor unions the commissioner points out that the workman who does not understand English may do the wrong thing, following an order he does not understand, and may cause injury not only to himself but also to his fellow employes. The commissioner further asserts that such a workman makes an unprepared member of a union because he does not usually understand the proceedings, and therefore is not always able to act intelligently for the welfare of the union.

Commissioner Jackson has recently been appointed chairman of a national committee of one hundred for Americanization, which includes Superintendent Nathan C. Schaeffer, of the Pennsylvania Department of Public Instruction, and Mrs. Samuel Semple, of the Pennsylvania Industrial Board. This committee, named by the United States Commissioner of Education, P. P. Claxton, includes in its personnel the following educators of nationwide prominence: Mary Antin, John Mitchell, Jane Adams, Bishop Shahan, of the Catholic University of America, Mary C. C. Bradford, State Superintendent of Public Instruction of Colorado, and Rabbi Louis J. Koplod, of Buffalo, N. Y.

FLY TO FOOTBALL GAME
Princeton, N. J., Nov. 20.—Aeroplane was "Hobey" Baker's mode of transportation to the Yale-Princeton game Saturday. Accompanied by six other army aviators, the former star of the Tiger eleven made the flight from Mineola to Princeton in 45 minutes. They landed amid cheers.
