BURTON HOLMES

IN FIRST LECTURE

Well-Known Lecturer Gives "Canada From Coast to Coast" to Big House

Burton Holmes, traveler and lecturer, was heard at the Orpheum last evening in the first of a series of five Monday evening travelogues. A large audience greeted Mr. Holmes on this his first visit to Harrisburg, and if indications amount to anything the course of lectures will prove one of the most popular heard in this city. Last night's lecture was "Canada From Coast to Coast," and with highly interesting colored slides and motion pictures was the audience taken, from the Atlantic to the Pacific in this next-door neighbor of our country's. Mr. Holmes as a lecturer is so widely and favorably known that to add anything to his already long line of favorable comment is well-nigh impossible. But no matter how good a lecturer, no matter how much he knows of the subject he is speaking about, there is one thing which any audience appreciates to the fullest, and that is the ability through his enunciation to understand his words no matter where one sits. This is the truth in Mr. Holmes' case. In the very last row when even the motion pictures are shown can one fully understand him, except as was the case last night when one sits near to another who knows so much about the place being lectured about as to be unable to refrain from telling those around him about it. Mr. Holmes draws his word pictures delightfully and with one or two novelties increases the interest of the lecture.

ORPHEUM—Wednesday, matinee and night, November 22—Blanche Ring in "Broadway and Butterflies" Friday evening—"When a Woman Sings" (Yiddish). Saturday only, November 25—James T. Powers in "Somebody's Luggage" Monday evening, November 27—Burton Holmes—"The Canadian Rockies" Tuesday, matinee and night, November 28—"A Girl Without a Chance." MAJESTIC—Vaudeville. COLONIAL—"The War Bride's Secret." REGENT—"Ashes of Embers." VICTORIA—"Neptune's Daughter."

Magnetic Blanche Ring, the singer of many popular songs, returns to the Orpheum to-morrow, matinee and night, where she has not appeared before for several seasons. In "Broadway and Butterflies," by William Mack, author of many present day successes and numerous clever vaudeville sketches, which has proved to be as exactly suited to the star as Miss Ring is to the character of Jane O'Day, the Broadway milliner summering at Killmuck Falls, Me. To this quiet little village come also two or three other city characters. Then the fun begins and is continued through three acts of merriment and songs.

A rush of mail orders are pouring into the box office of the Orpheum Theater for the much heralded return of Sarah Bernhardt on Wednesday evening, November 29, when this great actress—in the opinion of many the greatest who ever trod the boards—will positively present scenes from the most popular plays in her famous repertoire. The sale at the box office does not begin before Monday, November 27, and judging by the advance demand through the mail, what few seats are left will soon be bought up when the time is opened to the public Monday morning. The program includes scenes from the following plays: "Cleopatra," "Camille" and a one-act play called "The Field of Honor and Rosalie."

This coming week Burton Holmes will take his audiences to enjoy with him the joys of two months spent in the Canadian Rockies this last summer. "The Canadian Rockies" in the Canadian Rockies there is scenic material for the making of a score of grander Switzerland, and there are hostels that rival in beauty of situation and surpass in luxury and comfort many a world-famous Alpine caravansary. There are thousands of miles of roads and easy trails that all may travel in comfort and safety; there are also untrodden fastnesses, unexplored peaks, and passes yet untraced, to test the powers of the exploring mountaineer.

Mr. Holmes will give "In the Canadian Rockies," at the Orpheum Theater on Monday evening at 8:15 o'clock.

Admirers of Pauline Frederick should not miss seeing her in "Ashes of Embers" today. In this unusual production the celebrated emotional actress is seen as Agnes, a drudge, and Laura, a heartless, designing sister. It is one of the most remarkable pieces of acting that even Miss Frederick has ever done on the screen.

The particularly pleasing feature of the charming picture, "The Great of Life," shown at the Regent to-morrow and Thursday, is the marvelous dancing of the international stars, Maurice and Florence Walton, who are the co-stars of the production. This picture marks their debut on screen and is, it is said, a great success. The far famed Apache dance, which was introduced to America by Maurice, will be one of the many dances which he and his partner will perform on the screen.

The many persons who attended the Colonial Theater yesterday to see William Fox's latest production, "The War Bride's Secret," expecting to see a powerful play, were not disappointed. The picture features Virginia Pearson, and is by far the best play in which this clever emotional actress has ever appeared. The powerful story tells how a young girl secretly marries her lover just before he is called to the front. Later her father compels her to marry another man. To-morrow, one day only, Douglas Fairbanks will be seen in a return engagement of his great record-breaking success, "Manhattan Madness," a love play presented in the usual "Fairbanks" style that moves at a head-a-minute speed, and one of the best pictures that was ever seen in the city. It broke the house record when it was shown a couple weeks ago. The Keystone players will be on the same program in a new two-reel Keystone comedy, "Haystacks and Steeples."

The world-famed star "A Daughter of the Gods," Annette Kellerman, is the great attraction at the Victoria in the remarkable picture play, "Neptune's Daughter." Miss Kellerman has been termed "the perfect woman," and is known to almost every man, woman and child as the world's champion swimmer. As an artist before the camera she is also a star of the first magnitude. Of the picture play itself the New York Star says: "It is the most brilliantly effective screen production ever projected, either in this country or Europe." To-morrow we offer for the first time in this city J. Warren Kerrigan in "The Silent Battle." "Civilisation" Thos. H. Ince's million-dollar production will be shown here shortly. Watch for it.

Are You Getting Ready For Thanksgiving?
 For the Social Function--- For the Big Dinner---

Have you prepared the dinner gown and all the little accessories that go with it? Have you outfitted yourself with a good warm coat, gloves, scarfs and other comfortable things to wear while motoring or at the football game?

Have you supplied yourself with the linens for the table—the china, glass and silver that will be needed? Have you equipped your kitchen with the utensils that are essential to good cookery? These are hints to the housewife.

Long ago before the thought of "Thanksgiving Day" had come to you we began our preparations to supply the kind of things we knew would be wanted to wear and for household use on this occasion, and the completeness of our preparations will be apparent when you visit the different floors of this establishment.

Harrisburg Men Rescue Livestock From Barn Fire

Hershey, Pa., Nov. 21.—Last evening the dwelling house and barn, with the season's crops, on the farm owned by Henry Baum and tenanted by James Baum, were completely destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated between $15,000 and $20,000. The fire was discovered by Frank A. Baumann, C. Sweichert and C. J. Wagner, of Harrisburg, who were passing on a truck on their way to Harrisburg with a piano. They rescued all the livestock, consisting of twenty-six cows, seven horses and two mules.

A PALACE EATEN BY HORSES AND COWS

The principal attraction at a California festival was a great palace built of baled alfalfa. It was ninety feet wide and one hundred and seventy feet long. Cows and horses later consumed it.—Popular Science Monthly for December.

A showing of unusual and exceptional furs that surpasses all our previous efforts. Merely seeing them is a treat—especially the Silver Fox Sets.

REVIEW OF MAJESTIC BILL

The Juvenile Act Takes Honors and Has Surrounding Bill of Variety

Seven clever little youngsters take first honors at the Majestic for the first half of the week with a versatile presentation of juvenile art. The kiddies make a hit from the start with their act and win applause from the most critical vaudeville follower. Unfortunately, the remainder of the show isn't quite so well balanced. Billy Kinkaid, impersonating a Scotchman, opens the bill with a juggling and weight act. Burke and Harris have something new to offer in the way of singing songs of long ago.

Percy Pollock and company in "Bobby at the Seashore" bring many laughs from the audience and develop opportunities for plenty of humor. Hickman Brown in "Two Ways to Look" closes the bill. This act is about the only one which is lacking in the real fun-producing element characteristic of vaudeville sketches.

Three capacity audiences greeted the offerings yesterday and were apparently pleased at least with part of the bill.

G. M. Stroup, Ex-Associate Judge of Perry County, Dies

Blain, Pa., Nov. 21.—George M. Stroup, a former associate judge of the Perry courts, whose residence is one mile and a half east of Blain on the State road, died suddenly on Sunday afternoon at the home of Russell Martin in Madison township. Mr. Stroup was in his usual health and attended church services Sunday morning a few hours before his death in the Zion's Lutheran Church at Blain. The cause of his death was heart failure. He was 70 years old. Mr. Stroup had been a farmer and lived here most of his life. He served in a number of township and county offices. He was a member of Zion's Lutheran Church and at the time of his death was serving as elder in the church council. Mr. Stroup is survived by his wife, who was Mary Ellen Martin, and three sons and two daughters, Mrs. Annie Woods, of Blain; Robert M. Stroup, of North Dakota; Charles E. Stroup, of Montana; Professor F. Neff Stroup, of Palmyra, N. J.; and Mrs. Roy Allen, of Meriden, Conn. Funeral arrangements will not be made until his son Robert in North Dakota is heard from.

MOTHERS, DO THIS—

When the Children Cough, Rub Musterole on Throats and Chests

No telling how soon the symptoms may develop into croup, or worse. And then when you're glad you have a jar of Musterole at hand to give prompt, sure relief. It does not blister.

As first aid and a certain remedy, Musterole is excellent. Thousands of mothers know it. You should keep a jar in the house, ready for instant use. It is the remedy for adults, too. Relieves sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, chilblains, frosted feet and colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

25c and 50c jars; hospital size $2.50.

"Wear-Ever" Week Daily Demonstration

The initial day of "Wear-Ever" week brought many housewives to our store — some were in search of information on cooking the "Wear-Ever" way, while others came for the big value specials.

In the daily cooking demonstrations, valuable information is given by Mrs. Lamb, the representative from the factory and it's most gratifying to see so many women in attendance.

The "Wear-Ever" Week Specials

A 4-qt. Berlin Sauce Pan and cover for 98c.
 This is one of the new "Wear-Ever" products and has proven most popular principally on account of the long handle providing a means for quick, safe lifting. It's the size most useful.

This "Wear-Ever" Steamer For 89c

This steamer fits over the 4-qt. Berlin sauce pan, and provides a means of making an extra dish without additional space on stove.
