

LOCAL TEAMS HAVE HARD GAMES BEFORE THANKSGIVING---A. A. U. OFFICIALS

CENTRAL IS READY FOR WILKES-BARRE

Journey to Coal Regions Saturday; Confident of Victory Next Week

For its final game before the fray with Tech on Thanksgiving, the Central high eleven will journey to the coal lands Saturday to play Wilkes-Barre High team. Much interest centers on this game, as Tech defeated the anthracite eleven, two weeks ago, score 24-13. It must be remembered, however, that in comparing the Central and Tech teams by their respective scores against Wilkes-Barre, that the Walnut street squad did not defeat Wilkes-Barre by a large score and that said score was made on the Island.

Off Day at Steelton The score down Steelton way a couple of weeks ago, it is believed, was merely the result of an off-day for the Smith-Harris men. The line-up at Wilkes-Barre this week will probably be the same as in the preceding game. Preparations for the annual Thanksgiving Day are on. All connected with the Blue and Gray look for the annual rubbing that Central will win this year, the P. G. Diener football trophy will become theirs for a year and the permanent ownership decided next year.

OFFICIALS FOR SATURDAY GAME

Tech Prepares For Annual Game With Central Thanksgiving Day

Officials for the Steelton-Tech game have been selected. They will be Hatcher, Dickinson, referee; Johnson, Bucknell, umpire; and Dwyer, head linesman. Tech will lead in its cheering and singing by the Municipal band, the same organization that will play for the Maroon on Thanksgiving.

Comparative Scores Comparative scores show that Steelton was only able to tie Lebanon at seven points, while Tech won from the "Dutch" 25 to 0. On the other hand Steelton tied with Williamsport at 12 tallies each, while the "Billtowners" trounced Tech with the assistance of an official by two touchdowns to one.

WELLY'S CORNER

The Central high tennis tournament is nearing the close. Unusual interest is manifested in the remaining matches. Semifinals in boys' and girls' events are scheduled for this week.

Central high, notwithstanding the fact that this year's eleven has not shown up strong in victories, is being shown up strong on Thanksgiving Day. There may be a change in sentiment after Saturday. No matter what happens during the season Central's only desire is to win from Tech. School spirit is strong and the students are ready to do their share.

Officials announced to-day for the Saturday game should bring favorable comment. They have been seen in previous contests and have given general satisfaction. Everybody is liable to err. As long as the decisions are impartial there can be no kick.
