

WOMAN AVOIDS OPERATION

Medicine Which Made Surgeon's Work Unnecessary.

Astoria, N. Y. — "For two years I was feeling ill and took all kinds of tonics. I was getting worse every day. I had chills, my head would ache, I was always tired. I could not walk straight because of the pain in my back and I had pains in my stomach. I went to a doctor and he said I must go under an operation, but I did not go. I read in the paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and told my husband about it. I said 'I know nothing will help me but I will try this.' I found myself improving from the very first bottle, and in two weeks time I was able to sit down and eat a hearty breakfast with my husband, which I had not done for two years. I am now in the best of health and did not have the operation." — Mrs. JOHN A. KOENIG, 502 Flushing Avenue, Astoria, N. Y.

Every one dreads the surgeon's knife and the operating table. Sometimes nothing else will do; but many times when they are necessary when they are not. Letter after letter comes to the Pinkham Laboratory, telling how operations were advised and were not performed; or, if performed, did no good, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was used and good health followed.

If you want advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass.

URGES EVERYONE TO QUICKLY GET ON WATER WAGON

Drink glass of hot water before breakfast to wash out poisons.

To see the tinge of healthy bloom in your face, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, to wake up without a headache, backache, coated tongue or a nasty breath, in fact to feel your best, day in and day out, just try inside-bathing every morning for one week. Before breakfast each day, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This harmless, sweetening, and purifying the entire alimentary canal, before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the blood and internal organs. Those who are subject to constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, rheumatic twinges, or those whose skin is sallow and complexion pallid, are assured that one week of inside-bathing will have them both looking and feeling better in every way.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles. If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with undigested foods, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without gripping, cramps or pain. Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied. Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful. This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days. This preparation is a toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

AMUSEMENTS

ORPHEUM — To-night — Blanche Ring in "Broadway and Buttermilk." Friday evening — "When a Woman Sins." (Yiddish). Saturday only, November 25 — James T. Powers in "Somebody's Luggage." Monday evening, November 27 — Burton Holmes — "The Canadian Rockies." Tuesday, matinee and night, November 28 — "A Girl Without a Chance." MAJESTIC — Vaudeville. COLONIAL — "Manhattan Madness." REGENT — "The Quest of Life." VICTORIA — "The Silent Battle."

Blanche Ring, in a new Willard Mack comedy, "Broadway and Buttermilk," is the strong attraction tonight to-night, the Orpheum. "Broadway and Buttermilk" is a play of rural life and simple people. The scene is laid in Killbuck Falls, Me., and Miss Ring, as Madame Nadine, a New York milliner, who in private life is Jane O'Day, is spending her summer vacation at the boardinghouse in town. During the action of the play an excuse has been found every little while to introduce one of those tuneful, catchy topical songs that the joyous star sings in her own inimitable way. "Pickin' 'Em Up and Layin' 'Em Down," "Quintet for Y. Y. Ever Get Married," and "I've Always Been the Patsey," are among the most tuneful of the new musical numbers.

A treat will be given to the Jewish public of this city, when the National Yiddish Players famous troupe of coming Friday. Yiddish players directed by Professor New York, will appear at the Orpheum, Friday night. The company consists of select prominent players of the best Yiddish theaters of New York, and is headed by the celebrated actor-director, Jacob Shtrom, ably supported by the well-known prima donna, Miss Anna Karp, E. Rosenthal and a star cast. The play to be presented is the best, a musical comedy drama, "When a Woman Sins," a play with a moral, plenty of comedy and fifteen musical numbers. Seats to-day.

Mr. Powers, with a keen eye to dramatic effect, has arranged to stage his recrudescence in a dramatic play, "Somebody's Luggage," which comes to the Orpheum Saturday night only and further piques the curiosity of players, professionals and amateurs, who recall Mr. Powers' appearance only in musical comedy. He is abetted in his designs by Mark Swan, the actor, whose name inspires confidence in the new play. Mr. Swan is a conspicuous member of the Eight o'clock, Breakfast Club, a little clique of the Lambs who administer daily shocks to the habits of forty-five percent of the city. For a matinee meal at the unseemly hour of 7:59. This recent habit apparently gives Mr. Swan an unjust advantage over the rival playwrights who rise at a more reasonable hour.

The Bernhardt program for Harrisburg, at the Orpheum, Wednesday, November 23, will be a dramatic festival, indeed. Repertoire In lieu of the fact that Mme. Bernhardt, who has been seen here in her famous characters by selecting significant characteristic acts from a few of her great successes, thus enabling her audience to see the diverse sharply conflicting moods of different characters. The program chosen includes two complete plays—"The False Model" and "From the Theater to the Field of Honor." In addition, these plays will be given the last act of "Cleopatra," a playlet by Maurice Bernhardt, Mme. Bernhardt's son, and Henri Cain, done in English.

Burton Holmes will continue his series of finely illustrated travelogues with a second "The Canadian Rockies and Holmes' Next Subject cent scenery, good hotels, the hunting and sports grounds and the sights, scenes and activities of life in this gigantic "Switzerland of America." The principal theme. No personally conducted tour with Mr. Holmes as guide, could be more varied in interest or more beautiful to the eye.

Having danced their way to fame in the European capitals and South America, the internationally celebrated Maurice and Florence Walton are now making their motion picture debut at the Regent to-day and to-morrow, in "The Quest of Life."

"The Quest of Life," however, is not merely a dancing picture. It is a very dramatic story of a girl of lowly parentage who is ambitious for her future. Just as she seems about to realize her dreams, the doctor declares she has but one more year to live. In despair, she determines to see as much of life as she can in that year. She is chosen to be the Dance of Death with Maurice Bretton, a celebrated dancer at a big social function, and makes a hit. They are engaged, a theatrical manager and score again on the stage, but Mapleton, the manager, begins to cast covetous eyes upon Ellen. The girl's health breaks under the strain and Maurice secretly sends her to a sanatorium, for which act of kindness Mapleton later assumes credit. A series of dramatic situations lead to the discovery of the truth, however, and Mapleton retires very ungracefully from the competition for the heart of Ellen.

Friday only — Richard Bennett will be presented in a powerful problem play, "And the Law Says." The theme is based on circumstantial evidence and capital punishment. Appearing on the bill at the Majestic the first half of this week are James and Elizabeth Reese, son and daughter of James and Elizabeth Reese, who was formerly a member of the Majestic Theater orchestra. This talented brother and sister are seen with five other juvenile performers in "Farland," a delightful "kid" act. The Hickman Brothers, in their big laughing vehicle, entitled "Ways to Love," together with three other comedy hits, complete the bill. For the last half of the week, Will Ward and Zira, with their battery of five Steiff pianos, will be the feature attraction. This is a high musical act, consisting of both vocal and instrumental selections, and this group of artists will doubtless find much favor with music lovers. Completing the list of attractions are: Orren and Drew, doing vocal imitations; Fenton and Green, in a comedy variety skit, and two other acts.

Said to be one of the strongest offerings presented to date some time will be shown to-day at the Victoria when J. Victoria Warren Kerrigan appears in "The Silent Battle." For to-morrow, Mary Anderson and William Duncan are featured in an army post drama of intense interest, "The Last Man." An all-star cast in support of Miss Anderson and Mr. Duncan. Although she continually flirts with the other men at the army post, Miss Griffith is supposed to be in love with her husband. This love, however, does not manifest itself until her husband has been forced into believing in her faithfulness and left her that she might marry the man with whom she carries on the flirtation. "Civilization," the greatest play of the age, produced at a cost of over a million dollars, will be shown here shortly.

There is one, and only one Douglas Fairbanks at the Central. This popular screen star, neither can

Fairbanks. He has no imitators, for the simple reason that no one seems able to accomplish the feats performed by this popular screen star; neither can they imitate his personality, which is 50 per cent of his wonderful success. If you have never seen Fairbanks in pictures, don't fail to take advantage of your opportunity to-day, to see him in his greatest play, "Manhattan Madness," and you will immediately become an admirer of this kind of screen work. The picture is one of the cleverest love and mystery stories ever filmed, and it broke the house records Thursday, one day only. Thos. H. Ince will present Bessie Love in a new Triangle play, "A Sister of Mine," which is an interesting story in which a little girl, aged 10, is the heroine. The added attraction on the program.
