

TROUBLE LOOMS AGAIN WITH U. S. GERMANY FEARS

Ten Inquiries Filed by Americans on Sinking of Ships by U-Boats

WASHINGTON IS SILENT

Dispatch Arouses Much Interest Here; Situation May Become Serious

Berlin, Nov. 23, by wireless. — A period of complications may again be impending in German-American relations; Germany's conduct of the submarine warfare has brought forth an abundant crop of American inquiries...

Six remain to be answered, including the cases of the Marina, on which a number of American appear to have been killed, and the liner Arabia, the sinking of which the American government declares appears to be inconsistent with the promises of the German government regarding the treatment of passenger liners.

[Continued on Page 13]

Hughes Congratulates President on Election and Extends Best Wishes

Lakewood, N. J., Nov. 23.—Charles E. Hughes, Republican candidate for President in the recent election, last night sent to President Wilson telegram congratulating him upon his reelection. In his telegram Mr. Hughes said:

"Because of the closeness of the vote I have awaited the official count in California, and now that it has been virtually completed, permit me to extend to you my congratulations upon your re-election. I desire also to express my best wishes for a successful administration."

Mrs. Thomas T. Everett Dies at Greencastle Home

Greencastle, Pa., Nov. 23. — Mrs. Emma C. Everett, widow of the Rev. Dr. Thomas T. Everett, died at her home here yesterday. She had been ill since July. Mrs. Everett was born at Pittsburgh and when her husband was private secretary to Governor Robert E. Pattison she took an active part in social affairs at the State Capital. Mrs. Everett is survived by a brother, who lives in Hammon, N. J., and two sisters, living in Germantown, one of whom is Mrs. Mary Scannell.

THE WEATHER

For Harrisburg and vicinity: Rain this afternoon and probably to-night and Friday, followed by clearing on Friday; somewhat warmer to-night, colder Friday. For Eastern Pennsylvania: Probably rain to-night and Friday, followed by clearing on Friday; somewhat warmer to-night, colder Friday; southerly, shifting to westerly Saturday.

CIGARETS ARE ACCIDENT CAUSE SAYS SPOTTS

"Coffin Nails" and Job on Railroad Dangerous Combination Declares Local Trainman

COMMUNITY DOCTOR

"Book of Rules" Workmen's Best Friend He Points Out Welfare Meet

Cigaret smoking and a job on the railroad is a dangerous combination, according to Charles H. Spotts, of this city, of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, who, in an address to-day before the Fourth Annual Welfare and Efficiency Conference, under the auspices of the Department of Labor and Industry, declared that a man who works in a perilous position and smokes cigars is a fool.

[Continued on Page 7]

President Replies to Hughes' Congratulation

Washington, Nov. 23. — President Wilson to-day sent a telegram to Charles E. Hughes acknowledging his message of congratulation received last night.

"I am sincerely obliged to you for your message of congratulation. Allow me to assure you of my good wishes for the years to come. After the President had telegraphed to Mr. Hughes, the White House made public several thousand telegrams of congratulation from cabinet members, governors of States, Democratic leaders in practically every State and from the President's office and several Latin Republics. No messages were received from any of the belligerent nations.

Replying to the congratulations of the cabinet the President said: "One of the best things about the result is that it means four more years of active association in public service and in that we are genuinely rejoiced."

Demands Curtailment of London Hotel Menus

London, Nov. 23. — Walter Rundenman, president of the Board of Trade, and the leading London hotel keepers last night, demanded an immediate curtailment of menus. He declared that there must be an immediate and drastic cutting down and a decrease in the use of imported foods.

BORDER PACT NEAR

Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 23. — When the Mexican-American joint commission convened to-day it appeared evident that the Americans were willing to meet the Mexicans half way in so phrasing the proposals made Tuesday that the Mexicans would feel justified in agreeing to them.

YORK PLANT GIVES INCREASE

York, Pa., Nov. 23. — A ten per cent increase in wages to employes in hand welding plants was announced to-day by local officials of the American Chain company. Twelve hundred workers in this city benefit by the raise which takes effect immediately. Factories in Carlisle and Braddock, Pa., and in Mansfield, St. Mary's and Columbus, Ohio, are included.

FIGURES IN THE GREAT EIGHT-HOUR CONTROVERSY

Lines in the great legal battle between almost a million organized railroad workers on one side and the organized power of railroad capital on the other are rapidly drawing close, with the legality of the Adamson eight-hour day as the immediate issue. And here are the men who figure most prominently in what promises to be one of the greatest and most historic legal battles in the history of industrialism in America.

JACK LONDON ONCE GOT NICE HANDOUT HERE

Writer of the North, the Sea and the Pacific Islands, Dies in California

HOBOED INTO HARRISBURG

Was Given Breakfast by Little Woman From "Frame of a Daguerreotype"

WILSON HAS COLD

Washington, Nov. 23. — President Wilson was confined to his bedroom to-day with a slight cold in the head and saw no callers during the morning.

BANDITS GET $40,000

Chattanooga, Tenn., Nov. 23. — Police throughout the South were searching to-day for two men alleged to have stolen $40,000 from a Southern express company motor truck here last night. Although the robbery occurred in the center of the business district, detectives so far have found no clue. The money was being shipped by Chattanooga banks to various southern cities. The driver of the truck says two well-dressed men climbed aboard his machine in the railroad yards and held him up at the point of revolvers.

NEWSPAPERS GO TO TWO CENTS

Johnstown, Pa., Nov. 23. — Announcement was made yesterday by three local daily newspapers that their price would be increased to two cents December 1, owing to the high cost of print paper. The newspapers are the Tribune, Leader and Democrat.

M. E. CONFERENCE MAPS OUT WORK

In Closing Session Delegates Adopt Denominational Program

NEW HOTEL WILL BE LEASED BEFORE BUILDING BEGINS

Officially Named Penn-Harris; Officers Elected; Capital Million Dollars

Lease of the new million-dollar hotel will be signed before spade has been touched to earth or the architect definitely selected. Both deals will be completed within a week, it was announced to-day. Very excellent offers have been made to the company by some of the leading hotel operating companies of the country.

Rat Poison Explodes in Face of Paxtang Man

If the rat that loafs under the front porch of Ralph L. Diehl's residence at Paxtang is at all vindictive, he must have chuckled when he saw Mr. Diehl last evening step from a trolley car with a can of rat poison. If the same rat was what happened to E. W. Walle when Mr. Diehl opened the can, and if he was still vindictive, that rat must have shrieked his delight.

INCREASE BELGIAN LEVY

London, Nov. 23. — The German levy on Belgium has been increased from forty million francs to fifty million according to a Reuter's Amsterdam dispatch quoting the Echo Belge. The dispatch says the new order was issued by the governor general of Belgium and was signed by the Duke of Wurtemberg and General Frederich Von Falkenhausen. It is reported that the levy is to pay the cost of maintenance of Germany's army of occupation and the German administration of the occupied territory.

TEUTONS OVERRUN ALL WALLACHIA

Latest reports of the vigorous campaign General Von Falkenhausen is waging against the Rumanians indicate that the Teutonic forces are over-running Western Wallachia, following up sharply their defeat of the Rumanians in the Jul Valley and the capture of Craiova.

ARE ORGANIZING DEPARTMENTS OF COMMERCE BODY

Agricultural Group Meets This Afternoon to Outline Its Program

TO BE ACTIVE BRANCH

Plan Luncheon November 29; Commercial Section Session Monday

GETS 22D GERMAN PLANE

Paris, Nov. 23. — Sub-Lieut. George Guynemer, the well-known French aviator, has brought down his twenty-second German airplane, according to announcement made by the French war office this afternoon. Guynemer secured his last victory over a German airman only five days ago. British airplanes have thrown down bombs upon German torpedo-boats tied up to the dock at Zebruge.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Frederick Rowland Miller and Louise Myrtle Keller, Summerdale. Earnest Herbert Ambush and Alice May Bowers, York. Harry Vernon Groda and Mary Elma Eckendorf, city.

CORRECTIVE LAWS ARE BLAMED FOR RAILROAD ILLS

Spokesman For Lines Before Congressional Committee Appeals For Changes

WOULD CUT LIVING COST

Says Increased Transportation Facilities Would Cause Increased Production

Washington, Nov. 23. — The railroad view of what is the matter with the country's transportation facilities was presented to the joint congressional investigating committee to-day by Alfred P. Thom, counsel for the railway executives advisory committee. Mr. Thom, chosen as first spokesman for the roads when the committee decided to begin its inquiry by hearing their side of the case, blamed the present system of "corrective" regulation, divided between the State and Federal governments, for most of the problems troubling the public and the carriers, and appealed for a discussion of necessary changes "not upon any mere theory or jealousy as to the distribution of governmental power, but upon the large issue of what public interest requires."

Believes No Foreign Country Would Object to Embargo of Food

Washington, Nov. 23. — "The Department of State has no views on the subject of the proposed food embargo," Secretary Lansing said to-day. "That is purely a domestic question." The department, he said, has neither urged, opposed nor discussed any such embargo, as he does not think it concerns international relations in any way.

EMPEROR CHARLES TO PUSH WAR TO SUCCESSFUL END

Grandnephew of Francis Joseph Ascends Austrian Throne

REFUSE TO SURRENDER ARMS

London, Nov. 23.—The Greek government has refused to comply with the demand of the entente allies for the surrender of part of its supplies of arms and ammunition.

BOTH EMPEROR AND KING CHARLES I

London, Nov. 23.—According to the Berlin correspondent of the Copenhagen Politiken, as quoted in a Copenhagen dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company, Archduke Charles Francis of Austria Hungary will assume the title Emperor and King Charles I.

POISONER OF 200 CAPTURED

Chicago, Nov. 23.—Jean Crones, a former cook of the University Club, of Chicago, who is wanted in connection with the poisoning of 200 guests at a banquet tendered Archbishop Mundelein, of this city, has been arrested in Spaulding, Neb., according to a telegram received by the local police to-day.

Brownsville, Tex., Nov. 23.—Carranza troops and followers of Felix Diaz have clashed at Sotoala Marina, on the gulf coast, 100 miles south of Matamoros, according to rumors at American army headquarters here to-day. Details were lacking and army officers were inclined to give little credence to the rumors.

YORK, Pa., Nov. 23.—The Rev. William Dorwart, for twenty-five years pastor of the Church of the Nativity, Newport, Pa., was unanimously elected archdeacon of the Harrisburg diocese of the Episcopal Church at a session of the archdeaconry here to-day. He succeeds the Rev. Alexander McMillan, of Carlisle, whose resignation on account of ill health was accepted. The Rev. J. F. J. Hoyt, of Columbia, was elected secretary and treasurer which offices had been held by the new archdeacon.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 23.—Francisco Villa began an attack on Chihuahua City at 11 o'clock to-day a message received by Carranza officials in Juarez at noon to-day stated. Villa is making his attack from the south, the message stated.

"Strick" Gillilan Hands Out Some of His Jokes Just in Passing

Strickland Gillilan was in town yesterday afternoon. Mr. Gillilan is a salubrious and a celebrity. It was he who sent "Off Ag'in, On Ag'in, Gone Ag'in, Fingeneer" crashing through the well-known corridors of time. Last night he lectured before the Teachers' Institute in Chambersburg. He came back to Harrisburg on the midnight flyer and left around five o'clock for Baltimore, where he had a golfing engagement at 9.30. Just before he went over to the

EMPEROR CHARLES TO PUSH WAR TO SUCCESSFUL END

Grandnephew of Francis Joseph Ascends Austrian Throne

TO COMPLETE WORK

Will Follow in Footsteps of Aged Monarch; Well Liked

London, Nov. 23.—Emperor Charles of Austria has issued a proclamation to the Austro-Hungarians declaring his inflexible decision to maintain the war until "a peace assuring the existence and development of the monarchy," according to a Vienna dispatch to Reuter's by way of Amsterdam. The dispatch says the proclamation was printed in a special edition of the Wiener Zeitung together with an autograph letter addressed to Premier Koerber. The letter announced that the new monarch had taken over the government and confirmed the premier in his present functions. After paying homage to the late emperor the proclamation said:

"I will continue to complete his work. I ascend his throne in a stormy time. Our aim has not yet been reached and the illusion of the enemy to throw down my monarchy and our allies is not yet broken. You know me to be in harmony with my peoples in my inflexible decision to continue the struggle until a peace assuring the existence and development of the monarchy is obtained. I will do all in my power to banish as soon as possible the horrors and sacrifices of war and to reborn peace as soon as the honor of our arms, the conditions of life of my countries and their allies and the defiance of our enemies will allow."

Although Austria-Hungary has been [Continued on Page 2]

FOOTBALL FATAL TO LAD

Elgin, Ill., Nov. 23. — Cyril Pritchard, 17, fullback on the Elgin High School football team died to-day after a surgical operation to remove a blood clot on the brain resulting from an accident in a game November 11. Pritchard had been paralyzed since the accident.

[Continued on Page 18]

[Continued on Page 11]

[Continued on Page 2]