Soda Fountain Is Their Altar Chicago, Ill., Nov. 24. - The cupid of Cupid is marvelous. He scored a home run between slips of mated milk. Leo Whiteson is a soda clerk. He wanted to marry Lillian Ribitchock, but couldn't leave his fountain. His sweetheart happened along while County Judge Thomas F. Scully was ordering his nightly glass of malted milk.

Abyssinia Overthrown Mohammedan Intrigues Washington, D. C., Nov. 24. - Abyssinia, the oldest Christian country in the world, has put down another attempt to bring it under the sway of Mohammedanism. Details reaching here through official sources, of the revolution fought out on the African Plateau, show that the overthrow of the young Emperor, Lidq, by his mother, Quizero Zeoditu, followed the Emperor's conversion by his father, to Moslemism and efforts to change the national religion. Lidq, about 20 years old, succeeded his grandfather, the famous old Emperor Menelik, whose oft-reported death was officially admitted three years ago. Quizero Zeoditu is now on her father's throne with the title of Empress of Ethiopia.

Guilty of Assault New Bloomfield, Pa., Nov. 24. - In court here this week William Claybaugh, of Newport, was convicted of assault with intent to maim. He is alleged to have held up employees of the Marshall furnace at Newport with a shotgun and refused to allow them to go to work.

The Secret of Keeping Well The road to health is so plain, that all may find it. Keeping well is simply a matter of constant attention to the great laws of health. Eat moderately, exercise regularly, work reasonably, and take the required amount of sleep. Then, and this is most important, see that the organs of elimination - the bowels, liver and kidneys - are kept active and regular.
