INSURANCE AIDS MEN TO SAVE

Young Businessmen Should Have Policies Declares David E. Tracy

That life insurance is an absolute necessity, that it gradually develops systematic saving on the part of the person to whom a policy is issued and that insurance is a science rather than a mere business, were the three big points brought out last evening in an address by Dr. S. S. Huebner, professor of insurance at the Wharton School of Finance and Commerce, who spoke to the members of the Central Pennsylvania Association of Underwriters, at their meeting at the Engineers' Society of Pennsylvania.

Says Young Men Should Save
John P. Shirley, president of the association, presided at the meeting. Following the address by Dr. Huebner, David E. Tracy, president of the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce and of the Harrisburg Pipe Fitting company, spoke to the underwriters. He told of the importance of life insurance and said that young business men particularly should have policies. He also referred to the "Penn-Harris" hotel which will be erected at Third and Walnut streets, and said that he hoped some day to see the association in session there.

Before the addresses last evening a turkey dinner was served after which the members enjoyed xylophone sections and songs. Those present were:

DEFEATED IN FIRST ATTACK, TRYING AGAIN

Hill were firing at intervals and the rifle fire on both sides was said to have been brisk.
Mr. and Mrs. Dickerson, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis and another American named Harris boarded the train at Chihuahua, but left it and remained behind when Carranza officers told them that the train was certain to be attacked and they had no chance to reach the border. The train crew objected to leaving and were only induced to make the trip upon receiving $40 gold collected by the passengers.

Attack Expected
Other passengers were of the opinion that the town would surrender to Villa after a brief resistance, as practically the entire civilian population and many of the soldiers are believed to be Villa sympathizers.
Villa's attack on Chihuahua City was not unexpected by Carranza garrison, Mexican officials here said today as Villa had publicly announced both at Parral and Santa Rosalia that his next action would be to take Chihuahua and then to drive the American expedition out of Mexico. It was because of military movements tending to give substance to these threats, according to officials, that General Trevino remained on the defensive in Chihuahua City after announcing a week ago his departure for the field.
Villa's boldness in assaulting an almost equal force protected by well-made entrenchments is ascribed in Juarez to a common belief that Trevino was short of small ammunition. It is thought here that Trevino allowed this impression to spread so as to insure its reaching Villa, while in fact he had sufficient for all emergencies.

Withdraws Forces in Defeat
A large number of Mexicans residing in Juarez came across to El Paso last night because of disquieting rumors there. One was that Villa had captured Chihuahua and the Juarez garrison in consequence intended to revolt and join him.
Villa withdrew his surviving forces in defeat from Chihuahua City at 6:15 p. m. after a battle of seven hours, during which he made fruitless attempts to carry General Trevino's protecting works by assault, according to reports from Juarez. General Trevino repulsed a fourth mass attack and drove the bandits from the temporary intrenchments, with heavy losses. The de facto troops are now pursuing the bandits toward the south.

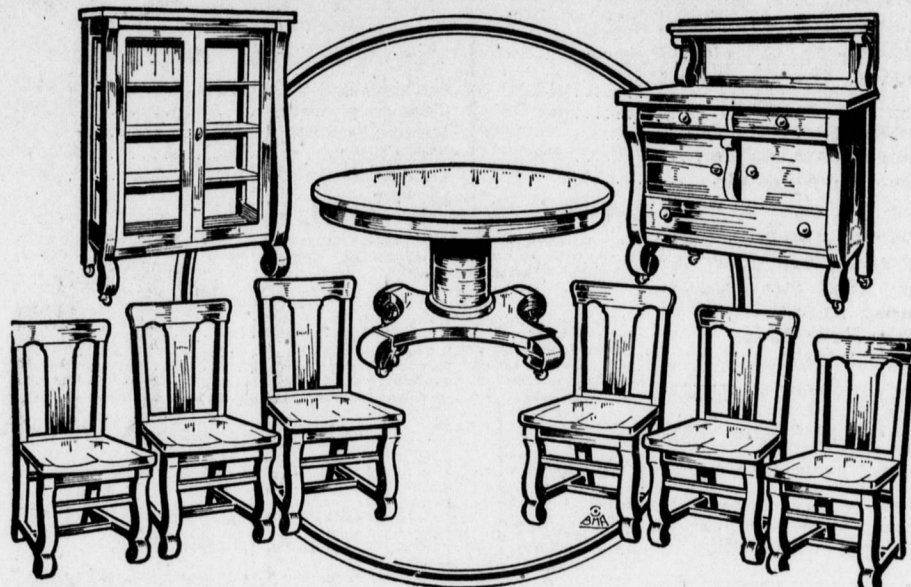

Fought All Day
Villa began his attack at 11 o'clock when the attack of the Villa bandits with an artillery bombardment from Santa Rosalia and other fortified positions south and southwest of Chihuahua City.
Leading 4,000 men Villa approached the city from the south. Three hours before the attack began the wires to Juarez had been cut.
At last reports General Trevino commanded 5,000 men and twenty machine guns, with seventy-five and eighty millimeters. The hills to the north and east of the city were fortified and had gun emplacements. Other earthworks and trenches extended around the city and barbed wire entanglements had been placed in position.
At 1:30 p. m. (mountain time) the noise of bursting shells and discharging field pieces was said to be deafening.
After two hours' fighting the Villistas had penetrated into the heart of Chihuahua City in hard-to-hang fighting. Artillery positions southwest of the city were stopped and taken and the pieces put out of commission by the bandits.
Officials at Chihuahua City kept in constant telephone communication with General Gonzales, Carranzista commander at Juarez.
At 3 o'clock Consul General Andres Garcia declared that three attacks had been made by Villa. The field was covered with dead and dying men, one message stated.
Carranza cavalry, supported by artillery, resulted in the capture of many Villa prisoners, who were without ammunition and had given since morning without food or water, another message declared.

Farmers' Club Opposed to Embargo on Food Shipments
Hogestown, Pa., Nov. 24.—Members of the McCormick Farmers' Club at a meeting in the chapel here yesterday adopted resolutions opposing an embargo by the government on shipment of foodstuffs in order to reduce the cost of living. It was claimed by the speakers that the farmer is not making large profits because of the high cost of feed and farm necessities.
Dr. E. E. Sparks, president of State College, addressed the women and men at a joint meeting in the afternoon.

Gifts That Are Different

Columbia Medallions, the gift "De Luxe." Exact copies of your own picture. Moderate in cost, yet rich in interest, are these imperishable medallions.
Who is there who has not found the charm of some friend so subtle as to forever remain above a fair description.
When the ancients discovered a new mystery they named it first and sought the substance of it later. We still proceed by ancient rule, but reverse methods. We discover the subtle element of personal charm and name it Columbia medallions.
The degree of pleasure you derive from these medallions depends largely upon your good taste and intelligence in choosing "gifts that are different."

GET RID OF WRINKLES

Usit Will Drive Them Away. Brings Back Smooth, Clear, Youthful Complexion and Color

"The bottle of Usit has completely cleared my face of the horrible wrinkles that were such an eyesore to my five daughters, and even my grandchildren have their say about Grandma's wrinkles. It is a godsend to wrinkle suffering humanity."
"Usit, the wonderful pure nut-oil skin food (in opal bottles, not a face cream), will do as much for you, ladies, whether you are grandmothers, middle-aged or young mothers, or younger girls—whether the wrinkles have been brought to your face by age, work, worry or exposure to wind and sun."
"Usit feeds the skin back to health. It is the one thing that will bring back the youthful appearance so dear to you and admired by everybody."
"Rubbed into the skin before retiring, it does its magical work while you sleep. No other treatment is necessary. Get a bottle to-day at any first-class drug store for 50 cents. It is guaranteed to contain nothing that will cause hair growth."
"The most painful cases of sunburn are relieved instantly by Usit. Immediate relief to chapped face and hands."
"For sale by Gorgas, the druggist, and dealers everywhere."
