Navy Hopes For Victory; Many Notables Present at Annual Contest

IN TODAY'S GAME

Annual Contest New York, Nov. 25. — One of the largest crowds that ever attended an athletic event in this city sought the Polo Grounds to-day to see Annapolis and West Polnt stage their annual football contest. President Wilson was unable to be present, but mem-bers of his cabinet and other high gov-ernmental officials in addition to many prominent representatives of both branches of the service added bril-liancy to the assemblage. Two battalions of cadets from West Point, 760 men, and the officers of the shortly before the game and give an exhibition military drill on their way to their seats. Four battalions of mid-shortly before the Anapolie and the addition officers rom seven battleships of the Atlantic liter now in the harbor. Scretary of War Baker will head while Secretary of the Navy Dotters will be augmented by about 400 officers from seven battleships of the Atlantic liter now in the harbor. Scretary of War Baker will head the list of notables in the north stands, while Secretary of the Navy Danlels will occupy a similar position on the south stund. The Army team which entered the contest with a clean slate for the season way picked by most of the abulity of their team. Neither team had any advantage in weight, ut the Army had the greater number of seasoned veteran players. The probable line-up: ADMY. Nows, 1.6. Fisher, 1.6. Ward Const.

local season with the exception of the Thanksgiving contest. If Tech wins again this afternoon, odds will favor the Marcon because of the overwhelming score by which Steelton defeated Central two weeks ago. Central, however, will concede othing to Tech. Following this contest Tech will con-tinue to prepare for Central next Thursday. Marks & Son have made an offer of a marcon coat sweater to the Tech player on the team who plays the best all-round game against Central. The question of the best playing done during the game will be left in the hands of three impartial judges, who will be chosen unknown to the members of the team. RECORD CROWD AT NEW HAVEN GAME

Yale Meets Harvard With Betting Honors Even; Capt. Black

in Hospital Before Game

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 25 .- Clear kies, crisp atmosphere which made furs and sheepskin coats acceptable, and a westerly wind with energy enough in it to influence the punting side of the game, were the weather conditions to-day for the Yale-Har-vard football classic in the great Yale oowl. The crowd was the feature, for those who composed it began to pour into the city almost before breakfast ime

Eighty thousand persons, lacking a few hundred, considered themselves fortunate in having obtained seats from among the one hundred thousand who had applied for reserve seats within the bowl. In all the story of contests between the Blue and the Crimson there has never been a time Crimson there has never been a time when the audience promised to be so great a feature off the field of play. It grew from hotels where men of so-cial standing and wealth spent the night in uncertain rest on lounges, chairs, pool tables and mattresses laid upon the floors from sleeping cars on raliroad sidings, from automobiles which stretched along the city streets and from trolley cars and railroad trains which brought tens of thou-sands.

service tickets are disposed of in this manner. Interest in both games is excep-tionally keen, as it is expected each struggle will be closer and much more spectacular than similar games in the past few years. This is particularly true of the meeting of the two uni-versity teams at New Haven. Yale will send against the Crimson the best combination that has represented the Blue in recent sensons, and while it is the first test of the Tad Jones' coach-ing system, opposed to the methods of football tuition as advocated by Percy Haughton, the outcome is con-siderably in doubt. The West Point team contains sev-reral veterans who have played pre-vious seasons with the cadets or at other institutions and who have es-tablished reputations as ridiron stars. Tech's chances of winning next Thursday's game according to dope-sters are good. Early this week Cen-tral admirers were ready to hand it few days Tech has been quite a favor-ite. A victory over Steelton to-day will put the Tech eleven haed in the choice. One thing is certain, it will be the greates game of the year. Several communications have been received from Williamsport in ex-planation of the Billtowners' side of the disputed game between Tech and Willamsport high. These letters will in preparation by the Tech faculty to be sent to Williamsport high school offidals, and it is also said that the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Basket-ment to make in the near future. Williamsport Big Five Central High Plays To-day on Wilkes-Barre Gridiron; Anxious For Final Victory

Anxious for final victory With Coaches Smith and Harris and Faculty Director B. M. Saul, the Cen-tral High squad, numbering 18 play-ers, left early this morning for Wil-kes-Barre. The Coal Barons have worked hard for this contest and while not certain of victory hope to hold the Harrisburgers to a low score. Coach Pat O'Brien who has charge of the Wilkes-Barre team is anxious to show some new things in football to-day. He anticipates a hard battle. When here with his team three weeks ago he placed great things on Mendel.

ago he placed great things on Mendel-Sohn who was the deal sohn who was the star in the game.

Central will be without the services of Herring who is still on the injured list but expects to be in the line-up on Thursday. Captain Hilton and his teammates were in good spirits this morning and gave notice that they would bring home another scalp.

WORLD'S BOWLING RECORD

WORLD'S BOWLING RECORD Tampa, Fla., Nov. 25. — Rolling against the Nationals in the Cigar City Bowling League, the Centro Asturiano Club's five last night made what is said by league officials to be a new world's record for five-man teams on regulation alleys in competition. The total score was 3513, an average of 1171. The low man rolled 637 and high man rolled 736. The Nationals rolled 2904. The previous record is held by the Rochester State League team with 3497 against Syracuse in 1918, according to information avail-able here. AMUSEMENTS MAJESTIC Show To-night Continues 6 to 11

A New York and several other con-tests of lesser general interest, includ-ing the Pennsylvania-West Virginia
Wesleyan game at Franklin Field.
More than 77,000 seats have been distributed for the Harvard-Yalina
Wesleyan game at Franklin Field.
More than 77,000 seats have been swill witness the clash between the unite States Millary and Naval Acad-tion far outstripped the supply.
Total Gate Receipts
If it had been possible to accommo-date all applicants for tickets the ati-te dance at these two games would have approached close to 200,000, The total gate receipts will exceed $215,000.
This amount would be greatly in creased if all the Navy-Army seats were put on sale, but not a third of service tickets are disposed of in this manner.

COMMISSIONERS TO MEET Chicago, Ill., Nov. 25.—The national baseball commission will hold a special meeting here next Wednesday, Presi-dent Ban Johnson, of the American League, announced to-day. Changes in the form of players' contracts will be brought before the body, but would considered, Mr. Johnson said. He said the question of a change in the chair-manship of the commission would not be brought before the body, but would be settled by the club owners of the two major leagues. CAMERON TEAM WINS

There will be addresses by the member of Academy faculty, several alumni members and Coach Schlich-ter. Covers will be placed for 60 and Harrisburg to-night the annual ban-quet will be held at the Commongreat time is expected. The game this afternoon is with Lebanon High. The entire squad ac-companied Coach Schlichter, also a large representation of the student body. In the event of a victory which is expected, the team and rooters will be met at the station on their arrival home and escorted to the hotel. YOST, OF ALBRIGHT, INJURED YOST, OF ALBRIGHT, INJORED Myerstown, Pa., Nov. 25.—Albright will be without the services of former Captain George Yost at center in the final game of the Red and White team's schedule with Pennsylvania Military College on Thanksgiving Day. In making a tackle yesterday Yost suf-fered a fractured left shoulder. Cap-tain Guy Shambaugh is again on the hospital list with a sprained leg, but present indications are that he will be able to get into the Thanksgiving Day game. BALLOON PATCH SUPPORTS SIX PERSONS BALLOON PATCH SUPPORTS SIX PERSONS The care which is exercised to give a wide margin of strength to those parts of a balloon that are subjected to stress, is well illustrated by the manner in which the patches for kite balloons of a certain make are con-structed. Each of these huge gas tached to ropes that support the balloon fabric it is separated into its four strands and then frayed out. The frayed portions are then sewed to the fabric, after which another layer of the material is cemented, over it. The basket which is suspended from these ropes is designed to carry two persons and yet, so strongly are the patches made, one of them will sup-port six people without tearing, as shown in an illustration in the No-vember Popular Mechanics Magazine.
