CENTRAL FIGHTS HARD TO FINISH

Mendelsohn's Plunging Responsible For Wilkes-Barre Victory on Saturday

Central lost to Wilkes-Barre High Saturday, score, 19 to 14. It was a spirited contest and the local eleven was in evidence most of the time. Breaks favored Wilkes-Barre, the game being played on their home field. Mendelsohn was again the big star. His plunging was a factor in the goals that brought touchdowns for the Colts Barons.

Hilton and Rose fell on the ball back of the goal line early in the first half after Wilkes-Barre had failed to take the kick-off and allowed the ball to roll away from them. Wilkes-Barre scored two touchdowns in the first period.

Each team scored in the second period. The deciding score by Wilkes-Barre was made by K. Fredericks near the close of the first half on a forward pass from Mendelsohn. Martz, Fields, Hilton, Wolfe, Herring, Frank and Gregory played a great game for Central. The line-up and summary:

INDIAN RUNNERS WIN Carlisle, Nov. 27.—The annual Carlisle Indian-Dickinson College cross-country run over a three and one-half mile course for the Guy Carleton Lee cup, was staged Saturday, the Indians easily pulling out winner, score 17-61. Juan Rontzu, who bids fair to surpass Lewis Wentamina, in his palmy days, won first place with over a one-eighth mile lead, apparently not having been forced to get up steam. Time 18 minutes 47 seconds. The first ten in order were, after Rontzu, Alfred Spider, John Davis, Carlisle; Captain Miller Cook, Dickinson; Paul Red Star, L. Conley, Frank Mitchell, C. Torree, Tom Montoya, Carlisle; Eugene Flood, Dickinson. The others in order were: Brown, Roy Oshkosh, Carlisle; Himm, Dickinson; Joseph Oldfield, Carlisle; Doherty, Dickinson; Little Wolf, Cadotte, Clark, Carlisle; Atkinson, Dickinson; Shagoby, Roland Oshkosh, Carlisle.

WELLY'S CORNER

William Farr Robinson of Philadelphia, Harvard's drop kicking quarterback is a favorite for captain next season. He has one opponent, Ralph Horvenc of Chicago, the punting halfback.

Notwithstanding the tie score on Saturday Steelton won a whole lot of glory. Of course there are different opinions as to who showed the best form. There was one opinion, however, regarding Steelton. The Tartan bunch played football and during the season showed a comeback form that must not be overlooked. Coach Taggart has a team of stars. It is a question with some whether the presence of Harris or Lloyd in the line-up for Tech would have helped the locals.

Tech pulled some "hones" Saturday. The worst was in allowing Beck to try a kickoff with his injured leg. Any other good kicker might have brought better results and perhaps a goal, which would have given the locals the victory by one point.

Harrisburg Academy quit the season Saturday with one defeat. However, the Coach Schlicher crowd had a clean slate on their regular schedule. Lebanon was a late booking. It was a clean defeat and the Academy eleven took their medicine in a real sportsmanlike manner.

The hunting season for pheasants, quail, turkey, rabbits and squirrels in this State comes to a close on November 30. On the following day the deer season opens when many sportsmen will go out in the hope of bringing down one of those fleet-footed animals. From all accounts, deer are abundant in many of the up-State counties this year. The season for Bruin closes on December 15, upon which day all upland hunting will close for the year 1916, with the exception of coon shooting, which may be followed until December 31.

On their way home the Army elected their captain for next year. He is Lawrence McEney Jones of Washington, D. C. Jones is a member of the class of 1918. He played left tackle and is a heavyweight wrestler. He weighs 200 pounds and has an excellent record in school.

Because of the bad season at Syracuse there is a doubt as to Bill Holtenback being coach next season. His contract calls for one year. Yale's victory was well earned. It is a long time since Harvard met a bunch of fighters like the New Haven boys. Critics may give Harvard credit of having the best eleven, based on the season's work, but it was brilliant playing on the part of Yale that brought the victory and the season's championship.

Mystery Note Is Found Beside Dead Dentist

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 27.—Leaving a note written by some one unidentified, to the effect that "a slow sleeping potion would be a good thing for you to try," Dr. Kennon W. Egerton, a prominent dentist, was found dead yesterday in his downtown office. The room was filled with gas. His wife had thought him on a hunting trip and he was not expected back until today.

While the coroner expressed opinion that it was no doubt suicide, the police are seeking to find the sender of the note. The note read: "I have and in a feminine hand. It is believed by the police that the person who wrote it had some control over Dr. Egerton. His home life was said to be ideal. The note reads: "I see by your appointment book that you are out a good bit of late and travel like a thief in the night. I presumed you were out on one of your hunting trips. Perhaps "try" was your game. All your friends wish you success in this kind of life. A slow sleeping potion would be a good thing for you to try."

High Cost of Edibles Hits Church Suppers Woodbury, N. J., Nov. 27.—The high cost of edibles is cutting in at church functions which, at this season of the year, always plays an important part in the finances of many congregations. In place of regular chicken or oyster suppers which have been given at a nominal price, "light lunch" affairs are being scheduled in many places. These lunches are served at twenty-five cents per plate and do not include a very substantial outfit. In place of a chicken oyster supper, a local society Saturday evening gave chicken soup, rolls and salad for twenty cents. If one chose to go a little higher, there were chicken salad, rolls and coffee for forty-five cents.

BANDIT FATALLY INJURED Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 27.—James Hadgus, 24 years old, of South Bethlehem, Pa., and three companions entered a restaurant here yesterday and are said to have attempted to hold up a stranger believed to be carrying a large sum of money. Three policemen answered cries for help and as they were about to enter the restaurant the robber suspects fled, with the officers close behind. A running battle between the seven men ensued for half a dozen blocks, and Hadgus was shot through the head. He is not expected to live. His three companions escaped.
