ENTERTAIN 350 AT ANNIVERSARY

Pythians Celebrate Fifteenth Anniversary With Banquet, Music and Dancing

More than 350 members and friends of John Harris Lodge, No. 193, Knights of Pythias, celebrated the fifteenth anniversary of the founding of the lodge with a banquet in Pythian Hall, Fourteenth and Howard streets.

The Rev. Dr. Thomas Reich, pastor of Christ Lutheran Church, opened the program with prayer. Harry A. Boyer made the address of welcome and Harry D. Reel presided at the meeting. James A. Steese, of Mount Holly, was the principal speaker. A feature of the anniversary was the dedication of a large silk American flag, presented to the local lodge by the grand lodge last summer.

A short dancing program was given at the close of the banquet and several musical numbers were included in the program. Potted plants, American flags and clusters of colored electric lights were used for decorations.

The members of the entertainment committee were Harry D. Reel, chairman, Charles W. Erb, C. A. Corman, John W. Bowman and Joseph H. Benfer.

For Winter Colds

You need a real tonic. Strength is required to overcome the trouble. Let that tonic be one that is especially valuable in catarrhal conditions, and you can conquer the cold. A cold is acute catarrh; it may become chronic. Chronic catarrh frequently becomes systemic, involving the stomach and the intestinal tract as well as the nose or throat. It means stagnation.

PERUNA IS INVIGORATION

It clears away the waste matter, dispels the inflammation and tones up the system. For forty-five years it has been used in catarrh by thousands of grateful sufferers, who willingly tell the world of their relief. Peruna's long history of helpfulness is the best evidence that it is what you should take.

Liquid or tablet form for your convenience.

Manalin is the ideal laxative and liver tonic. In tablet form it is delicious to take, mild and effective, without unpleasant effects, and will form a habit. Liquid, 85c and $1.00; tablets, 70c and 25c.

THE PERUNA CO., Columbus, O.

Newell Albright will give a series of six lectures on Scientific Piano Technic illustrating the teachings of Tobias Matthay.

These classes, now forming, are open to teachers, students, and interested amateurs. Mr. Albright is Mr. Matthay's accredited representative for Pennsylvania.

For details inquire of Mr. Albright, 1633 North Fifth street. Bell Telephone 2144 J.

Peggy Alerts Christmas Chat

Are you quite ready for Thanksgiving Day? A big sweater, a smart suit or one of the stunning new coats is necessary to complete one's costume for the football game or whatever pleasure awaits one on Thanksgiving Day, and Astor's, Fourth and Market streets are offering these at special prices for holiday selling, so that no matter what your pocketbook offers, you are sure to find something new and stylish at the price you want to pay.

There have been most decided reductions on the finer coats, including those of bolivia, vicuna and velour cloth, luxuriously lined and lavishly trimmed with fur, while every suit in the store is offered now at a fraction of its original value. Sweaters for Thanksgiving are priced from $1.98 up.

JUST THE THING FOR A MAN

A gold knife, or a convenient cigar cutter is just the thing to make an acceptable gift for a man, and these can be bought most inexpensively at the H. C. Claster jewelry shop, 302 Market street. They offer gold-filled knives from $1.25 up, while handsome solid gold knives range in price from $3.00 up. Some have a bit of fine engraving and others are quite plain and could be monogrammed attractively. These cigar cutters are very cleverly designed, and some cost as little as 75c. Claster's also show silver knives, and the best of the clever combinations of knife blade and cigar cutter, which are just the thing to wear at the end of a watch chain.

NEW BOOKS FOR GIRLS

I have been wandering about among the wonderful collection of holiday books at Cotterell's, N. Market Square, turning reluctantly from the piles of new fiction, only to be more charmed by the beautifully illustrated gift books, but when I came to the shelves of dear little Purdy, Dotty Dimple, and the Five Little Peppers, I just wished that I could be Peter Pan and "never grow up," for I remember so well how I waited impatiently from one Xmas to the next to get the latest books of these series. Cotterell's offer a most complete assortment not only in these books for girls, but in the newer series, the Rich and the Poor, the In-school stories, and some absorbing tales for girls by Amanda Douglas. The "Little Girl" series of historical tales are also especially good reading.

THE THANKSGIVING BOOT

To tramp on the football grounds on Thanksgiving Day, or to withstand the season's worst weather, and still look smart and attractive, the Cordo-Tan Cavalier Boot, shown by the Walk-Over Boot Shop, 226 Market street, is just the thing for well-dressed women. It is the dark reddish brown real Cordo-Tan, which is a specially treated and oiled calfskin, which becomes by this process so durable that it is almost impossible to wear it out and this season Cordo-Tan is immensely fashionable. This boot is made with heel, one and five-eighths inch high, a wing tip and invisible zippers combining all the season's most striking fashion points, and sells for just $8.00.

A NEW LAMP FOR HOME PORTRAITURE

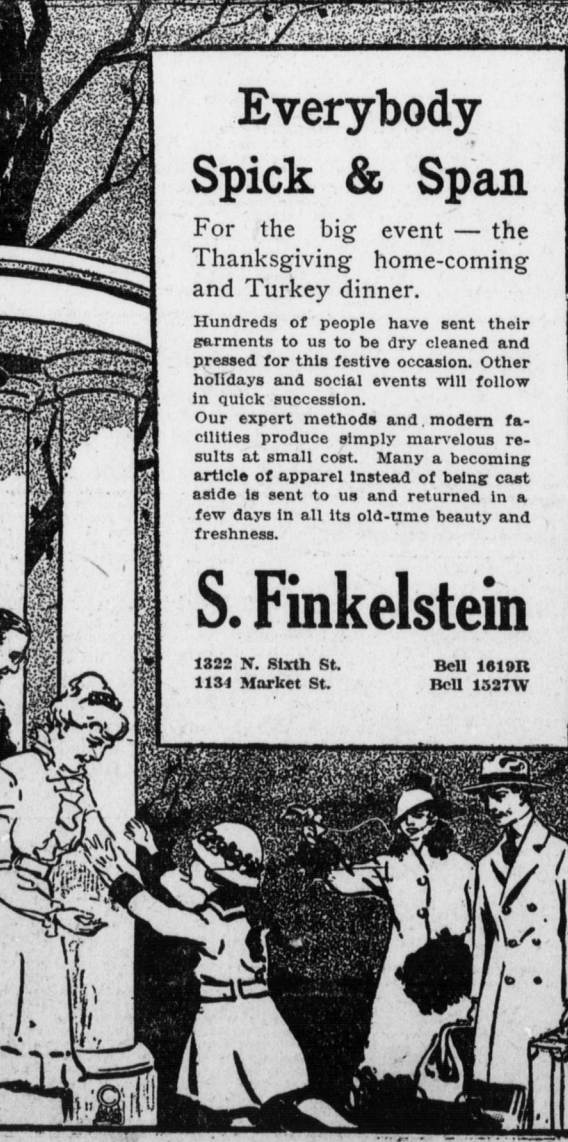

"I should like very much to have my portrait at home, for I think home portraiture is by far the most satisfactory kind of photography, but I am afraid that with the winter draperies at the windows, the light in the house would not be strong enough to take a good picture," said a woman the other day, but she probably did not know about the wonderful powerful lamp that the Roshon Studio, N. Market Square has just acquired. It gives a light just like brilliant sunshine and can be used any place where there is electric current, so that successful photographing conditions chance to be, and Roshon's make a specialty of home portraiture.

TO MAKE YOU HUNGRY

Think of all the good things to eat that you would like to have—and that is just about half of the "goodies" that are shown at the Studebaker Grocery Store, (now owned by Mr. George Barnes) Second street at the crossing of State. Big juicy grape fruit, fresh vegetables, mushrooms, Fernell stringless beans, lima, tiny peas, mammoth asparagus for salad as well as asparagus tips, mince meats, plum puddings, fruit compotes, fresh, fresh vegetables, home-made fruit cake—and all of these at the very finest grade, so delicious that they seem different from all the other kinds that you have ever tasted, so that if you succeed in getting a dinner to be of the best, you will try some of the Studebaker delicacies.

GIFTS FOR BABIES

The cutest gifts for babies and children may be found at the Woman's Exchange, Third street at Herr, at a cost so small that it seems almost nothing. For instance, they show, cunning little bibs, hemstitched or pliot edged, with just a bit of stamping—a pert little rooster, or a cute little chick in a sunbonnet—which can be outlined in bright colors, or Dutch blues, and these cost just 15c and 25c, while the aprons for kindergarten tots, with touches of embroidery are most attractive. Knitted caps and sweaters for children are shown in delightful assortment, while the celluloid novelties, penny banks, rattles, toilet sets, carriage straps, etc., many have painted offer splendid gift suggestions.

Everybody Spick & Span

For the big event—the Thanksgiving home-coming and Turkey dinner.

Hundreds of people have sent their garments to us to be dry cleaned and pressed for this festive occasion. Other holidays and social events will follow in quick succession.

Our expert methods and modern facilities produce simply marvelous results at small cost. Many a becoming article of apparel instead of being cast aside is sent to us and returned in a few days in all its old-time beauty and freshness.
