STEELTON NEWS DISCUSS PLANS FOR MORE HOMES

Municipal League Members Talk on Way to Abolish Poor Housing Conditions

Plans for relieving congestion in housing conditions in the borough were discussed by members of the Municipal League at the annual meeting and banquet held the Y. M. H. A. Hall in Front street last night.

Members last evening spoke of the probability of having a real estate dealer buy up a large tract of land to be used for the erection of about eighty houses. The league would have a standing committee to direct renting and selling of the homes.

President McEntee was authorized to appoint a committee to investigate how a plan of this kind could be worked out. The appointment will be made shortly and the committee will be put to work at once.

Activities of the league just closed and large plans for the future were presented in Professor C. S. Davis' annual report as chairman of the parks and playgrounds committee.

Officers elected for the ensuing year are as follows: President, T. T. McEntee; first vice-president, W. E. Beckrombie; second vice-president, H. L. Dress; secretary, D. C. Becker; treasurer, G. M. Long.

Fifteen new members were added to the roll of the league last night. They are H. S. Bogar, W. W. Leck, W. L. Guyen, G. R. Comstock, G. R. Cover, F. E. Howells, J. P. Bennett, G. S. Davis, W. H. Nelson, Louis Lehrman, E. H. Mengle, C. H. Beidel, L. Laborer, J. Craig, E. F. Entwistle, W. E. Chick, R. N. Crouch, R. C. Parsons, G. W. Creighton and R. V. McKay.

Witnesses Unable to Throw New Light on Mysterious Shooting

No new light was thrown on the mysterious murder of Adam Zlokas, who was shot Sunday evening, at the inquest by the coroner last evening. Witnesses heard on the death of Calvin Stewart, colored, who was found Sunday evening after participating in a fight the night before with Warren Gladen, failed to give any information.

The funeral Zlokas was held this afternoon from the St. Nicholas Serbian Orthodox church. The burial was made in the Baldwin Cemetery. The father of Stewart left Columbia, Pa., last night to come here to arrange for the burial of his son. He is expected to arrive some time this evening.

SCHWAB URGES CONSOLIDATION

Expresses Desire to Have Bethlehem United Into One Community at Banquet

South Bethlehem, Pa., Nov. 28.—Citizens of the Bethlehems, interested in the industrial, financial and commercial development of the community, to the number of 800, were the guests of Charles M. Schwab, chairman of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, at an elaborate banquet served in the Colosseum this evening.

The purpose of the big function was to get together all the business interests of the Bethlehems which to-day are enjoying the biggest boom in their history. The greater part of this vast expansion is directly due to the foresight displayed by Schwab since his coming here to take charge of the Bethlehem steel plant. His aim has always been to get the Bethlehems united under the city government.

To-night's affair was largely planned in order to forget their petty jealousies, inaugurate, one solid, influential board of trade and then consolidation of the twin cities is sure to come to pass.

The feast cost Mr. Schwab fully $15,000. The banquet hall, which seats 2,000 people or any other occasion than a banquet, was attractively decorated to represent a flower garden. An orchestra of forty pieces from the Bethlehem Steel Company band furnished the music, while a Philadelphia double quart sang.

The west side of the Colosseum contained an allegorical scene 165 feet long and 15 feet high, presenting a visionary scene of the Bethlehems as they will appear when the new $1,000,000 hill-to-hill bridge is constructed. The scene was painted by Frank Williamson.

There was served at the banquet the following foodstuffs: Seventy-five fifteen-pound turkeys, 500 green geese for soup, 300 salmon trout, 150 prime pieces, 25 Virginia hams, 12 three-pound Edam cheeses, 10 heads Roquefort cheese, 30 bushels of sweet potatoes, 100 honey dew melons, etc.

One carload of southern smilax from South Carolina was used in the decorations, and 154 baskets of mixed flowers were placed on the tables, of which there were 66. The speakers' table was 100 feet in length. On the center of it there was a 10-foot plateau of prima donna roses, while the border of the plateau was studded with carnations.

HELD FOR COURT

TWELVE CYLINDERS OR SIX IN ONE CAR

The latest thing in automobiles is a car with a twelve-cylinder motor which can be changed to a six by mere twist of the wrist, says the Popular Science Monthly for December. While it gives great power for quick acceleration and for hill climbing and flexible control on high gear, the twelve-cylinder motor is nevertheless a large consumer of gasoline and therefore expensive to operate. On the other hand, the power of the twelve is advantageous under some conditions, while the driving of the ordinary car is done under conditions that could be equally as well done with a six as with a twelve-cylinder motor, and at a lesser consumption of gasoline. To meet these conditions, a Cincinnati automobile manufacturer has brought out a twelve-cylinder car which can be changed to a six at will, simply by turning a lever carried under the steering wheel.

miles from Bucharest, with a railroad running thence along which the advance may be pressed.

In occupying Curtea de Arges, General Von Falkenhayn's troops apparently have driven the Rumanians from the line of the Topolog and may even have broken, near its northern end, the line of the Arcechu, along which the Rumanians were expected to make a decisive stand.

Big Guns Roar at Ypres Thus the semicircle drawn about Bucharest and the Rumanian armies is gradually but steadily being drawn closer. Substantial successes are reported by Berlin in the new operations for tightening the noose at Ypres.

Considerable interest attaches to the reports of artillery activity that continue to come from the Ypres, Arras and Armentieres districts, toward the northern end of the Franco-Belgium coast. The Ypres sector, in particular, has been twice mentioned within the last 24 hours in the British reports, last night as the scene of a British bombardment, while to-day heavy German shelling of the line north of Ypres is recorded. Recent reports from Berlin declared that indications were accumulating that an attack by the entente at some new point along the German lines on the western front was in contemplation.

Germans Win in Monastir

Berlin to-day emphasizes the importance of the German-Bulgarian success in defeating a strong attack by entente forces along a wide front in the Monastir region. Extremely heavy losses are declared to have been suffered by the French, Serbians, Italians and Russians in an assault which netted them nothing.

Allied Military Critics Still Cling to Hope That Rumanians Will Hold Firm

London, Nov. 28.—Military critics here still cling staunchly to the hope that the Rumanians, notwithstanding latest serious developments for them, will be able at least to avoid defeat and bring the invaders to a halt. It is remarked that the Rumanians, although still retreating, preserve an unbroken front except at one nonvital point, while the very moderate German claims regarding prisoners, guns and booty is surprising in view of the rapidity of their advance.

The expectation now is that the Rumanians will fall back behind the Arcechu, not risking a decisive battle until they reach that river. If they can consolidate there they may, it is argued, hold the Germans and protect Bucharest. It is recalled that Eucharist is defended by a girdle of forts which were of some defensive value thirty years, but which can no more keep the Germans out of the city than the Scheldt forts kept them out of Antwerp. Therefore the capital can only be saved by operations in the field. Such operations, the critics claim, may even result in a Rumanian victory if the Rumanians have a reserve army corresponding to the sixth French army, which saved Paris from Von Kluck. The Arcechu and Altimers may then play the part to Rumanians that the Marne and Aisne did for France in 1914.

The Rumanians' greatest danger is considered to lie in the advance to the south by General von Demenski's Danube army, which captured Alexandria. Altogether the situation, although difficult and likely to entail considerable sacrifices on the part of the defenders, is held to be by no means desperate. Moreover, confidence is expressed that the Russians will soon be heard from.

done under conditions that could be equally as well done with a six as with a twelve-cylinder motor, and at a lesser consumption of gasoline. TWO ZEPPELINS ARE BROUGHT DOWN had not been received this morning, they were believed to have been sighted. The official account of the raid was issued this morning:

"A number of hostile airships approached the northeast coast of England between 10 and 11 o'clock last night. Bombs were dropped at various places in Yorkshire and Durham. The damage is believed to be slight."

Brought Down Over Sea

"One airship, attacked by airplanes of the royal flying corps, was brought down in flames into the sea off the coast of Durham. Another airship crossed into the North midland counties and dropped bombs at various places. On her return journey she was repeatedly attacked by airplanes of the royal flying corps and again shot down. She appears to have been damaged, for the last part of the journey was made at very slow speed. She was unable to reach the coast before the day was breaking. Near the Norfolk she apparently succeeded in effecting repairs and was proceeding east at high speed and at an altitude of over 8,000 feet when she was attacked nine miles out at sea by four machines of the royal naval air service and an armed trawler and was brought down in flames at 6.45 a. m. Full reports of the casualties and damage have not yet been received but they are believed to be slight."

Five Now Destroyed

The destruction of two Zeppelins in Monday night's raid on the northeast coast of England makes a total of five which were forced down to an attack on London on March 31 and captured in the Thames Estuary. The airship sank while in town of a British patrol boat. Prior to this, on January 31, the L. 1 was seen in the North sea in a sinking condition after a been damaged by the English coast batteries. After one of the early raids on England, on February 18, 1915, the Zeppelin L. 3 was lost in a snow storm and forced to land in Denmark where she was burned by her crew, fourteen of whom were interned by the Danish authorities.

Doctor Says Nuxated Iron Will Increase Strength of Delicate People 200% in Ten Days

In many instances—Persons have suffered untold agony for years doctoring for nervous weakness, stomach, liver or kidney disease or some other ailment when their real trouble was lack of iron in the blood.—How to tell.

New York, N. Y.—In a recent discourse Dr. E. Sauer a Specialist who has studied widely both in this country and Europe said: If you were to make an actual blood test on all people who are ill you would probably be greatly astonished at the exceedingly large number who lack iron and who are ill for no other reason than the lack of iron. The moment iron is supplied to their multitude of dangerous symptoms disappear. Without iron the blood at once loses the power to change food into living tissue and therefore nothing you eat does you any good; you don't get the strength out of it. Your food merely passes through your system like cinders through a mill with the rollers so wide apart that the mill can't grind. As a result of this continuous blood and nerve starvation, people become generally weakened, nervous and all run down and frequently develop all sorts of ailments. One is too thin, another is burdened with unhealthy fat; some are so weak they can hardly walk; some think they have dyspepsia, indigestion or liver trouble; some can't sleep at night, others are sleepy and tired all day; some are fussy and irritable, some skiny and bloodless, but all lack physical power and endurance. In such cases, it is worse than foolishness to take stimulating medicines or narcotic drugs which only whip up your flagging vital powers for the moment, maybe at the expense of your life later on. No matter what any one tells you, if you are not strong and well you owe it to yourself to make the following test. See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary airship perished and the crew of the other, consisting of 22 men, was captured. An official statement by the British war office stated that thirty persons were killed and 110 injured as the result of a bomb thrown on this occasion. On November 18 Petrograd reported that Russian troops near Pinsk on the eastern battle front brought down a large Zeppelin and captured the crew of six-

NOTE—The manufacturers of Nuxated Iron have such unbounded confidence in its potency that they will authorize an announcement that they will forfeit $100.00 to any Charitable Institution if they cannot take any man or woman under sixty who lacks iron and increase their strength 200 per cent. or over in four weeks' time, provided they have no serious organic trouble. Also they will refund your money in any case in which Nuxated Iron does not at least double your strength in ten days' time. It is dispensed in this city by Clark Keller, Geo. A. Gorgas, J. Nelson Clark and all other druggists.

tended to several members of the department, but I told the moving-picture people to keep the banners off the streets and not to make any elaborate displays in front of their theater too far ahead. Theaters must go. In the future high schools, colleges, churches or any other organization must also cut out their street banners.

To Cut 'Em Down

"Street banners or any other nuisance will not be tolerated. I have full authority to act in this matter and propose to use that authority. Not only will the stretching of street banners be prohibited. Sidewalk obstructions in the way of signboards, bicycle stands and other nuisances will also have to go."

"Those streamers will not be there to-morrow," went on the Chief. "I expected to have them removed to-day, but the city hmen are busy. The owners of the signs may remove them and save us the trouble. City Electrician Clark E. Diehl has also ordered the removal of all dead wires and ropes stretching across Market street and on principal thoroughfares. This work will be looked after to-morrow."

"The only ordinance covering signs was passed June 7, 1875, and covers wooden signs," the Chief explained. "An ordinance passed in 1903 gives me the right to remove nuisances, and I shall enforce the ordinance. I shall also make inquiries as to how far I can go regarding signs extending beyond the house lines, but believe I am powerless in this matter. My predecessors confronted similar complaints and they were unable to do much. All complaints regarding nuisances will be promptly attended to."

THE DECEMBER WOMAN'S HOME COMPANION

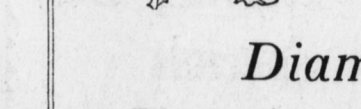

This Christmas number of the Woman's Home Companion is filled with good things. It is almost a fiction number for there are fine stories by such well-known authors as Eleanor Hallowell Abbott who begins the first part of a two-part novel; Mary E. Wilkins Freeman, Elsie Singmaster, Margaret Widdemer and Mary Heaton Vorse.

The special articles are interesting, especially the one by Arnold Bennett called "Who is the Rich Man?" An article called "Play Producing for Amateurs" gives many valuable hints and "Deciding What to Make" is also helpful.

Then there are the various departments which have devoted themselves to Christmas advice and suggestions. The fashions, cooking, picture section and all the others are filled with suggestions and plans for Christmas.

Diamonds

IN a year when many dealers are using the European War as an excuse for putting excessive prices on diamonds, it is advisable to be discreet in selecting the store at which to purchase one of these gems.

Buying a diamond of C. R. Boas means that you are sure the price is fair and the quality is exactly as represented.
