LENHART-MAUS BRIDAL THIS AFTERNOON

MR. AND MRS. N.L. MAUS.

PRETTY WEDDING IN FIRST CHURCH

Miss Grace Lenhart Becomes Bride; Couple to Reside in Suburb of Philadelphia

A pretty wedding was that which took place at 1.30 o'clock to-day in the First United Brethren Church, when Miss Grace Lenhart became the bride of Nelson LeRoy Maus, the Rev. N. L. Linebaugh, pastor of the First United Brethren Church, officiated, using the ring ceremony.

The bride, who was unattended, wore a gown of white crepe de chine over a foundation of silk with pearl trimmings and a tulle veil caught with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of pink roses with a shower of sweet heart roses. Miss Elinore Smith, the little flower girl, wore a dainty ruffled dress of white organdie and carried a large white basket the handle of which was topped with white maline, with a cluster of French rosebuds. The little ribbon girls, the Misses Maurine Spotts and Mary Elizabeth Cameron, wore white organdie dresses with white sashes and ribbons.

Miss Irma Henry, the church organist, played for the bridal. The numbers included Beethoven's Minuet in G and "The Serenade" by Franz Schubert, prior to the ceremony; Wagner's "Lohengrin" as the processional; Schumann's "Traumerei" during the ceremony and the introduction to act III of "Lohengrin" as a recessional. The ushers included Harry E. Maus, brother of the bridegroom; Lewis L. Lehart, brother of the bride; Thomas E. Beck, brother-in-law of the bride, and Ralph E. Parthemore.

The church, which was beautifully and simply decorated, offered a lovely setting for the ceremony. Large palms graced the altar on either side, with a huge basket of white chrysanthemums in the center.

Following the ceremony a reception was given at the bride's home which only the relatives of the young couple attended. Mrs. Maus will leave in a few days for their new home at 4872 Richmond street, Bridesburg, a suburb of Philadelphia.

The bride, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Lenhart, of 1327 North Front street, is a graduate of the Central high school, of the 1911 class. She was active in church work of the First United Brethren Church, where she has been organist for several years.

Mr. Maus is a son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Maus, of Bowmansdale. Prior to his residence in Philadelphia, where he is now connected with the Frankford arsenal, he was in the employ of the W. O. Hickok Manufacturing Company, of this city.

The out-of-town guests who were here for the wedding were Mrs. K. P. Bingham, Mrs. Mary A. Spotts, Miss Isora Arnold, Miss Valeria Hinkaman and Mrs. Clara Neizer, of Fort Trevorton, Pa.; Dr. and Mrs. George H. M. Bogar, of Liverpool; Mrs. Edwin S. Arnold, of Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Maus and Misses Iva and Lillian Maus, of Bowmansdale; Mrs. Clarence Faust, of Sunbury, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shenk, of Dillsburg.

Mrs. Charles Forney Leib, of the Terraces, New Cumberland, is home after a week's visit in Lebanon.

Mrs. Harriet Hauck, of Berryhill street, will spend Thanksgiving in York.

Dora Dyer, of Rolly street, is visiting in Reynoldsville.

Miss Elizabeth Howard, of Second street, is going to Mechanicsburg for Thanksgiving to be the guest of the Misses Mumper.

Peggy Alert's Christmas Chat

When you count your blessings on Thanksgiving Day, do not forget to count the more accustomed things. Coffee, for instance, we are apt to take as an ordinary necessity, but when you taste Studebaker's Special Blend, you are reminded of coffee which is a genuine luxury, one of the delicacies that you can truly be thankful for, and yet this coffee costs only 32c a lb. The Studebaker Grocery Store, owned by Mr. George Barnes, Second street at the crossing of State, makes a specialty of coffee, and no matter what price you wish to pay, you are sure of getting the best.

GIFT SUGGESTIONS IN RIBBONS
Have you seen the lovely slipper bags at Astrich's, Fourth and Market streets? One is most attractively made of wide flowered ribbon, joined by a strip of pink satin ribbon which is shirred on to give the bag a very graceful shape. A charming novelty is a heart-shaped bag of a lovely shade of Nile green ribbon, satin lined with a flowered panel in rose shades. It makes a beautiful bag and requires just one yard of ribbon. A silk muffler for men is another gift suggestion shown in the window of Astrich's and white ribbon, using just three yards. Ribbons of any price may be used for these gifts.—Astrich's showing some as low as 15c, while ribbons at 25c, 35c, 45c and 59c make handsome gifts.

GIFTS THAT CONTINUE TO DELIGHT
There are just a few gifts whose charm never wears out, and one of these is the gift of a camera. Indeed, far from wearing out—the owner's pleasure increases continually as more is learned of the possibilities of photography, and a very interesting assortment of the splendid Ansco cameras is offered at the Golden Seal Drug Store, 11 S. Market Square. They show a most complete line, ranging in price from the $2.00 Buster Browns to the fine cameras at $50.00 and $55.00. Every boy and girl should be encouraged to use a camera to go out into the woods and fields and picture the beauties of nature. Boys are usually especially interested in the development of pictures, and girls will enjoy "snapping" their friends and treasuring the photographs in memory books and photograph albums. Xmas is just the time to present an Ansco camera to the younger members of the family, and the Golden Seal Drug Store, with their splendid assortment is just the place to buy it.

CRETONNE BAGS AND BOXES
There is something about the gay and cheerful appearance of cretonne that makes gifts of cretonne especially appropriate at Yuletide, and the Woman's Exchange, Third street at Herr, shows some most attractive novelties in beautiful cretonnes. The cretonne-covered boxes with convenient drawers to hold the innumerable little things which accumulate on the dressing table are shown in different colorings, and add greatly to the appearance of the room, as well as helping to keep a place for everything and everything in its place. They are shown in different sizes and a wide range of prices. Laundry bags and shoe bags to hang on the closet door are both convenient and pretty, and are priced most reasonably at this shop.

THE HOME COMING
Every hour to-day has brought its trainloads of young men and boys home for the Thanksgiving holiday. Many of these men come from large cities, and yet they are waiting to come here to buy their winter outfit at the Doutch Store for Men, 304 Market street. The prestige that this store has gained is really remarkable, when one considers that nine years ago it was a new store, practically unknown to Harrisburg men, and yet, to-day, men are glad to wait their turn to be waited on, for they feel a certain satisfaction in buying where assortment, price, so complete, prices so fair, and service so cheerful. The store is just brimming over with new things, for the Overcoat-Fair is now in full swing, while the big assortment will prove of special interest to collegemen.

A SMART AND COMFORTABLE SHOE

A shoe which combines the maximum of comfort with the greatest possible degree of style is offered at the Walk-Over Boot Shop, 226 Market street, in the new Constant last. It is a buttoned shoe of a very fine grade of soft material, especially cut on a combination measurement. This means simply that unusual width is given at the ball of the foot to allow for bunions or corns, yet the shoe is narrow at the heel, and the toe is semi-pointed toe, so that it does not have the appearance of the ordinary extra wide shoe. In fact it has a very neat and dressy appearance, and yet gives unusual comfort to the women who suffer with enlarged joints or swollen feet. The price of this model is just $6.00.

A PRETTY GIFT OF STERLING SILVER

No matter how small a gift is, it is pleasant to know that it is the best of its kind, and that is the reason that the little word "sterling" means so much to many people. Many people feel that sterling silver necessarily involves great expense, but I found some lovely gifts in sterling at the H. C. Claster Jewelry Shop, 302 Market street, which are really very moderate in price, and wonderfully attractive. For instance they show a beautifully designed set of individual salt and pepper shakers in sterling silver for just $2.00, which compares most favorably with many, much more expensive sets that I have seen, and of course, any purchase made at the Claster store is attractively boxed for Christmas giving, which adds the touch of completeness to a satisfactory purchase.

A DREAM WORLD FOR CHILDREN

When I saw the gift books for children, at Cotterell's, 9 N. Market Square, I wanted every child to have one of them, for Christmas, for, with their lovely illustrations in color, and attractive bindings, they give a child a little dream world of beautiful thoughts and pictures, which makes the classic tales of childhood's literature live forever in their minds as treasured and helpful memories. There is a lovely volume of Kingsley's Water Babies, in large clear print, with the most delightful illustrations which any child would love, full of the charm of limpid green water, and clear blue skies. Then there is a glorified Cinderella which the fairy god-mother herself might have created, and a volume of Arabian Nights, with all the subtle mystery of the Orient in the unusual illustrations. These books range in price from $1.50 to $3.00.

CHRISTMAS MUSIC

To awake on Xmas morning with the strains of a sweet Xmas carol sung by a world-famous artist, softly singing in your ears is not an impossible dream but a very pleasant possibility in these days of perfected phonographs and no more delightful Xmas gift can be imagined than an instrument which can daily bring so much pleasure to the home. If you are thinking of all of buying a talking machine you will find the most complete assortment in the city at the J. H. Troup Music House, which is the only store where the three standard machines, Victrola, Edison and Columbia are shown, and can be compared, and chosen to suit individual tastes.

ASTRICH'S

Friday Morning---We Start the Most Sensational Sale of Misses' and Ladies' SUITS and COATS

We have ever had. A sale that will surprise you, for some of these values offered are so exceptional, that occurring as this one does right in the heart of the season, when you can have a whole winter's wear out of them, makes the saving even greater than the low prices indicate.

This is why we are able to offer you these almost impossible values now. Our buyer, while in the city this week, came across three manufacturers of HIGH CLASS COATS who were changing their business location December 1. All having quite a large stock on hand and not caring to move this stock to their new quarters; we were able to buy these garments at our own prices which were very low and which will enable us to offer them to you at the same low prices—many of these coats we could sell for much more, but our policy is to let our customers benefit as well as ourselves from the advantages of this savings.

We have divided these coats into THREE LOTS for quick selling. Remember—no matter which price you want to pay you will find something that will please you.

Watch Our Windows For These Values

300 ATTEND CARD PARTY

More than 300 were present last night at the card party given at St. Francis' Catholic church. Prizes were awarded to thirty successful players. The committee on arrangements included Miss Margaret Sullivan, Mrs. Bernard Schmidt, Mrs. Timothy O'Leary, Mrs. Ella Findley and Mrs. Charles Glimmer.

AUTHORS CLUB MEETS.

Members of the Authors Club met last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Garner, 218 Forster street. F. Hopkinson Smith and Dr. S. Wier Mitchell were the authors discussed and an interesting program was given.

SURPRISE PASTOR

The Woman's Bible class of the Fourth Street Church of Christ gave a surprise party last evening for the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse G. Smith, 2349 Penn street. Refreshments were served to twenty guests.

Mrs. Amos Titzel, 212 North Fourteenth street, entertained the Kill Kare Embroidery club yesterday afternoon.

The Sunshine Guild of New Cumberland will meet this evening at the home of Mrs. Edward Westenhaver.

A meeting of the Home and Missionary Society of the Ridge Avenue Methodist Church was held last night. A Christmas barrel was packed to be shipped to a needy minister in Louisiana after which refreshments were served.

Turkey an' All the Fixin's
Make up your mind now to join the jolly crowd at The Palace on Thanksgiving.
A real old-fashioned Thanksgiving Turkey Dinner — and all that goes with it, served from 11.00 A. M. to 8 P. M. — 75c the plate.
Tell the good wife there'll be no baking, and roasting, and serving for her to do this Thanksgiving, but that it's going to be a happy day off, with TURKEY DINNER at The Palace as the big feature. Isn't this the enjoyable, the sensible thing to do after all?
