Mr. Stough declared his sermons on prostitution, gambling and the saloon evils were directed against his prosecutors only as men who held political power; but he refused to deny that he made capital of the slander suits in sermons at Harrisburg subsequent to the closing of the Hazleton campaign. and it is possible that the aggregate of the income for the day may reach half a million dollars.

For the fiscal year of 1915 the State revenue was $31,990,727.85 and for the fiscal year of 1914 $31,441,050.51.

In 1912 it ran up to $35,348,615.35 and in 1912 $32,374,890.46. In 1911 it was $32,146,978.23 and in 1910 $23,946,424.43.

State Treasurer Young to-day sent out checks which will clear up payments of all of the school districts which have filed the required papers. A few districts have not yet met the requirements of the State in this respect. The total payment of school money will reach $6,000,000 for this year alone, but Mr. Young had also to pay $2,000,000 additional during the calendar year because the payments were carried into 1916 owing to the state of the finances in 1915. This payment of $8,000,000 in less than a year for schools is something unprecedented. Incidentally, Mr. Young has done much in getting all districts paid at the end of the fiscal year.

Auditor General Powell to-day estimated that the revenue record for his department would be broken by several hundred thousand dollars.

Gardner Around.—M. I. Gardner, of Bellefonte, the Democratic-Local Option candidate for the House in the Center county district, who was defeated by Representative Harry B. Scott, of Phillipsburg, was at the Capitol to-day. It was reported that Gardner, who lost by a close margin, is thinking of a contest. Scott was not helped to any great extent by the State administration in his contest, his friends claim, and he is for Baldwin.

No Great Scheme.—Officials of the State government to-day declared that A. W. Brunner, the architect for Capitol Park, had not decided upon any buildings to be placed in the park and that he had not filed any studies showing new structures for the park zone.

Heinz Incorporates. — The H. J. Heinz Company, of Pittsburgh, was granted a charter yesterday with a capital of $250,000.

No Disease Here.—The State Livestock Sanitary Board last night announced that there was no foot and mouth disease in the state and that the quarantine was a precaution and nothing else. The state has been free of the disease for over a year.

Sat at Reading. — Commissioner Ryan sat yesterday at Reading in the Bingaman street grade crossing cases, Commissiner Ainey having been prevented by the death of his mother from attending.

No Decision Given. — No decision was given last night in the application made yesterday for revocation of the automobile license of Wilbur M. Whittaker, of Alexandria, accused of reckless driving. The hearings was held at the State Highway Department.

Mr. Patrick Honored.—John B. Patrick, of the State Department, has received a handsome bronze badge as colonel and aide de camp on the staff of William J. Patterson, national commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic. Colonel Patrick served in the Ninety-seventh Pennsylvania Volunteers in the war.

Will Investigate Gas.—Investigation into an increase in the industrial rates of the Allegheny Heating Company, Equitable Gas Company and Monongahela Natural Gas Company, which supply gas to Pittsburgh and Allegheny Hogan McKee, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of Pittsburgh, in a complaint filed before the Public Service Commission. The new rates, which were filed in a supplement on October 31, are alleged to be an increase of 25 per cent. A big investigation will probably follow.

Bucks Scantor Here.—Senator C. R. Buckman, of Bucks county, was at the Capitol to-day.

District Attorneys Here.—A number of up-state district attorneys were here to-day for the water conference. They visited Attorney General Brown.

Ex-Senator Visits.—Ex-Senator John S. Fisher, of Indiana county, was at the Capitol greeting friends.

Prohibition Statement.—Thomas H. Hamilton, treasurer of the Prohibition state committee, to-day filed an accounting showing $16,819.39 received and $15.237.31 expended. The committee has a balance of $1,282.08. Candidates for elector certifying to spending less than $50 were Simon P. Light, Democrat; T. H. Hamilton, Prohibition; George Homan and H. H. Governor for Cox.—While Governor Brumbaugh to-day declined to say whether the announcement of candidacy of Representative Edwin R. Cox, of Philadelphia, for Speaker was the "development" he was awaiting in the speakership matter, it is understood that before leaving for Philadelphia to eat Thanksgiving turkey and to meet his friends the Governor will issue a statement endorsing the South Philadelphian, who was sponsor for his child laber bill.

Big Final Day.—The final day of the State fiscal year was a big one at the fiscal departments. The Reading paid over $300,000 in taxes and the Southern Pipe Line $123,000.

CITY TO GIVE THANKS TOMORROW

[Continued From First Page] resumed with the statement that Thanksgiving Day in Harrisburg will be observed in much the same old way.)

Some 10,000 to 12,000 folks will give much thought to the Weather Man. If he doesn't come through tomorrow with some real cold, snappy, tingling product with just enough sunshine and blue sky mixed in to make the day "just right" for furs he'll be persona non grata for sure!

For to-morrow's the "big game"—the annual "classic," as it has been called of late since the Harvard-Yale and similar contests are history—between Central and Technical High School football elevens will be staged at Island Park. And the 10,000 to 12,000 folks represent some at least of the many who will see that game. And there is just a chance that it will be the last game of the kind to be played in Harrisburg. By next year the new high school problem may be under way toward solution and the The Classic "Classic" studying together at the trades school. Which is one blg reason, by the way, why Tech alumni are so anxious to have a big turnout of graduates for the school parade.

Where to Enjoy Yourself
The game is due to begin at 2.20. For details take a glance at the Telegraph's sporting page.

In the moruling and during the afternoon there will be dozens of amateur games. The movies and the theaters will do some business in the afternoon and then there will be the big dinner—if the powers that be in charge of turkeys and things don't grow too arrogant as to prices.

Many a family reunion 'round the idinner table is scheduled and the guests will be augmented quite considerably by son and daughter home from college for the day. The evening will be a joyous one socially. Any number of dances and small parties have been arranged. The basketball game and dance at Chestnut Street Auditorium to-night will draw a great many hundreds, too. At the country clubs there will be dances.

For Many Blessings
Harrisburg will give thanks in the churches also. To-night has been set apart by many congregations for annual Thanksgiving services.

And best of all, the Telegraph is going to observe a holiday, too.
