

Wonder $1.11 Clothes

In normal times when a dollar bought a dollar's worth of food or clothing we claimed that clothes of the same quality as ours sold in other stores for $15 and $18. We substantiated our claim with the merchandise. The proof of every statement we ever made with reference to our clothes and to our method of doing business has been consistent for these many years that our statements are accepted as the truth.

We now tell you that WONDER CLOTHES are the same standard quality that they always were. We leave it to you to judge what the same quality can be bought for now in other stores. We do not want to say, for fear that you think we are exaggerating. We could not afford to reduce the quality of our clothes—our very business existence depends upon our maintaining it.

From our own factory direct to you, with just two profits, yours and ours—no middleman's.

REGULARS WILL ENLIST FOR N. G. P.

Adjutant General Stewart Hears That Recruiting Will Be Facilitated

Adjutant General Stewart announced that recruiting officers of the United States Army had been authorized to make enlistments of men for the organizations of the National Guard of Pennsylvania now on duty on the Mexican border with a view to bringing them up to war strength. Men enlisting can decide which organization they desire to enter. Recruits will be sent to Fort DuPont, Delaware, to complete enlistment and will be forwarded from that point to the camps of the organizations designated. They will be assigned to units on arrival at the camps.

Statements that they had expended less than $50 or nothing were filed at the Capitol to-day by the following candidates for presidential elector: Webster Grim, H. S. Bender, D. C. Corbett, Democrats; Joseph M. Hall, R. B. Greer, Republicans; R. M. Ramsey, J. Rinker, I. W. Hopkins, Prohibition, and S. Sloan, Socialist.

William E. Lewis of Bethlehem, was to-day promoted from second to first lieutenant and assigned to Company M, 4th Infantry.

Reports received at the office of the State Game Commission to-day told of hundreds of hunters entering wooded districts for the opening of the deer season to-day. The central and southern counties reported many hunting parties and the State forestry commission reported having issued permits for scores of camp sites. The deer season will run until December 15.

Deputy Fire Marshal Moran left to-day for Scranton and Wilkes-Barre to make inspections. He will also visit Athens.

A requisition was made to-day by the Governor of Illinois for return to Chicago of H. Anthony, charged with working a "confidence game" in that city and now under arrest in Pittsburgh.

W. H. Ent, Pottsville, was to-day appointed a notary public.

Coach Daly Has Greatest Squad in Army's History

COACH DALY.

Beyond a question of a doubt Head Coach Charles Daly has brought his West Point gridiron squad up to a state of efficiency that exceeds anything the Army has seen in many seasons past. West Point's record this season places the outfit almost on a footing with the great teams of Pittsburgh and Brown for the premier honors of the east.

The Army has not only met and triumphed over many eastern teams, but has taken the measure of Coach Jesse Harper's Notre Dame collegians in such a commanding fashion that few refuse them credit of having one of the greatest squads in the academy's history.

TROUP'S -- The Best Place to Buy Your Christmas Piano or Playerpiano

For years this store has had the distinction of selling most of the Christmas Pianos sold in Harrisburg. If you are interested in a piano you will be interested in knowing why this is true, for if the majority of piano buyers come to Troup's that's a very good reason why you should come here also, is it not?

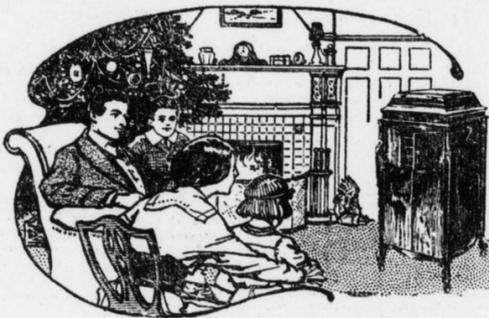

The reason is this: Troup's offer the greatest variety of leading makes, and sell at lower prices, quality for quality, than any other store in the city.

Test that statement for yourself. See the best quality and value offered anywhere, then come here and make comparisons. Here you will find—

Grand Pianos, $750

Upright Pianos $190 to $550. Playerpianos $395 to $1200

Here you have choice of such pianos as Chickering, Kimball, Poole, Shoninger, Bush & Lane, Marshall & Wendell, Weser Bros., Frances Bacon and Angelus Player-pianos; all fully guaranteed and sold on Special Christmas Terms, whereby you make only a small cash deposit and have any instrument reserved or delivered at once—with no further payment coming due until January; then monthly amounts to suit you. And this is the only store in the city where you may hear and compare

Victor--Edison--Columbia

Our present display includes all styles of all three makes, in the different colors of wood. Now's the time to make comparisons and decisions — and tell us when to make delivery. Remember, you need pay cash only for your records, if you wish; begin paying monthly after Christmas.

Come Today or Tomorrow. Special Demonstrations. Store Open Until 9 P.M.

CITY TO FIGHT STATE'S ORDER

nation through the water supplies. For more than a month the department of streets and public improvements maintained these plants and expended more than $2,100 of the $3,000 appropriated for the purpose.

Remove Plants. In Council last Tuesday City Commissioner W. H. Lynch, superintendent of the streets and public improvement department, told Council that he intended to discontinue the operation of the plants in view of the fact that the City Health Department is insisting upon the treatment of the offal from the infected houses before the drainage reaches the sewers, because the epidemic has passed, because there are no new cases, because there are no towns down stream which obtain their water supplies from the Susquehanna which do not filter their water, and because of the heavy expense.

To-day Mr. Lynch announced that the temporary plants had been torn down and the paraphernalia removed.

To Await State's Move. Wednesday afternoon State Health Commissioner Dixon placed the whole matter in the hands of the Attorney General with instructions to take the necessary steps by mandamus or other legal means to compel the city to obey his order.

Commissioner Lynch said to-day that he will report to Council this evening as to the State's action. "So far as I am concerned," said Mr. Lynch, "I am satisfied to let the courts pass upon this matter." Other councilmen, it is understood, feel the same way and the belief was expressed in city circles to-day that council would await the action of the Attorney General.

Jitney Count In. Council this evening will also receive the formal certification of the official count of the jitney vote which will mean that the amendment will go into effect to-morrow on the initiative movement.

The Riverside annexation ordinance will also be threshed out and the question of the capitol park extension exonerations will likely be taken up. The only other matter of importance on the program is the selection of attorneys to present the city's request to the Public Service Commission for permission to build the proposed Walnut street bridge across the Pennsylvania tracks. Fox and Geyer, it is understood, will likely be the law firm recommended for the job in the absence of City Solicitor D. S. Setz. December 15 has been fixed as the date for the hearing.

HANDSOME NEW STORE FRONT OF LADIES' BAZAAR

A little over six years ago Morris Schondorf opened a ladies' coat and suit business at No. 12 South Fourth street, under the name of the Ladies' Bazaar. The quarters were small and stocks were limited in size. But in a short time business began to come and it was not many years before it became evident that larger quarters were necessary to accommodate the rapidly growing business. An opportunity was presented whereby the storeroom adjoining, number 10 S. Fourth street might be acquired, and negotiations were immediately begun, the outgrowth of which marked the joining of storerooms 10 and 12 and doubling the floor space of the store. Fitting rooms were moved to the second floor and every available inch of the increased space utilized for the display of merchandise. And still the business grew, until increasing patronage made necessary additional space for its proper accommodation. A few months ago storeroom number 8 was vacated by its former tenants, and Mr. Schondorf immediately secured this property to join with the other two in providing adequate business facilities. Then came a number of changes to the exterior and interior of the three buildings which would give to the enlarged store a uniform front over the three buildings and a large, bright interior. For weeks contractors have been busy tearing out partitions, and remodeling the interior of the store, which gives to the owner of the business most attractive and up-to-date quarters. The new front is beautiful and impressive. It is constructed almost wholly of plate glass, with marble base boards. The display window floors are of parquetry flooring and rich paneling of maple and Circassian walnut form the background of the windows. In celebration of the completion of the work the store will conduct a celebration sale beginning to-morrow morning. Mr. Schondorf is well known in Harrisburg business circles, and is interested in Harrisburg's growth. He is a member of the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce, and a liberal subscriber to the stock of the new hotel. His new store is a credit to his enterprise during the brief period he has been identified with Harrisburg's commercial life.
