

Which?

A Cream and Sugar Breakfast or a Real One

Cream and sugar do not make a breakfast. And too many breakfasts—or what are called breakfasts—are only excuses for cream and sugar.

Do you feel empty at ten o'clock—do you feel that you lack stamina before the morning is half over—do you lose effectiveness in the most important part of the day—because you have not had sustaining food?

Then give up cream and sugar breakfasts—eat a real breakfast—a Cream of Barley breakfast. It is nourishing—distinctly delicious—energy giving and sustaining. At your Grocer.

BUSHEY-HOLLENBAUGH BRIDAL
Among the Thanksgiving Day weddings was that of Miss Florence May Hollenbaugh, of 429 Peffer street to Alfred E. Bushey of 2023 North Sixth street. The ceremony was performed yesterday morning in the parsonage of the St. John's Reformed Church with the Rev. G. W. Hartman, pastor of the church officiating. Mr. Bushey is connected with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. After a wedding trip to Philadelphia and New York the young couple will reside in this city.

Peggy Alerts Christmas Chat

"The charm of music is the sense of joyous serenity that it can bring," and whenever I enter the J. H. Troup Music House, 15 S. Market Square, I think of that sentence, for something of the very spirit of music seems to permeate the atmosphere of this store. There is joy in the beauty of the wonderful pianos and talking machines,—both the beauty of exterior finish and the beauty of perfect tone,—and there is serenity and satisfaction in the completeness of the assortments offered, and in the unobtrusive but helpful and intelligent service which is so warmly and so promptly received. In the midst of the Christmas rush, it is very pleasant to find this big progressive store, so willing to aid in Christmas shopping for the best of "things musical"—pianos, talking machines, record and rolls.

GIFTS THAT EXPRESS FRIENDSHIP
The gifts most worth-while are those which show the thoughtfulness of the giver, rather than the extent of his purse, and the new Christmas calendars shown at Cotterell's, 9 N. Market Square, make it possible to put a great deal of love and friendship into a very inexpensive gift. There are the happy Calendars of Sunshine, the convenient little Business Men's Calendars in holiday attire, the beautiful Calendars of the year and a very lovely Calendar of Hymns, which would make just the gift for some dear old lady, or some child of Sunday-school age. "Between Yesterday and Today," I noticed as the name for one calendar, which struck me as being most appropriate as a token of friendship which had begun many years ago.

AN INDIVIDUAL GIFT
So attractive are the marmalade jars, specially offered for just 50c, which are shown by the H. C. Claster Jewelry Shop, 302 Market street, which offers a touch of individuality with a very pretty and practical gift. Most good housekeepers have a certain recipe for which they are justly famous, and what better gift than a glass of this presented to a friend in a dainty silver and glass marmalade jar? So often she is just the limit of the money one wishes to spend on a gift, and one of these pretty jars, either filled or unfilled makes a delightful gift. Besides these, Claster's show a beautiful marmalade jar in handsomely cut glass, with sterling silver top and spoon for $2.00, while many gift suggestions in jewelry are offered at just 50c.

A SMART COMBINATION
Many new styles have been presented this season in footwear, but design has won more permanent approval with well-dressed women than the smart combination of black boot with white kid uppers. Light colored spots have a very definite place in fashionable attire, but the woman who can afford to get this effect in a shoe of contrasting color, naturally prefers it for its trim and smart appearance, and the Walk-Over Boot Shop, 226 Market street shows a new boot in fine black kid with white kid uppers, which is offered at a price which brings it within the reach of those women who appreciate good style and perfect workmanship in their footwear and yet cannot afford to pay the top price, for shoes of this character. The price of this new boot at the Walk-Over Shop, is just $8.00.

THE CHILDREN'S CHRISTMAS
Making Christmas merry for the little tots is the best part of Yuletide for the grown-ups, and the Woman's Exchange, Third street at Herr, shows an abundance of clever gifts for children. For the wee little babies, there are cunning rattles—white, pink and blue, dear little bows and rosettes of ribbon for coach covers or frocks, baby record books, which are quite new, baby banks, bombs and brush sets and talcum boxes, many hand-decorated and delightfully attractive, yet priced from 25c up. Then there are embroidered handkerchiefs for children, embossed in appropriate designs. There are three in a basket, all ready for Santa Claus complete for 15c, while other handkerchiefs for children cost 10c apiece, or three for 25c.

THE CHRISTMAS COOKIES
Cookies, dotted with nuts, and decorated with big fat raisins, soft ginger cakes or hermits filled with nut goodies and currants, and fruit cakes rich with candied fruits are being baked now for the Christmas season, and if you want the best of ingredients for these, you will be interested in the things offered by the Studebaker Store (now owned by Mr. George Barnes) Second street at the crossing of State. They sell the famous Fennell seeded raisins, besides being very much larger and finer than the others, are sold in boxes containing the full 16 oz. instead of the 15 oz. which the usual package holds. Then, too, they offer specially dried currants, which are free from the grit often found in the sundried currants usually sold, and retain their fruit-like flavor. Specially fine citron, orange and lemon peel, and shelled nuts are also Studebaker suggestions for Xmas baking.

THE NEW PHOTOGRAPHY
"You have no idea how much easier it is to have a photograph taken in your own home, than at the studio," said a friend of mine, who had just had some excellent pictures taken of herself and her children by the Roshon Studio, 8 N. Market Square, who had come to her own home to do the work. In this way you lose the sense of constraint that is so hard to avoid when one goes to a studio and tries to "look natural" in most unnatural surroundings, while in the home it is almost impossible to assume anything but the most natural and unstilted expression, for one almost forgets that a picture is being taken. The new and powerful lamp which Mr. Roshon takes with him gives a light like daylight and assures perfect photography under any conditions.

THE TOUCH OF DISTINCTION
How quickly the little things mark the man or woman of distinction. The other night, as I sat at the theater, I noticed that the well-dressed men wore the same sort of scarfs and mufflers that I had seen in the attractive assortment offered by Dourich's, 384 Market street. In fact I believe many men had selected them at Dourich's, for I noticed one man wearing a knitted scarf of pearl gray in a very novel weave, which was just like a scarf I had seen at Dourich's, while another man in evening togs, wore one of the handsome scarfs of broad black silk, lined in white, which was shown at the same store, but the one that appealed to me most was a knitted scarf of black and red woven together so cleverly that there was just a suggestion of the red, and I noticed that the weave was so fine that the scarf could be slipped into the smallest space in a pocket. To-day I saw the same scarf at Dourich's, very reasonably priced.

A FEMINE DELIGHT
We would not be women if we did not love a bargain, and a perfect treat is offered at Astrich's, Fourth and Market streets, in the wonderful new coats which a buyer has just purchased most opportunely during a hurried trip to New York. The coats are just beauties,—fine soft cloths in the new colors, smartly cut in latest fashion, many fur-trimmed and priced,—just think of it—at $9.99, $15.00 and $25.00. They are real bargains to delight the heart of femininity and to satisfy the purses of economical husbands. Such crowds of people have taken advantage of this splendid opportunity, that the assortment of sizes is rapidly being broken, but there are still a great many bargains left for Saturday's selling, and bargains are just as alluring as ever.

SOCIAL HOUSEWARMING IN NEW CLUBHOUSE

Harrisburg Civic Club Throws Open Its Beautiful Home on Thanksgiving

To work, to wait and finally to win. Such has been the history of the Harrisburg Civic Club. Yesterday, most appropriate date for so important an occasion, the doors of the new clubhouse were thrown open to all members and their friends. Up and down the stairs went the eager feet of the women who had not served upon any of the necessary committees and so were anxious to catch first glimpse of the beauties awaiting them. Before long it was almost possible to tell at a glance who were the visitors and who the regular members because of the sense of delighted ownership displayed by the latter. And much cause, indeed, have the women of the Civic Club to be proud, first of the wonderful gift bequeathed to them and then for the exquisite taste displayed in the furnishings.

The whole lower floor has been left practically unchanged to preserve the home atmosphere. On the second floor the entire south side of the building has been thrown into a large assembly hall, done in gray and white with delft blue curtains at the many windows overlooking a view hard to equal in any city. The waxed floor fairly calls an invitation to the younger dancing contingent to come and let it be enjoyed. The piano has its own alcove with ample room for an orchestra. There is an immaculate kitchenette connecting by dumb waiter with the main kitchen below, as well as dressing rooms for checking wraps and applying the final touch of powder. All can be leased together for the evening with the coziness and completeness of a private house.

The top floor is given over entirely to rooms, both single and double, for renting purposes. Woven rag rugs and simple dainty furnishings make them most attractive domiciles for women without regular homes or transients in the city. There are six renting rooms in all. There is much yet to be done in the little touches which give character and personality and the "woman touch" so essential to a homing place of women of culture. This will come with time. The wonder is that so much has been accomplished in a few months. It means unflinching zeal and untiring energy on the part of the women into whose hands the work was entrusted. Tea was served during the afternoon in the dining room on the front street side of the first floor. Mrs. Henry McCormick presiding, assisted by Mrs. John Kelly and Miss Shunk. Here, there and everywhere were the club's officers. The president, Mrs. William Henderson, received in the main hallway and gave the right note of welcome in just the right kind of word and handclasp.

LUNCHEON FOR TEN
Miss Grace Verna Brown, of State street, was hostess to play for a luncheon of ten covers in honor of Miss Claire Webster, of Baltimore. The appointments were of rose and white, with great fluffy chrysanthemums prevailing in the flowers. Here luncheon the guests enjoyed cards and music.

TO MET DR. ANNA H. SHAW
Mrs. Lyman D. Gilbert has issued invitations for Thursday afternoon, December 4, at 4 o'clock, at her residence, 203 North Front street, to meet Dr. Anna Howard Shaw. During the afternoon Dr. Shaw, one of the most prominent suffragists of the country, will speak on woman suffrage.

TO PLAY AT YORK ASSEMBLY
Miss Sara Lemer and her orchestra will go to York to-night to play for the Assembly held there. This is one of the largest affairs in the social calendar of York during the winter season and will be held at the Country Club House.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whitehall and small daughter Lida, of Elmira, N. Y., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ramsay Taylor, of North Second street.

Miss Pearl Gaines and Miss Estella Gaines, of Rochester, N. Y., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Luther P. Wilson, of Market street, for a fortnight.

Miss Mary Carroll of North Third street left yesterday for a visit at Altoona, Pittsburgh, and Huntington, W. Va.

Mrs. H. C. Bonnell and daughter, Marjorie, of Pittsburgh, who are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rouse of the Roslyn Apartments will remain in the city over the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. Harry C. Stover and daughter, Esther, of 221 South Thirteenth street, have returned home after a visit with Mrs. Stover's mother, Mrs. Koch of Columbia.

Horace Nunemaker, of 322 1/2 Crescent street, a student at Colgate College, Hamilton, N. Y., is spending the Thanksgiving holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Nunemaker, of Dourich's, 384 Market street.

Mrs. Bruce Swope of Pittsburgh is visiting her mother, Mrs. John Booker of 530 Maclay street.

Miss Mildred Gallagher, Pittsburgh, was the guest of Mr. H. K. Goodman on her way home from State College where she was the guest at the house party at the Delta Upsilon Fraternity house.

MAX COMPTON WEDS MT. HOLLY GIRL AT 9 O'CLOCK THIS A. M.

A quiet wedding was that which took place this morning in the Grace Methodist Church at 9 o'clock with the Rev. Dr. John D. Fox pastor of the church officiating. The bride and groom were Max Roswell Compton and Miss Elizabeth Walker Brown of Mt. Holly.

The bride wore a going-away suit of dark blue broadcloth with hat to match. There were no attendants and only the immediate families of the young couple were present. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Compton left for New Haven where they will be at home to their friends at 15 York Square.

The bridegroom who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Compton of this city was formerly connected with the Elliott-Fisher Typewriting Company but is now with the Winchester Repeating Arms Company of New Haven, Conn.

Curls Will Last

Says hair stays curly and wavy for a long time and appears natural too.

Girls! Try this! Before curling or waving your hair with pins, papers or a heated iron, just moisten each strand with atalpa water and you will be delighted how natural the curls and waves appear and how long they last in spite of wind, dampness or perspiration. A few ounces of atalpa water will cost very little at any drug store and there is nothing better to help retain the curls and waves or to soften, gloss or fluff the hair and to make it look thick and abundant.
