Miss Helen Weaver and Marvin A. Seely Surprise Friends With Wedding Announcements

Friends throughout the city were greatly surprised to receive in their mail this morning announcements of the marriage of Miss Helen Weaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Weaver, 1835 Hunter street and Marvin A. Seely, assistant general sales manager of the Elliott-Plaser company. The ceremony was quietly performed Thanksgiving morning at 8 o'clock in the Derry Street United Brethren church by the pastor, the Rev. Dr. J. A. Lyter. The bride wore a stylish traveling costume of dark blue cloth with hat to harmonize and a corsage bouquet of orchids. There were no attendants.

Following a wedding journey to Philadelphia and New York, Mr. and Mrs. Seely will be "at home" to their friends after February 1, 1917 in the Colonial apartments, 120 Market street. The bride, one of the prettiest and most popular girls of the younger set is a graduate of the Central High School. Mr. Seely, a native of Wall-Street, N. Y., is a son of a family of that city and an alumnus of Elmira Business College. He has lived in Harrisburg for several years and made a wide circle of friends during his residence here.

The news of the marriage would never have leaked out, yet Mr. Seely was forced to tell his employers why he wanted a little vacation just at this season of the year and had to "tess up."

Hundreds Attend Dance and Card Party in Catholic Hall; Many Prizes Awarded

One of the most successful social events of the Thanksgiving season was held in Cathedral Hall on Wednesday evening when the Catholic Club of Harrisburg, entertained at a card party and dance. Euclid was played in the gallery circle while the "500" tables were arranged in the orchestra circle.

CENTRAL HIGH NOTES OF TIMELY INTEREST

At a meeting of the High School Club of the Y. W. C. A. it was decided that their Doll Show would be held Saturday, December 16. The T. H. E. and C. A. O. societies of Central High will have part in the Doll Show, and the dolls will be given to the Associated Charities for Christmas presents for poor children of this city. During the hour Miss Robinson gave a fine address on South America, and Miss Nagle spoke most interestingly on the work of the Associated Charities in South America. Concluding the meeting the members enjoyed a social hour with folk-dancing. The club meets every Tuesday night, and has an enrollment of about 70 girls.

The judges for the Kunkel Oratorical Contest, to be held at Central High School, December 15, have been announced. They will be A. Carson Stamm, appointed by Mr. Kunkel; Wm. M. H. West, honorary attorney general, appointed by the school and Ross A. Hickok, decided upon by the two former. For the preliminaries, to be held on the morning of December 13, the judges will be Prof. Frank G. Roth, Prof. Karl E. Richards and Prof. Wm. Melkie, of the Central faculty.

The president of the Senior Class at Central, Marlin Geiger, desires to remind the students of the Senior dance, which will be held this evening in the High School Hall. The chaperons will be members of the faculty, and all Central students will be welcome.

The Centralians will meet this evening at the home of Russel Zimmerman, 615 North Eighteenth street. The vice-president will preside. A mock trial on the charge of high treason will be held and will be exceptionally interesting.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel C. Todd, North Front street, are home after a pleasure trip to Philadelphia and New York city.
