Polish Soldiers' Work Displayed by Miss Ely

A world-famous sculptor, Balziewski, whose modeling of Pederevski in bronze at Warsaw is considered one of the finest pieces of modern work, has sent some of his products to this country.

The latest work of the sculptor is the prosaic one of stuffed dolls. About a hundred of them are in this city, in the hands of the local committee handling the arrangements for the lecture.

Both dolls and cards, together with scarfpins of Polish design and manufactured by very desirable Christmas presents and will be sold at reasonable prices by the women in charge.

Announce Marriage of Miss Tress and Mr. Groom

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Tress, 308 1/2 South Second street, Thanksgiving evening at 8 o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Lillian Tress, was united in marriage to Albert Groom, of this city.

The bride, who was attended by her sister, Miss Lillian Tress, as maid of honor, wore white marquisette over silk and carried white chrysanthemums. The groom wore a white tuxedo with a white waistcoat and a white bow tie.

Following the ceremony a supper was served to about seventy-five guests. The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Blackburn, of Seneca, N. J., Mrs. John Pasco, of Johnstown; Mrs. Nelson Tress, of Washington, D. C., and Roy Sheldrake, of Philadelphia.

Martinsburg Young Folks Come Here For Marriage

Miss Julia Elizabeth Coyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Coyle, of Martinsburg, W. Va., and Ira Carroll Kline, of the same city, came to Harrisburg to-day and were united in marriage at 2:30 o'clock at the parsonage of the Zion Lutheran Church, Pine street, by the Rev. S. Winfield Hickey, pastor.

The bride wore a white tulle gown with a white sash and carried a bouquet of white flowers. The groom wore a white tuxedo and a white bow tie.

One of the refugees said the attack was opened from three directions, the first from the waterworks, the second from Coronel hill and the third from the round house, north of the city.

Armistice Brings End to Firing in Greece After Civilians Are Killed

Athens, Dec. 1.—Via London.—On the intervention of the Spanish and Dutch ministers the entire cabinet and the entire diplomatic met at the French legation at 8 o'clock this evening to discuss the possibility of an agreement. An armistice was finally arranged and the firing ceased.

TRAINMEN PLAN NEW YEAR PARADE

Brotherhood and Labor Organization to Participate; Meetings Next Week

Parades in the morning and afternoon are scheduled for New Year's Day in Harrisburg. Members of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen are planning for a big demonstration in celebration of the passage of the eight-hour law on the morning of January 1. The mummerys' celebration takes place in the afternoon.

Railroad brotherhoods and local labor organizations meeting to-morrow will take action on invitations to participate in the New Year's Day celebration. The initiative was taken by the members of White Block Lodge, No. 127, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, meeting in Fackler's Hall.

This committee includes Frank C. Mordan, chairman; William Barbour, treasurer; George Bamford, William Donacher, Charles Zimmerman, Joseph Wagner, Clarence Miller, John Maulfair and William Peters. A meeting will be held at the home of William Barbour, 1152 1/2 Market street, December 8 and at Fackler's Hall, Thirtieth and Derry streets, Monday evening, December 11.

It is the intention to make this the most elaborate labor demonstration ever held in Harrisburg. Prizes will be offered for the finest float, and for the organization having the largest number of men in line. It will be a strictly industrial and labor demonstration.

KARL STEWART, LODGE MEMBER, IS DEAD

[Continued From First Page] A year, but was not confined to his bed until five weeks ago. He was 47 years old. He was born in New Market, York county, but has resided in this city practically all of his life.

Twenty-seven years ago the C. Day Rudy company first began business, he entered the employ of C. Day Rudy, president of the company. In a cross-country run against Yale, coming out in second place, he was instrumental in the organization of the West End Republican club and was the first president of the club.

Other organizations of which he was a member are the Rotary Club of Harrisburg; Social club; Robert Burns Lodge, No. 464, F. and A. M.; Harrisburg Consistory, A. A. S. R.; Harrisburg Council, No. 7, Royal and Select Master Masons; Perseverance Chapter, No. 21, Royal Arch Masons; Zumbo Temple, A. O. N. M. E., and Harrisburg Lodge, No. 12, B. P. O. Elks.

Prominent Lodgeman Mr. Stewart was elected commander of the State camp, Sons of Veterans, more than five years ago, serving his term as an officer in that organization.

He was also a member and past commander of General John F. Hart's Camp, No. 15, Sons of Veterans, of this city. Interested in politics, business, patriotic and secret organizations, Mr. Stewart took an active part in all of which he was a member. He was instrumental in the organization of the West End Republican club and was the first president of the club.

Several years ago Mr. Stewart was appointed by the Dauphin county court as one of the viewers of the Hardscrabble district. Residing in the Hardscrabble district, he took much interest in the court proceedings in connection with that district. Funeral services will be held on Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the home. The Rev. J. Bradley Markward, pastor of Bethlehem Church will officiate, assisted by the Rev. Harry Nelson Bassler, pastor of the Second Reformed church. Cereemonies at the grave will be conducted by Robert Burns Lodge, and a firing squad of the Sons of Veterans will probably fire a salute. Burial will be made in Mt. Olivet Cemetery, New Cumberland.

Mr. Stewart is survived by his wife, his mother, Mrs. Matilda E. Stewart; one sister, Mrs. Carrie E. Stewart; and four brothers, Charles C. of Wormleysburg; John E., Yam Hill,
