

Malaria Destroys The Red Corpuscles of the Blood

S. S. S. Relieves Malaria By Cleansing the Blood

Malaria impoverishes the blood, thereby weakening the entire system. Once the Malarial germ gets into the blood it multiplies, saturating the blood with Malarial poison and impurities. You lose energy. You are a constant prey to headaches, worn-out, tired feeling. The complexion becomes sallow, the tongue coated. In order to get relief you must administer an anti-dote directly to the poison, and a tonic—blood nourishing food, to build up the wasted system. S. S. S. is the one thoroughly reliable blood tonic that will destroy the Malarial germs, and enrich the blood. This building up and blood cleansing process go hand in hand. You feel the effect immediately. S. S. S. begins at the root of the trouble. It destroys the germs and poisons, revitalizes and restores the red blood corpuscles. In a short time you feel the delightful sensation of relief from ache, headache, chills and fever. You soon feel the full sense of vigor that goes with perfect health. There is nothing as good. Get S. S. S. from your druggist. Medical advice without charge. are Pyorrhea and decay.

Both usually develop only in the mouth where germ-laden tartar is present.

"But I brush my teeth," you say. Yes, you brush them, but do you REALLY CLEAN them?

Tonight, after brushing your teeth, go to the mirror and examine them. In all probability you will find an accumulation of tartar on the enamel and bits of food deposit hiding in the crevices.

Senreco, the formula of a dental specialist, REALLY CLEANS. It embodies specially prepared, soluble granules unusually effective in cleaning away food deposits. Moreover, it is particularly destructive to the germ of Pyorrhea.

ORPHEUM — To-night — "Imperial Britain," with Burton Holmes. Wednesday, matinee and night, December 6 — "The Girl He Couldn't Buy." Friday evening, December 7 — Leopold Godowsky, assisted by Belle Story. Saturday, matinee and night, December 8 — "The Prince of Pilsen." MAJESTIC — Vaudeville. COLONIAL — "Her Double Life." REGENT — "The Storm." VICTORIA — "An Enemy of the King."

The mention of "Imperial Britain" carries our thoughts around the world by the "sun-that-for-the-British-Em-pire," as Mr. Holmes is to show it to-night, will cover the farthestmost corners of the globe. Not only does his next traveling resemble a personally-conducted trip through England, Ireland and Scotland, but Mr. Holmes will take his audience for a flying trip across Canada and thence across the Pacific to Shanghai, Hongkong, Singapore, Burma, Ceylon, Cairo, Bombay, Jaipur, Delhi, Agra, Benares, Darjeeling and the Himalayas, the Arabian Sea, Aden, the Suez Canal, Siro, Alexandria, Malta and Gibraltar. Never, since Mr. Holmes gave his traveling, entitled "A New Way Around the World," has he given one so far-reaching and comprehensive, so beautiful pictorially and so varied in interest. The colored views are more than usually beautiful and the motion pictures full of action and wonderfully re-creating. Mr. Holmes will give "Imperial Britain" at the Orpheum Theater to-night, at 8:15 o'clock.

Wholesome fun and thrilling melodrama are combined in "The Girl He Couldn't Buy," by Susan Nichols, which is to hold the boards at the Orpheum, matinee and night. The leading role is that of Hope Nelson, a beautiful and refined New York girl who has suddenly been reduced to penury by the death of her father, and finds herself in a tenement rooming house, surrounded by all kinds of pitfalls. A wealthy and self-confident rascal, who was her father's business partner, brought him to financial ruin, attempts to take her into his power. In her desperate difficulty, a professional crackman, the person of a professional crackman, (he) is unique in the manner in which the plot is worked out to its happy ending, is characterized by a well-known critic as "distinctly a dramatic triumph."

Leopold Godowsky, who enjoys an unique reputation as an intangible authority in matters of composition, money and counterpoint, as well as as a pianistic virtuoso of sublime parts, will be heard here, in a concert at the Orpheum Theater, on the evening of December 8, the third attraction of the series of Friday Evening Musicals. It is the sincerest pleasure of the Orpheum that the most honored pianist of his time, and is, the model upon which the talents of the notabilities in the field of piano-playing have molded themselves. And this not without reason, for he surpasses in all divisions of his art, where other celebrated pianists have been acknowledged pianists, a single field. The assisting artist with Godowsky will be Miss Belle Story, the young American coloratura soprano, who has already won unstated praise both in this country and abroad.

The attraction announced for the Orpheum, on Saturday, matinee and night, is "The Prince of Pilsen." This highly occupied a prominent place in the hearts of music lovers, and the forthcoming presentation will undoubtedly repeat the welcome which his former appearances. The company this season is said to be the best to which the fortunes of this favor have ever been assigned. The cast comprises: Charles Horne, Estella Birney, Edward T. Mera, George C. Hall and Frank MacEwan. Duke, Eldora Stanford, Walter James, George C. Hall and Frank MacEwan. The large chorus is said to combine in a rare degree the qualities of vocal excellence and personal charm.

A musical comedy "girl" act, entitled "Wanted—A Wife," and said to be one of the best of its kind in the city, is to be presented at the Regent. The attraction at the Regent Theater the first three days of this week. Of interest on the same bill is Milton and Dolly Robles, in their very laughable comedy, "The New Thought." These sterling legitimate players may be said to have created a sphere of their own, after having attained the highest pinnacle of success in a standard $150 traveling attraction, and well to the credit of their success, as they are among America's most advanced exponents of high-class comedy. Completing the bill are Chuck Hass, the California Cowboy; the William Morrow Company, in a singing and dancing skit, and the White Brothers, comedy acrobats.

How a girl rises from life in the slums of London to one of the highest places in English society, then falls suddenly when she discovers by which she had climbed is disclosed, is told in "Thea Bara" at the Regent. This is the same subject for William Fox, "Her Double Life," showing at the Colonial Theater to-day and to-morrow. Miss Bara takes the part of Mary Deane, the tenement child, who makes her home in The Refuge, a parish house at which Elliot Clifford (A. H. Van Buren) is pastor. When the call comes for war nurses, Mary answers. At the front she meets Lloyd Stanley (Stuart Holmes), a war correspondent, whom she had known in London. She is saved from dishonor at Stanley's hands by the bombardment of the hospital tent. After the attack, Mary finds the body of a young girl in the tent. It is Ethel Wardley (Marjorie Le Nard), a niece of Lady Clifford's, who is on her way to make her home with the aunt she has never seen. Mary changes clothes with Ethel, takes the girl's papers and luggage, and goes to Lady Clifford's. She is received as the niece. The aunt (Lucia Moore) loves the girl, and Elliot, the son, soon falls in love with her himself. And when her cup of happiness is filled, the unexpected disclosure comes. A new comedy and the Pathe News will be seen on the same program. Wednesday and Thursday, Douglas Fairbanks in "American Aristocracy," a love romance with a punch.

For to-day the Victoria offers as an attraction E. H. Sothern, the peerless star, in "An Enemy to the King," supported by Edith Storey, one of the screen's best artists. This great drama shows Mr. Sothern at his best.

Blanche Sweet will be seen at the Regent to-day and to-morrow in a thrilling drama, "The Storm." At Regent Miss Sweet has been seen today and to-morrow in "The Storm." Tomorrow she appears as a daughter of a retired professor, who is so submerged in his studies that he permits his daughter to run at will in the Maine summer resort where they live. The story has to do with a beautiful young girl, Natalie, and her studious father. Near them are camped two young men, Robert Fielding, a young millionaire, and Sheldon Avery, who is studying for the ministry. The two men discover Natalie, who is more or less a child of nature, and they both fall in love with her. How the affairs are straightened out and Natalie goes to the man she loves, and who respects her, is presented in a series of unusual dramatic scenes. Wednesday and Thursday, "The Intrigue," a modern story revolving around the invention of an X-ray gun which the United States refuses to buy. Lenore Ulrich appears in the stellar role.
