Yes, There's Always Something New in Millinery

These new arrivals at $4.95, $6.50 and $7.50 prove it.

They are the latest in winter hats and herald the vogue of satin.

Smart new turbans in black satin—a la militaire—with their stick-ups—are decidedly new—some have narrow Paisley bands that relieve the somberness of the monochrome. There are velvet turbans, too, with their military fancies, and new sailor effects are introduced.

Fashion still employs the metallic lace for the sake of brilliance, and attractive models are fashioned of both gold and silver lace in all-over effects and brims in combination with velvet and French flowers.

These days of constantly incoming styles there is every reason for the followers of fashion to keep in touch with our millinery displays.

There is no holiday dullness in this millinery section.

CONSTANTINOPLE PLEDGED TO CZAR

Duma Told of Treaty With Allies Giving Russia Straits

Petrograd, Dec. 4.—The semi-official news agency says that in the Duma Saturday Premier Treppoff read a proclamation announcing officially that an agreement concluded by Russia, France and Great Britain in 1915, and later approved by Italy, "establishes in definite manner the right of Russia to the Straits and Constantinople."

Premier Treppoff's announcement is quoted by the agency as follows: "For more than 1,000 years Russia has been reaching southward toward a free outlet on the open sea. This age-long dream, cherished in the hearts of the Russian people, now is ready for realization.

"From the beginning of the war, wishing to spare human lives and suffering, we and our allies did our utmost to restrain Turkey from mad participation in hostilities. Turkey received formal assurances guaranteeing her, in exchange for neutrality, the integrity of her territory and independence, and also conferring on her certain privileges and advantages. These efforts were vain. Turkey surreptitiously attacked us and thus sealed her own doom.

"We then concluded an agreement with our allies, which establishes in the most definite manner the right of Russia to the Straits and Constantinople. Russians should know for what they are shedding blood, and in accord with our allies, announcement of this agreement is made from this tribune."

The above confirms reports circulated several times since the war began. Professor Paul Milukoff, Russian Liberal leader, was quoted last summer as having said both sides of the Straits had been promised to Russia.

Regard Treppoff Utterances as Crushing Answer to German Peace Intrigues

Paris, Dec. 4.—The statement of Premier Treppoff before the Duma Sunday is regarded here as the most outspoken and powerful utterance pronounced in Petrograd since the outbreak of the war and a complete and crushing answer to German peace intrigues.

"In his last speech," says the Matin, "Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg was careful not to say anything against Russia. In a semi-official statement he flattered her transparently and hinted that, contrary to all appearances, there might be an honorable understanding in the east. Premier Treppoff's speech effectually disposes of the chancellor's illusions.

QUIET ON PAOT WITH RUSSIA London, Dec. 4.—The momentous declaration of the agreement by the allies to the acquisition of Constantinople and the Dardanelles by Russia is given a secondary place in the morning papers and is only commented upon by two of them. The conservative press, which formerly vehemently supported the British statesmen of the nineteenth century in keeping the Russians away from Constantinople receive the news in silence and give it no prominence.

Russ Government Is Sharply Criticized by Speakers in Duma

London, Dec. 4.—A Reuter dispatch from Petrograd quotes the peroration of the speech of Vladimir Purishkevich, vice-president of the Union of True Russians, before the duma, which, it says, was greeted with a storm of applause. M. Purishkevich said: "Beside addressing the duma I address the council of ministers. If for the ministers duty is higher than a career, if you are really a united cabinet, then go to the czar and tell him it is impossible that things go on as they are. If you are loyal subjects, if the glory and might of Russia which are closely and indissolubly bound up with the august imperial name are dear to you, then go to imperial headquarters, throw yourselves at the feet of the czar and pray to him to open his eyes to the terrible reality." Count Bobrinsky, minister of agriculture, also sharply criticized the government. Both he and Purishkevich especially singled out for attack H. Prottopoff, minister of the interior.

OLD-TIME COLD CURE—DRINK TEA!

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.
